Becoming a police officer in Canada is extremely competitive. There are multiple exams, interviews, assessments, physical tests and reference checks all of which you need to pass to enter law enforcement. This guide is your opportunity to learn firsthand from past and present police recruiters how to successfully pass each stage in the hiring process, impress the department you are applying for and begin your career. This police preparation book is specifically designed for Canadians and is one of a kind. A number of current and retired police officers in Canada have collaborated together to compile the most thorough current and relevant information that deals with preparing police applicants to pass each recruiting selection stage. Sgt J T Gilles is a former RCMP sergeant with 33 years of experience. Working as the sergeant in charge of the recruiting section he was directly responsible for overseeing police applicants throughout the hiring process and making final decisions on who to hire. Cst Paul Tyler is a former police recruiter with one of the biggest city police departments in Canada who has years of experience in testing and interviewing applicants. Their experience and guidance is invaluable to those wanting to become a police officer in Canada. This book will specifically help you with:
