Justice, Equality and Tax Law Nevla Čičin-Šain, Mario Riedl, 2022-10-05 An in depth analysis of the specific aspects of justice equality and tax law Justice Equality and Tax Law is a topic that is both old and new at the same time Even if the society changes the demands that tax needs to be just and equal seem to be immutable What changes of course is the perception of the content of those demands International taxation post BEPS has been fraught with new challenges that warranted urgent responses These challenges were mainly provoked by the unprecedented rise of the digital economy which truly marked a change in the way business is conducted how value is created and how goods and services are produced and consumed Digitalization in turn had repercussions on all aspects of taxation direct taxation indirect taxation and even tax procedures For instance the quest for more justice and equality in profit taxes was the reason why in October 2021 a historical deal based on a two pillar solution to address the tax challenges arising from the digitalization of the economy was negotiated within the OECD G20 Inclusive Framework on Base Erosion and Profit Shifting and agreed upon by 137 member countries It was also the motive behind the shift from a typical vendor collection model to an intermediary collection model supported by centralized registration points in indirect taxes notably the VAT GST Abundant data from the European Union or the OECD signaled an ever increasing gap between expected VAT revenues and VAT actually collected making it obvious that the classical system of VAT GST collection was unable to respond to challenges posed by the digital economy Therefore new solutions based on the participation of digital platforms as intermediaries had been introduced Finally new technologies such as blockchain paved new avenues in enhancing tax compliance In this context this volume entitled Justice Equality and Tax Law contains not only a selection of the best master's theses of the full time LL M programme in 2021 2022 but also represents an in depth analysis of various aspects of this evergreen topic

On the Principles of Gibraltar Taxation Isaac Levy, Grahame Jackson, 2024-08-29 Each chapter of this book describes and discusses a single principle which can be discerned in the design and operation of the Gibraltar taxation system Not all of these principles will have been in the minds of the drafters of the relevant legislation some of them may well be what philosophers call emergent properties but nonetheless are there shaping and guiding the design of new legislation and impacting on the future of our taxation model

Taxation in a Global Economy Andreas Haufler,2001-08-23 The increasing international mobility of capital firms and consumers has begun to constrain tax policies in most OECD countries playing a major role in reforming national tax systems Haufler uses the theory of international taxation to consider the fundamental forces underlying this process covering both factor and commodity taxes as well as their interaction Topics include a variety of different international tax avoidance strategies capital flight profit shifting in multinational firms and cross border shopping by consumers Situations in which tax competition creates conflicting interests between countries are given particular consideration Haufler addresses the complex issue of coordination in different areas of tax policy with special emphasis on regional tax harmonization in the European Union Also included is a detailed introduction to recent theoretical literature Welfare Effects of Value-Added Tax Harmonization in Europe Hans Fehr,Christoph Rosenberg,Wolfgang Wiegard,2012-12-06 This book uses a computable general equilibrium framework to evaluate recent value added tax reform proposals in the European Union from a welfare point of view After the publication of the White Paper 1985 on the completion of the internal European market an intense and heated debate about tax impediments to free trade set in According to the original plans of the Commission of the European Union not only physical border controls but also fiscal frontiers within the European Union would have been abolished on New Year s Day 1993 With respect to value added taxation this amounted to replacing the destination by the origin principle Even though the origin principle had been favored by some economists from the establishment of a common European value added tax system time was not yet ripe for this change In December 1991 the ECOFIN Council could only agree on the so called transitional system In essence these transitional arrangements maintain the destination principle as far as possible but shift the border tax procedure from national frontiers to firms The transitional system is supposed to expire on December 31 1996 with the final solution for value added taxation in the European Union being decided upon by the ECOFIN Council until December 1995 In the event of no decision the transitional arrangements will be continued The most likely solution will be a switch to the origin principle combined with some clearing mechanism to prevent major revenue reallocations between member states Beneficial Ownership in Tax Law and Tax Treaties Pablo A Hernández González-Barreda, 2020-05-28 This book explores the concept of beneficial ownership in equity law the domestic tax laws of the United Kingdom Canada and the United States as well as its varied and increasing uses in international tax law By analysing the evolution of beneficiary rights in equity and the use of beneficial ownership wording in tax law the book draws a roadmap for dealing with beneficial ownership in both national and international tax law This approach highlights those common misconceptions that can be avoided by understanding the origins of the concept and its engagement with equity as well as the differences with tax law However the book does not limit itself to dealing with theoretical discussion but also offers an instructive and detailed practical case study Offering both academic commentary and a practitioner focus the book will be of the utmost interest to scholars and practitioners from common and civil law countries dealing with tax and estate law particularly given beneficial ownership's increasing relevance Co-operative Tax Compliance Building Better Tax Control Frameworks OECD, 2016-05-13 This report outlines the essential features of a Tax Control Framework TCF and addresses revenue bodies expectations of TCFs Democracy and Financial Order: Legal Perspectives Matthias Goldmann, Silvia Steininger, 2018-05-17 This book discusses the relationship between democracy and the financial order from various legal perspectives Each of the nine contributions adopts a unique perspective on the legal and political challenges brought to the fore by the Global Financial Crisis This crisis and the ensuing sovereign debt crisis in Europe are only the latest in a long series of financial crises around the globe in recent decades By their very existence but also as a result of the political turmoil they have created these financial crises testify to the well known tensions between democracy and a market based economic and financial order However what is missing in this debate is an analysis of the role of law for reconciling democracy with a market based financial order To fill this lacuna the book focuses on the controversy surrounding the concept of law thereby adding another variable to the debate on the relation between democracy and capitalism Each chapter addresses the concept of law from a particular theoretical angle be it a full grown legal theory or an approach in political economy that has a particular view of the law
