Post Modernism And The Social Sciences Insights Inroads And Intrusions:

Post-modernism and the Social Sciences Pauline Marie Rosenau, Pauline Vaillancourt Rosenau, 1992 Post modernism offers a revolutionary approach to the study of society in questioning the validity of modern science and the notion of objective knowledge this movement discards history rejects humanism and resists any truth claims In this comprehensive assessment of post modernism Pauline Rosenau traces its origins in the humanities and describes how its key concepts are today being applied to and are restructuring the social sciences Serving as neither an opponent nor an apologist for the movement she cuts through post modernism s often incomprehensible jargon in order to offer all readers a lucid exposition of its propositions Rosenau shows how the post modern challenge to reason and rational organization radiates across academic fields For example in psychology it questions the conscious logical coherent subject in public administration it encourages a retreat from central planning and from reliance on specialists in political science it calls into question the authority of hierarchical bureaucratic decision making structures that function in carefully defined spheres in anthropology it inspires the protection of local primitive cultures from First World attempts to reorganize them In all of the social sciences she argues post modernism repudiates representative democracy and plays havoc with the very meaning of left wing and right wing Rosenau also highlights how post modernism has inspired a new generation of social movements ranging from New Age sensitivities to Third World fundamentalism In weighing its strengths and weaknesses the author examines two major tendencies within post modernism the largely European skeptical form and the predominantly Anglo North American form which suggests alternative political social and cultural projects She draws examples from anthropology economics geography history international relations law planning political science psychology sociology urban studies and women s studies and provides a glossary of post modern terms to assist the uninitiated reader with special meanings not found in standard dictionaries

Family Therapy Beyond Postmodernism Carmel Flaskas, 2003-09-02 Postmodernist ideas are widely used in family therapy However it is argued that these ideas have their limits in meeting the richness and complexity of human experience and therapy practice Family Therapy Beyond Postmodernism examines postmodernism and its expressions in family therapy raising questions about reality and realness the subjective process of truth the experience of self Alongside identifying the difficulties in any sole reliance on narrative and constructionist ideas this book advocates the value of selected psychoanalytic ideas for family therapy practice in particular attachment and the unconscious transference projective identification and understandings of time psychoanalytic ideas about thinking and containment in the therapeutic relationship Family Therapy Beyond Postmodernism offers a sustained critical discussion of the possibilities and limits of contemporary family therapy knowledge and develops a place for psychoanalytic ideas in systemic thinking and practice It will be of great interest to family therapists psychotherapists and other mental health professionals Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory Mike Cole, Dave Hill, Peter McLaren, 2002-12-11 Postmodernism has become the orthodoxy in educational theory It heralds the end of grand theories like Marxism and liberalism scorning any notion of a united feminist challenge to patriarchy of united anti racist struggle and of united working class movements against capitalist exploitation and oppression For postmodernists the world is fragmented history is ended and all struggles are local and particularistic Written by internationally renowned British and American educational theorists Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory a substantially revised edition of the original 1999 work Postmodernism in Educational Theory critically examines the infusion of postmodernism and theories of postmodernity into educational theory policy and research The writers argue that postmodernism provides neither a viable educational politics nor the foundation for effective radical educational practice and offer an alternative politics of human resistance which puts the challenge to capitalism firmly on the agenda of educational theory politics and practice Thinking about Management Ian Palmer, Cynthia Hardy, 2000 This radical text presents central management questions that managers and students need to work with and understand Key debates in management theory are taken out of their academic setting and discussed in relation to management experience Exercises examples illustrations and summaries bring the problems and dilemmas alive for the student From people management to organizational culture leadership to learning institutional power to individual innovation the multi faceted territory of management is explored and opened up The Sacred and its Scholars Idinopulos, Yonan, 1996-10-01 This volume of essays is devoted to a careful examination of the importance of methodology in the study of primary religious data The essays focus on the Sacred as an ultimate object of descriptive analysis and critical scrutiny on the part of a select number of North American and European methodologists in the study and teaching of the history of religions and its allied disciplines The central question to which the contributors respond are these What is the Sacred Is it a being or a concept of a being is it a mental state or an objective reality or something else entirely Can the Sacred be described as an empirical fact or as a formal rule for religious inquiry If the Sacred is a valid category in the study and teaching of religion then what can be said about the antithesis of the sacred namely the profane or the secular This volume probes these questions with great care in order to justify a number of ways the Sacred can be construed as an indispensable notion for the study and teaching of religion Conscious Acts and the Politics of Social Change Robin L. Teske, Mary Ann Tétreault, 2000 Diasporic Feminist Theology Namsoon Kang, 2014-11-01 How do we navigate the question of identity in the fluid and pluralist conditions of postmodern society Even more how do we articulate identity as a defining particularity in the disappearance of borders boundaries and spaces in an increasingly globalist world What constitutes identity and the formation of narratives under such conditions How do these issues affect not only discursive practices but theological and ethical construction and practice This volumes explores these issues in depth Diasporic Feminist Theology attempts to construct feminist theology by adopting diaspora as a theopolitical and ethical metaphor Namsoon Kang here revisits and reexamines today s significant issues such as identity politics dislocation postmodernism postcolonialism neo empire Asian values and constructs diasporic transethnic and glocal feminist theological discourses that create spaces of transformation reconciliation hospitality worldliness solidarity and border traversing This work draws on diverse sources from contemporary critical discourses of diaspora studies cultural studies ethnic studies postmodernism postcolonialism and feminism and feminist theology from a transterritorial space This book is a landmark work providing a comprehensive discourse for feminist theology today
