Richards,1996-02-23 This book introduces a new field of educational research called teacher learning as it applies to the teaching of languages Up until recently the study of second language teacher education has focused mainly on the knowledge base and specific skills needed for effective teaching This book invites us to look at teacher education from a fresh point of view through an exploration of the thinking and learning processes of individuals as they learn to teach Seventeen original articles based on studies done in North America Europe Asia and Australia provide examples of pioneering research into the ways that individuals learn to teach languages and the roles that previous experience social context and professional training play in the process The collection thus helps establish a research base for this newly developing field Appropriate

Methodology and Social Context Adrian Holliday,1994-09-22 An ethnographic framework to describe the varying cultures of classrooms teacher communities and student groups in different countries and educational contexts Der aufdringliche Text ,2013-07-02 Am Beispiel einer Besatzungszeitung unternimmt der Autor mit linguistisch handlungstheoretischen und diskursanalytischen Mitteln eine Rekonstruktion der Besatzungsdimension und der propagandistisch ideologischen publizistischen T tigkeiten The Experience of Language Teaching Rose Senior,2006-02-23 Through the words of more than 100 practising language teachers The Experience of Language Teaching provides a detailed picture of teaching and learning in communicative classrooms Using a teacher generated framework it covers a range of aspects of classroom life how teachers create environments suitable for language practice how they get students on side how they manage tricky students how they enhance the learning experience how they develop and maintain a spirit of community The book demonstrates how paying attention to both the learning and social needs of their class groups enables language teachers to behave in flexible ways that promote learning This book will be of interest to teachers teacher educators researchers and to anyone interested in finding out what it is like to be a language teacher at the present time The Experience of Language Teaching was winner of the Ben Warren International Trust House Prize in 2005

English for Specific Purposes Tom Hutchinson, Alan Waters, 1987-01-29 The main concern is effective learning and how this can best be achieved in ESP courses This book discusses the evolution of ESP the role of the ESP teacher course design syllabuses materials teaching methods and evaluation procedures It will be of interest to all teachers who are concerned with ESP Those who are new to the field will find it a thorough practical introduction while those with more extensive experience will find its approach both stimulating and innovative

Focus on the Language Classroom Dick Allwright, Kathleen M. Bailey, 1991-04-25 The authors set out to define the aims principles and objectives of recent research into what exactly happens in the language classroom to describe the findings of this work and to relate these to teaching practice

Discourse and Language Education Evelyn Hatch, 1992-01-31 Discourse and Language Education is part of the Cambridge Language Teaching Library series

Hearing the New Testament Joel B. Green, 1995 Exciting approaches to biblical interpretation are introduced in this volume by contributors who are distinguished as leaders in the field of New Testament studies Each chapter introduces a particular approach to interpretation and demonstrates with biblical texts how that approach can be used by students and pastors

Studies on the Text of the New Testament and Early Christianity Daniel Gurtner, Juan Hernández, Jr., Paul Foster, 2015-09-29 The collection of essays focuses on the twin areas of research undertaken by Prof Michael W Holmes These are the sub disciplines of textual criticism and the study of the Apostolic Fathers The first part of the volume on textual criticism focuses on issues of method the praxis of editing and collating texts and discussions pertaining to individual variants The second part of the volume assembles essays on the Apostolic Fathers There is a particular focus on the person and writings of Polycarp since this is the area of research where Prof Holmes has worked most intensively

The Freer Biblical Manuscripts Larry W. Hurtado, 2006 The six biblical manuscripts that reside in the Freer Gallery of Art in Washington DC are historically significant artifacts for tracing the early history of the transmission of the writings that make up the New Testament and the Septuagint The manuscripts all purchased in Egypt at the beginning of the twentieth century by Charles Freer date to the third through fifth centuries and include codices of the four Gospels Deuteronomy and Joshua the Psalms and the Pauline Epistles as well as a Coptic codex of the Psalms and a papyrus codex of the Minor Prophets which until the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls was the earliest Greek manuscript of the Minor Prophets known The ten essays in this volume are a notable collection of fresh scholarship with long term value for the study of what is a small but highly valuable treasure trove of biblical manuscripts The contributors are Malcolm Choat Kent D Clarke Kristin De Troyer Timothy J Finney Dennis Haugh Larry W Hurtado J Bruce Prior Jean Francois Racine James R Royse Ulrich Schmid and Thomas A Wayment Book jacket

Conversation Scott Thornbury, Diana Slade, 2006-10-26 This book provides a comprehensive account of conversation in English and its implications for the ELT classroom After a general overview and definition of conversation it provides the reader with a systematic description of conversational English from the vocabulary of conversation to grammar discourse and genre This is followed by an informed account of the development of conversation in both first and second language acquisition It then describes a range of methodological approaches procedures and techniques for teaching conversation in English On this basis an integrated approach to the teaching of conversation is provided along with practical classroom applications

Current Trends in the Development and Teaching of the four Language Skills Esther Usó-Juan, Alicia Martínez-Flor, 2008-08-22 Current Trends in the Development and Teaching of the four Language Skills builds connections from theory in the four language skills to instructional practices It comprises twenty one chapters that are grouped in five sections The first section includes an introductory chapter which presents a communicative competence framework developed by the editors in order to highlight the key role the four skills play in language learning and teaching The next four sections each represent a language skill Section II is devoted to listening Section III to speaking Section IV to reading and Section V to writing In order to provide an extensive treatment of each of the four skills each section starts with a theoretical chapter which briefly illustrates advances in the understanding of how each skill is likely to be learned and taught followed by four didactically oriented chapters authored by leading international specialists These pedagogical chapters deal specifically with four key topics 1 areas of research that influence the teaching of a particular skill 2 an overview of strategies or techniques necessary for developing a particular skill 3 an approach to the academic orientation of a particular skill and 4 unique aspects of teaching each skill Moreover all chapters incorporate two common sections pre reading questions at the beginning of the chapter in order to stimulate readers interest in its content and a section entitled suggested activities at the end of the chapter in order to allow readers put the ideas and concepts presented into practice The accessible style and practical focus of the volume make it an ideal tool for teachers teacher trainers and teacher trainees who are involved in teaching the four language skills in a second or foreign language context
