How Should a Person Be? Sheila Heti, 2012-06-19 Chosen as one of fifteen remarkable books by women that are shaping the way we read and write in the 21st century by the book critics of The New York Times Funny odd original and nearly unclassifiable unlike any novel I can think of David Haglund The New York Times Book Review Brutally honest and stylistically inventive cerebral and sexy San Francisco Chronicle Named a Book of the Year by The New York Times Book Review The New Yorker San Francisco Chronicle Salon Flavorpill The New Republic The New York Observer The Huffington Post A raw startling genre defying novel of friendship sex and love in the new millennium a compulsive read that's like spending a day with your new best friend Bookforum Reeling from a failed marriage Sheila a twentysomething playwright finds herself unsure of how to live and create When Margaux a talented painter and free spirit and Israel a sexy and depraved artist enter her life Sheila hopes that through close sometimes too close observation of her new friend her new lover and herself she might regain her footing in art and life Using transcribed conversations real emails plus heavy doses of fiction the brilliant and always innovative Sheila Heti crafts a work that is part literary novel part self help manual and part bawdy confessional It's a totally shameless and dynamic exploration into the way we live now which breathes fresh wisdom into the eternal questions What is the sincerest way to love What kind of person should you be The Self-Help Compulsion

Beth Blum, 2020-01-28 Samuel Beckett as a guru for business executives James Joyce as a guide to living a good life The notion of notoriously experimental authors sharing a shelf with self help books might seem far fetched yet a hidden history of rivalry influence and imitation links these two worlds In The Self Help Compulsion Beth Blum reveals the profound entanglement of modern literature and commercial advice from the late nineteenth century to the present day Blum explores popular reading practices in which people turn to literature in search of practical advice alongside modern writers rebukes of such instrumental purposes As literary authors positioned themselves in opposition to people like Samuel Smiles and Dale Carnegie readers turned to self help for the promises of mobility agency and practical use that serious literature was reluctant to supply Blum unearths a series of unlikely cases of the love hate relationship between serious fiction and commercial advice from Gustave Flaubert's mockery of early DIY culture to Dear Abby's cutting diagnoses of Nathanael West and from Virginia Woolf's ambivalent polemics against self improvement to the ways that contemporary global authors such as Mohsin Hamid and Tash Aw explicitly draw on the self help genre She also traces the self help industry's tendency to popularize quote and adapt literary wisdom and considers what it might have to teach today's university Offering a new history of self help's origins appeal and cultural and literary import around the world this book reveals that self help's most valuable secrets are not about getting rich or winning friends but about how and why people read Authorship's Wake

Philip Sayers, 2020-12-10 Authorship's Wake examines the aftermath of the 1960s critique of the author epitomized by Roland Barthes's essay The Death of the Author This critique has given rise to a body of writing that confounds generic distinctions separating the literary and the theoretical Its archive consists of texts by writers who either directly participated in this critique as Barthes did or whose intellectual formation took place in its immediate aftermath These writers include some who are known primarily as theorists Judith Butler others known primarily as novelists Zadie Smith David Foster Wallace and yet others whose texts are difficult to categorize the autofiction of Chris Kraus Sheila Heti and Ben Lerner the autotheory of Maggie Nelson These writers share not only a central motivating question how to move beyond the critique of the author subject but also a way of answering it by writing texts that merge theoretical concerns with literary discourse Authorship s Wake traces the responses their work offers in relation to four themes communication intention agency and labor

Contemporary Feminist Life-Writing Jennifer Cooke,2020-04-16 Contemporary Feminist Life Writing is the first volume to identify and analyse the new audacity of recent feminist writings from life Characterised by boldness in both style and content willingness to explore difficult and disturbing experiences the refusal of victimhood and a lack of respect for traditional genre boundaries new audacity writing takes risks with its author s and others reputations and even on occasion with the law This book offers an examination and critical assessment of new audacity in works by Katherine Angel Alison Bechdel Marie Calloway Virginie Despentes Tracey Emin Sheila Heti Juliet Jacques Chris Krauss Jana Leo Maggie Nelson Vanessa Place Paul Preciado and Kate Zambreno It analyses how they write about women s self authorship trans experiences struggles with mental illness sexual violence and rape and the desire for sexual submission It engages with recent feminist and gender scholarship providing discussions of vulnerability victimhood authenticity trauma and affect

Melissa Benn,2013-09-26 We have reached a tricky crossroads in modern women s lives and our collective daughters are bearing the brunt of some intolerable pressures Although feminism has made great strides forward since our mothers and grandmothers day many of the key issues equality of pay equality in the home representation at senior level in the private public and political sectors remain to be tackled Casual sexism in the media and in everyday life is still rife and our daughters face a host of new difficulties as they are bombarded by images of unrealistically skinny airbrushed supermodels celebrity role models who depend on their looks and partners for status and by competitive social media The likes of Natasha Walter and Katie Roiphe deal with feminism from an adult point of view but our daughters need to be prepared for stresses that are coming into play now as early as pre school This is a manifesto for every mother who has ever had to comfort a daughter who doesn t feel pretty for every young woman who out performs her male peers professionally and wonders why she is still not taken seriously and for anyone interested in the world we are making for the next generation Fact and Fiction in

Contemporary Narratives Jan Alber,Alice Bell,2021-05-11 This book explores the complex interrelationship between fact and fiction in narratives of the twenty first century Current cultural theory observes a cultural shift away from postmodernism to new forms of expression Rather than a radical break from the postmodern however postmodernist techniques are repurposed to express a new sincerity a purposeful self reflexivity a contemporary sense of togetherness and an associated commitment to reality In what the editors consider to be one manifestation of this general tendency this book explores the ways in which contemporary texts across different media play with the boundary between fact and fiction This includes the examination of novels autobiography autofiction film television mockumentary digital fiction advertising campaigns and media hoaxes The chapters engage with theories of what comes after postmodernism and analyse the narratological stylistic and or semiotic devices on which such texts rely The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the European Journal of English Studies Autotheory as Feminist Practice in Art, Writing, and Criticism Lauren Fournier,2021-02-23

Autotheory the commingling of theory and philosophy with autobiography as a mode of critical artistic practice indebted to feminist writing and activism In the 2010s the term autotheory began to trend in literary spheres where it was used to describe books in which memoir and autobiography fused with theory and philosophy In this book Lauren Fournier extends the meaning of the term applying it to other disciplines and practices Fournier provides a long awaited account of autotheory situating it as a mode of contemporary post 1960s artistic practice that is indebted to feminist writing art and activism Investigating a series of works by writers and artists including Chris Kraus and Adrian Piper she considers the politics aesthetics and ethics of autotheory Knausgård and the Autofictional Novel Claus Elholm Andersen,2023-12-01 A
