

The background of the cover is a dark, moody illustration of a night scene on water. In the upper half, a small boat with two figures inside is moving across the water, leaving a white wake. The boat is labeled 'LA BELLE SAUVAGE' on its side. The water is dark blue with white highlights from the wake and moonlight. In the foreground, a large, stylized title 'THE BOOK OF DUST' is written in a bold, yellow, serif font. The word 'THE' is smaller and positioned above 'BOOK'. The word 'OF' is smaller and positioned between 'BOOK' and 'DUST'. The word 'DUST' is the largest and most prominent. A small, spotted feline creature is walking across the top of the 'DUST' letters. Below the title, the words 'VOLUME ONE' and 'LA BELLE SAUVAGE' are written in a smaller, white, serif font. The overall tone is mysterious and atmospheric.

Making Time Carolin Gebauer, 2021-04-19 2023 Perkins Prize of the International Society for the Study of Narrative ESSE Book Award for Junior Scholars for a book in the field of Literatures in the English Language Responding to the current surge in present tense novels Making Time is an innovative contribution to narratological research on present tense usage in narrative fiction Breaking with the tradition of conceptualizing the present tense purely as a deictic category denoting synchronicity between a narrative event and its presentation the study redefines present tense narration as a fully fledged narrative strategy whose functional potential far exceeds temporal relations between story and discourse The first part of the volume presents numerous analytical categories that systematically describe the formal structural functional and syntactic dimensions of present tense usage in narrative fiction These categories are then deployed to investigate the uses and functions of present tense narration in selected twenty first century novels including Hilary Mantel's Wolf Hall Margaret Atwood's Oryx and Crake Ian McEwan's Nutshell and Irvine Welsh's Skagboys The seven case studies serve to illustrate the ubiquity of present tense narration in contemporary fiction ranging from the historical novel to the thriller and to investigate the various ways in which the present tense contributes to narrative worldmaking
