A Cultural History of Tragedy in the Modern Age Jennifer Wallace, 2021-05-20 In this book leading scholars come together to provide a comprehensive wide ranging overview of tragedy in theatre and other media from 1920 to the present The 20th century is often considered to have witnessed the death of tragedy as a theatrical genre but it was marked by many tragic events and historical catastrophes from two world wars and genocide to the proliferation of nuclear weapons and the anticipation and onset of climate change The authors in this volume wrestle with this paradox and consider the degree to which the definitions forms and media of tragedy were transformed in the modern period and how far the tragic tradition updated in performance still spoke to 20th and 21st century challenges While theater remains the primary focus of investigation in this strikingly illustrated book the essays also cover tragic representation often re mediated fragmented and provocatively questioned in film art and installation photography fiction and creative non fiction documentary reporting political theory and activism Since 24 7 news cycles travel fast and modern crises cross borders and are reported across the globe more swiftly than in previous centuries this volume includes intercultural encounters various forms of hybridity and postcolonial tragic representations Each chapter takes a different theme as its focus forms and media sites of performance and circulation communities of production and consumption philosophy and social theory religion ritual and myth politics of city and nation society and family and gender and sexuality

Francis Poulenc Sidney Buckland, 2020-11-25 This collection of essays provides vivid new insights into Poulenc s world his particular rapport with painters writers and fellow musicians and with the socialite who promoted his music through their salons Contributions from international Poulenc scholars include the influence of various artists on his music the nature of his affinity for Eluards poetry his response to texts by Cocteau and Bernanos and his constant search for suitable libretti New light is thrown on two friendships the first with his childhood friend Raymonde Linossier who introduced him to the world of books the second to his teacher Charles Koechlin who greatly influenced his choral style A detailed study is also provided of Poulenc s four choral works with orchestra Finally the reader is allowed a rare view of Poulenc at the microphone not as interviewee but as radio presenter in his 1947 1949 series of programmes
