Gabriela Gândara Terenas,2024-10-19 This book brings together a collection of essays on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of the arrival of the first man on the moon a time when tourist journeys to the moon now a real possibility were no more than a fantasy Divided into four sections illustrating different perceptions of the moon the common aim of the essays in this book is to examine how mankind s interest in the moon has been represented in Literature and the Arts an objective underpinned by the desire to exploit the relationship between the so called two cultures the Humanities and Science as C P Snow perceived them in his pioneering work 1959 The plethora of ways in which our companion satellite has been portrayed has led the authors of the essays to draw upon research from the history of science as well as from literary cultural and artistic studies In addition to analysing the impact on literature and music of our arrival on the moon whether real or imaginary these studies also examine how writers along the centuries have appropriated the moon as a metaphor in order to project latent conflict criticise the society or politics of their day reflect upon scientific or technological discoveries or fantasise about journeys encounters or imaginary realities
