Dictionary of Film Noir Andrew Spicer,2010-03-19 Film noir literally black cinema is the label customarily given to a group of black and white American films mostly crime thrillers made between 1940 and 1959 Today there is considerable dispute about what are the shared features that classify a noir film and therefore which films should be included in this category These problems are partly caused because film noir is a retrospective label that was not used in the 1940s or 1950s by the film industry as a production category and therefore its existence and features cannot be established through reference to trade documents The Historical Dictionary of Film Noir is a comprehensive guide that ranges from 1940 to present day neo noir It consists of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography a filmography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on every aspect of film noir and neo noir including key films personnel actors cinematographers composers directors producers set designers and writers themes issues influences visual style cycles of films e g amnesiac noirs the representation of the city and gender other forms comics graphic novels television and videogames and noir s presence in world cinema It is an essential reference work for all those interested in this important cultural phenomenon Firearms

Modernism, Middlebrow and the Literary Canon Lise Jaillant, 2015-10-06 In the 1920s and 1930s the Modern Library series began to bring out cheap editions of modernist works Jaillant provides a thorough analysis of the series mix of highbrow and popular literature and argues that the availability and low cost of modernist works helped to expand modernism's influence as a literary movement The Mystery Fancier (Vol. 3 No. 1) March-April 1979 Kim Philby, Rex Stout, 2010-08-01 Volume 3 Number 1 of The Mystery Fancier contains Gene Stratton Porter Mistress of the Mini Mystery by Jane S Bakerman The Len Deighton Series by Jeff Banks and Harry Dawson Kim Philby Master Spy in Fact and Fiction by Theodore P Dukeshire Bouchercon 1978 IX and Counting by Donald A Yates The Nero Wolfe Saga Part XI by Guy M Townsend and An Index of Books Reviewed in TMF Volume 2 compiled by David H Doerr The Politics and Poetics of Translation in Turkey, 1923-1960 Şehnaz Tahir Gürçağlar, 2008-01-01 The present book is a bold attempt at revealing the complex and diversified nature of the field of translated literature in Turkey during a period of radical socio political change On the broad level it investigates the implications of the political transformation experienced in Turkey after the proclamation of the Republic for the cultural and literary fields including the field of translated literature On a more specific level it holds translation under focus and explores the discourse formed on translation and translators while it also traces the norms not observed by translators throughout the 1920s 1950s in two case studies The findings of the study suggest that the concepts of translation both affected and were affected by cultural processes in the society including ideological and poetological ones and that there was no uniform way of defining or carrying out translations during the period under study The findings also point at the segmentation of readership in early republican Turkey and conclude that the political and poetological factors governing the production and reception of translations varied for different segments of readers
