Periyar on Islam Ī. Ve Rāmacāmi (Tantai Periyār),2004      Fuzzy and Neutrosophic Analysis of Periyar's Views on Untouchability W. B. Vasantha Kandasamy, Florentin Smarandache, K. Kandasamy, 2005 For the first time the social problem of untouchability which is peculiar to India is being studied mathematically We have used Fuzzy Cognitive Maps and Neutrosophic Cognitive Maps to analyze the views of the revolutionary Periyar E V Ramasamy 17 09 1879 24 12 1973 who relentlessly worked for more than five decades to secure the rights of the oppressed people who were considered untouchables This thought provoking book will be of great interest to human rights activists socio scientists historians and above all mathematicians From UNESCO citation Periyar The Prophet of the New Age The Socrates of South East Asia Father of the Social reform Movement and Arch Enemy of Ignorance Superstition Meaningless Customs and Baseless Manners      Islam, Sufism and Everyday Politics of Belonging in South Asia Deepra Dandekar, Torsten Tschacher, 2016-09-13 This book looks at the study of ideas practices and institutions in South Asian Islam commonly identified as Sufism and how they relate to politics in South Asia While the importance of Sufism for the lives of South Asian Muslims has been repeatedly asserted the specific role played by Sufism in contestations over social and political belonging in South Asia has not yet been fully analysed Looking at examples from five countries in South Asia India Pakistan Bangladesh Sri Lanka and Afghanistan the book begins with a detailed introduction to political concerns over belonging in relation to questions concerning Sufism and Islam in South Asia This is followed with sections on Producing and Identifying Sufism Everyday and Public Forms of Belonging Sufi Belonging Local and National and Intellectual History and Narratives of Belonging Bringing together scholars from diverse disciplines the book explores the connection of Islam Sufism and the Politics of Belonging in South Asia It is an important contribution to South Asian Studies Islamic Studies and South Asian Religion      Oceanic Islam ,2020-09-10 The Indian Ocean interregional arena is a space of vital economic and strategic importance characterized by specialized flows of capital and labor skills and services and ideas and culture Islam in particular and religiously informed universalism in general once signified cosmopolitanism across this wide realm This historical reality is at variance with contemporary conceptions of Islam as an illiberal religion that breeds intolerance and terrorism The future balance of global power will be determined in large measure by policies of key actors in the Indian Ocean and the lands that abut it rather than in the Atlantic or the Pacific The interplay of multiple and competing universalisms in the Indian Ocean arena is in urgent need of better understanding Oceanic Islam Muslim Universalism and European Imperialism is a fresh contribution to Islamic and Indian Ocean studies alike placing the history of modern South Asia in broader interregional and global contexts It refines theories of universalism and cosmopolitanism while at the same time drawing on new empirical research The essays in the volume bring the best academic scholarship on Islam in South Asia and across the Indian Ocean in the age of European empire to the readers      Conversion to Islam Abdul Malik

Mujahid,1989      Frontiers of Embedded Muslim Communities in India Vinod K. Jairath,2013-04-03 This volume approaches the study of Muslim societies through an evolutionary lens challenging Islamic traditions identities communities beliefs practices and ideologies as static frozen or unchangeable It assumes that there is neither a monolithic essential or authentic Islam nor a homogeneous Muslim community Similarly there are no fixed binary oppositions such as between the ulama and sufi saints or textual and lived Islam The overarching perspective that there is no fixity in the meanings of Islamic symbols and that the language of Islam can be used by individuals organizations movements and political parties variously in religious and non religious contexts underlies the ethnographically rich essays that comprise this volume Divided in three parts the volume cumulatively presents an initial framework for the study of Muslim communities in India embedded in different regional and local contexts The first part focuses on ethnographies of three Muslim communities Kuchchhi Jatt Irani Shia and Sidis and their relationships with others with shifting borders and frontiers part two examines the issue of caste of certain Muslim communities and the third part containing chapters on Tamil Nadu Andhra Pradesh Mumbai and Gujarat looks at the varied responses of Muslims as Indian citizens in regional contexts at different historical moments Although the volume focuses on Muslim communities in India it is also meant to bridge an important gap in and contribute to the sociology of India which has been organized and taught primarily as a sociology of Hindu society The book will appeal to those in sociology history political science education modern South Asian Studies and to the general reader interested in India South Asia

Shikwa-e-Hind Mujibur Rehman,2024-05-21 Roughly 200 million today Indian Muslims are greater than the population of Britain and France or Germany put together According to the Indian Constitution Indian Muslims are treated as political equals which is what India s secular polity promised after its independence encouraging more than 35 million Indian Muslims at the time of Partition to choose India as their motherland over Pakistan However the supposed relationship of equality between Hindus and Muslims as scripted in the constitution is being increasingly replaced by the domineering tendencies of a Hindu majority in India today The author describes the current state and position of Indian Muslims the seeds for which were sown when the BJP came to power in 2014 as the third political moment the second he believes was in 1947 when the community was given equal status in the Indian Constitution and the first was in 1857 when Indian Muslims learnt to live under the British colonial state As he states there is no denying that political circumstances for Indian Muslims were not completely ideal or full of democratic energy prior to the rise of the Hindu Right since the late 1980s With numerous layers defined by language ethnicity region etc Muslims have the most heterogeneous identity representing India s quintessential diversity And yet Muslims are perceived as the most enduring well grounded threat to the majoritarian project of the Hindu Rashtra Indian Muslims are perceived or presented as perpetrators of violence and violators of law even if they are at the receiving end They are viewed as an internal enemy who need to be dealt with for political social historical and ideological reasons Going forward the community must formulate the language of democratic rights of Indian Muslims as equal citizens and define the ethics of human dignity in their struggle to reassert their place in India's political power structures at all levels from panchayat to Parliament. While the economic future or cultural rights of Indian Muslims have been debated since 1947, it is the political future that demands attention because only as an equal and participatory community in the politics of the nation can economic and cultural futures be addressed. This book explores the political future of Indian Muslims in this context. From Shaheen Bagh to Hindu Muslim riots from the unique position of Muslim women in India to the Sachar Report and the Muslim backwardness debate, Mujibur Rehman analyses, confronts and discusses the urgent concerns of Indian Muslims in a manner that is nuanced and globally relevant.

The Dravidian Pathway Vignesh Rajahmani, 2025-08-15. The Dravidian Pathway is a timely contribution to public and scholarly understanding of South Indian politics, examining a pivotal period in the rise to power of the Tamil Nadu party Dravida Munnetra Kazhagam, the Dravidian Progressive Federation or DMK. The scholarly canon on social movements and/or electoral politics has largely neglected the interplay between the two, focusing only on outcomes. Vignesh Rajahmani's innovative, detailed study of the Dravidian movement explores the strategic leadership of DMK and non-DMK figures like Periyar E. V. Ramasamy, C. N. Annadurai, M. Karunanidhi and K. Kamaraj. It illustrates their synthesis of anti-caste ideology, socioeconomic and educational mobility, and inclusive Dravidian Tamil identity, and considers why that vision resonated with marginalised communities. Tracing the early DMK years from the party's social justice campaigns to its landmark electoral victory in 1967, Rajahmani highlights the challenges of navigating ideological commitments within the constraints of political pragmatism while also making politics accessible to the common person. He explains how iterations on the initial ideology and political offering can reinvigorate such movements, keeping their politics agile and incentivising inclusive policymaking. He also shows how the DMK shaped Tamil Nadu's counter-hegemonic political identity, which has proven electorally resilient in spite of majoritarian onslaughts.

Hindu Rashtra Ashutosh, About the Book. A SEARING EXAMINATION OF THE CHANGES THAT INDIA HAS UNDERGONE SINCE 2014. Riding the storied Modi wave, the BJP and its allies won the 2014 general elections to form the government at the centre. While the supporters of the new government may have hoped for economic reforms and accelerated development, the past four and a half years have only delivered incidents of hate attacks, mob violence, and an increasingly hostile attitude towards religious minorities. With questionable decisions like demonetisation still fresh in the minds of people, how is the BJP gearing up for the 2019 general elections? As the Hindutva hardliners continue their clamour, for a Hindu Rashtra, is the ideology strong enough to withstand the increasing unrest and discontent of the common Indian? In this astutely observed and expertly narrated account of India's socio-political present, Ashutosh employs his experience as a journalist as well as a politician to give us an insider's view of India's changing political terrain. Relying on research, observations, and personal experience, Hindu Rashtra takes a hard look at the political reality of India and what its future may hold.

About the Author: Ashutosh began his career in print journalism as a part of the original team of Aaj Tak and went on to be the Managing Editor of

IBN7 for eight years before he gave it up to become a political activist and join the Aam Aadmi Party In 2018 he resigned from the party and returned to journalism with the Hindi news portal Satya Hindi He is also the author of Anna 13 Days That Awakened India and The Crown Prince The Gladiator and The Hope Battle for Change Islam Related Naipaul R N Sarkar,2006 Vidiadhar Surajprasad Naipaul b 1932 Trinidadian writer of Indian origin and Nobel Prize winner Monsoon Islam Sebastian R. Sold off by her parents and brought up to dedicate herself as a dasi she managed to escape this fate and make a life for herself Her battle against the devadasi system was met with considerable resistance not only by those with vested interests in keeping the devadasis inside temples but often by the devadasis themselves But Moovalur persisted taking her cause and its wider ramifications into the broader politics of the Congress party and later the Self Respect Movement Despite this in the annals of recent Tamil history she was hardly known until the publication in 2006 of Moovalur Ramamirtham Vazhvum Paniyum translated here as The Life and Work of Moovalur Ramamirtham Ammaiyar Put together through interviews with her surviving relatives and fragments garnered from a handwritten manuscript this is the first book to document the braveheart of Dravidian history Moovalur Ramamirtham Ammaiyar The Atlas of Religion Joanne O'Brien, Martin Palmer, 2007-05-07 Locates the origin the heartland and the sacred places of each of the major religions and provides essential background about each including a valuable table showing the fundamental beliefs of Buddhism Christianity Daoism Hinduism Islam Judaism and Hikhism Nine Decades of Marxism in the Land of Brahminism Saugat K. Muslim Identity, Print Culture, and the Dravidian Factor in Tamil Nadu J. B. Prashant More, 2004 This work is an original attempt to study the influence of print technology on the Muslims of Tamil Nadu and their literature It is based on the literary works published by the Tamil Muslims from 1835 when restrictions on printing were removed to 1920 when they participated in the Khilafat movement By extension the study of this literature becomes a study of the origin society and identity of the Tamil Muslims Race, Religion, and the 'Indian Muslim' Predicament in Singapore Torsten Tschacher, 2017-11-10 Indian Muslims form the largest ethnic minority within Singapore's otherwise largely Malay Muslim community Despite its size and historic importance however Singaporean Indian Muslims have received little attention by scholarship and have also felt side lined by Singapore's Malay dominated Muslim institutions Since the 1980s demands for a better representation of Indian Muslims and access to religious services have intensified while there has been a concomitant debate over who has the right to speak for Indian Muslims This book traces the negotiations and contestations over Indian Muslim difference in Singapore and examines the conditions that have given rise to these debates Despite considerable differences existing within the putative Indian Muslim community the way this community is imagined is surprisingly uniform Through discussions of the importance of ethnic difference for social and religious divisions among Singaporean Indian Muslims the role of culture and race in debates about popular religion the invocation of language and history in negotiations with the wider Malay Muslim context and the institutional setting in which contestations of Indian Muslim difference take place this book argues that these debates emerge from the structural tensions resulting from the intersection of race and religion in the public organization of Islam in Singapore Mappila Muslim Culture Roland E. Miller, 2015-04-27 Thorough exploration of the distinct culture of the Mappila Muslims of Kerala India This book provides a comprehensive account of the distinct culture of the Mappila Muslims a large community from the southern Indian state of Kerala Although they were the first Muslim community in South Asia the Mappilas are little known in the West Roland E Miller explores the Mappilas fourteen century long history of social adaptation and their current status as a successful example of Muslim interaction with modernity Once feared now admired Kerala s Mappilas have produced an intellectual renaissance and renewed their ancient status as a model of social harmony Miller provides an account of Mappila history and looks at the formation of Mappila culture which has developed through the interaction of Islamic and Malayali influences Descriptions of current day life cycles religion ritual work life education and leadership are included The Radical Humanist Manabendra Nath Roy,2005
