"Pimp: Reflection of My Life " Noble Dee, 2013-02-01 In our society today although used out their original contexts the words Pimp and Pimpin have been embraced whole heartedly by todays hip hop generation and frequently used in slang to describe a motif of a newly set standard of flamboyant living However in his debut release Donald Ray Lavan AKA Noble Dee provides the true definition of both words separating the real and the facts from the faade and the fiction of todays controversial terminology Best of all he describes in very minute details what the Game Pimpin was like for him in his era the 1960s to Y2K The New Millienium In this tell all non fiction Noble Dee illustrates in a very blaxploitation manner his personal existence in the game Not only does he exploit his successes he also exposes the very grim details of the life both in tones whereas you the reader bask in his glory and share his pains the pain of possibly regret in the life that he cherished for almost four calendar decades Wholeheartedly Noble Dee expresses how his own glorification of the game indirectly allured his first born daughter into a position to be manipulated and exploited by pimps just as he had manipulated and exploited so many daughters throughout his 35 years plus career Not since Robert Beck revealed to the masses the vivid street Realities of a Pimps Life in his book Pimp The Story of My Life By Iceberg Slim has the entrenching truth behind the lifestyle termed pimpin been exposed to this degree Thus the primary title Pimp Reflections of My Life www JumpInterstateN biz

Twentieth-Century Crime Fiction Lee Horsley, 2005-08-25 Twentieth Century Crime Fiction aims to enhance understanding of one of the most popular forms of genre fiction by examining a wide variety of the detective and crime fiction produced in Britain and America during the twentieth century It will be of interest to anyone who enjoys reading crime fiction but is specifically designed with the needs of students in mind It introduces different theoretical approaches to crime fiction e g formalist historicist psychoanalytic postcolonial feminist and will be a useful supplement to a range of crime fiction courses whether they focus on historical contexts ideological shifts the emergence of sub genres or the application of critical theories Forty seven widely available stories and novels are chosen for detailed discussion In seeking to illuminate the relationship between different phases of generic development Lee Horsley employs an overlapping historical framework with sections doubling back chronologically in order to explore the extent to which successive transformations have their roots within the earlier phases of crime writing as well as responding in complex ways to the preoccupations and anxieties of their own eras The first part of the study considers the nature and evolution of the main sub genres of crime fiction the classic and hard boiled strands of detective fiction the non investigative crime novel centred on transgressors or victims and the mixed form of the police procedural The second half of the study examines the ways in which writers have used crime fiction as a vehicle for socio political critique These chapters consider the evolution of committed oppositional strategies tracing the development of politicized detective and crime fiction from Depression era protests against economic injustice to more recent decades which have seen writers launching protests against ecological crimes rampant consumerism Reaganomics racism and sexism

Blaxploitation Films Mikel Koven,2010-09-22 What is Blaxploitation In the early 1970s a type of film emerged that featured all black casts really cool soul R n B and disco music soundtracks characters sporting big guns big dashikis and even bigger fros and had some of the meanest baddest attitudes to shoot their way across our screens More than that for African American audiences these films were an antidote to the sanitised safe images of blackness that Sidney Poitier and Bill Cosby presented to America These films depicted a reality about the world which African American audiences could identify with even if the stories themselves were pure fantasy Blaxploitation Films considers Blaxploitation from the perspective of class and racial rebellion genre and Stickin it to the Man with over 60 Blaxploitation films reviewed and discussed Sections include Blaxploitation horror films kung fu movies Westerns and parodies and it is fully up to date including Baadassss and The Hebrew Hammer and covers the deaths of Isaac Hayes and Rudy Rae Moore White Women in Racialized Spaces
