Inference 1

Reading Strategies Worksheet

Sometimes when you are reading, you must "read between the lines," or infer what the meaning of an unfamiliar word is. This process is called making an inference.

Directions: Read the following paragraph and try to infer the meaning of the highlighted words as you read.

Sometimes in life, things can get hard and complicated, and it's normal for us to feel a little bit sad. But it's in those moments that our spirits get tested, and it's really important to have a good strategy in place. People who are good at dealing with tough situations with grace often receive respect and admiration. On the other hand, there are some people who are cynical, who don't believe in positive outcomes. They might think any success is just a matter of being over confident, without acknowledging the effort and dedication put into it. In our complex world, life doesn't always follow a straight path, and sometimes the rewards, which can lead to even better things, then we handle these situations when sometimes adversity are successful or fail.

Circle the word closest in meaning to how it was used in the paragraph above.

- | | | | |
|-------------|---------------|--------------|-----------------|
| 1. Acute | a. gentle | b. fast | c. eager |
| 2. Cynical | d. selfish | e. strict | f. leader |
| 3. Fatter | g. advanced | h. break | i. quickly |

Inference 2

Reading Strategies Worksheet

Sometimes when you are reading, you must "read between the lines," or infer what the meaning of an unfamiliar word is. This process is called making an inference.

Directions: Read the following paragraph and try to infer the meaning of the highlighted words as you read. Circle the word closest in meaning to how it was used in the paragraph above.

1. Someone could be helpful but a sense of superiority is that superior class answer with others. An arrogant attitude was evident in the way he looked down upon everyone, as if he believed himself to be superior. It was hard for someone to understand why anyone would want to be in the company of someone so overbearing. Despite his wealth and education, the man was not a true leader but was someone who put himself in the center of everything, surrounded himself with flattery and genuine individuals who looked at him with respect.

The best meaning for the word superiority is: a. generous b. proud c. shy d. inferior

2. The other paragraph was filled with complexity as colleagues greeted each other with warm smiles and friendly conversations. It was evident that the team members genuinely enjoyed working together and supported one another. Instead, it was uncomfortable in projects or offering a helping hand, there was a general sense of superiority that made the work environment unpleasant. The complexity among the staff was only because the boss had a prideful and positive workplace culture.

The best meaning for the word complexity is: a. proud b. beautiful c. gentle d. joy

3. The fans were fervent in their support for their team, as the players took to the field, they were filled with energy and passion. The energy was palpable, and the crowd was screaming. Even those who were not originally fans of the team found themselves caught up in the fervent atmosphere. The players themselves were filled by the positive support from the crowd, and they played with an unmatched level of determination. It was clear that the players had more a moral climate in the team's culture.

The best meaning for the word fervent is: a. serious b. slight c. passionate d. being

4. The newly built mansion was absolutely perfect. Every detail had been carefully planned and executed to create a stunning display of luxury and elegance. The swimming pool and grand staircase made the impression that it was a palace. The interior design was equally impressive with its ornate furniture, crystal chandeliers, and exquisite artwork adorning the walls. The grounds outside were just as magnificent, with perfectly manicured gardens, a sparkling lake, and a tennis court. It was clear that the mansion had been planned to showcase the perfect residence.

The best meaning for the word palace is: a. grand b. simple c. beautiful d. modest
