The Routledge Companion to Human Resource Development Rob F. Poell,Tonette S. Rocco,Gene L. Roth,2014-09-25 The field of Human Resource Development HRD has grown in prominence as an independent discipline from its roots in both management and education since the 1980s There has been continual debate about the boundaries of HRD ever since Drawing on a wide and respected international contributor base and with a focus on international markets this book provides a thematic overview of current knowledge in HRD across the globe The text is separated into nine sections which explore the origins of the field adjacent and related fields theoretical approaches policy perspectives interventions core issues and concerns HRD as a profession HRD around the world and emerging topics and future trends An epilogue rounds off the volume by considering the present and future states of the discipline and suggesting areas for further research The Routledge Companion to Human Resource Development is an essential resource for researchers students and HRD professionals alike Managing Human Behavior in Public and Nonprofit Organizations Robert B. Denhardt,Janet V.

Denhardt, Maria P. Aristigueta, Kelly C. Rawlings, 2018-12-27 Managing Human Behavior in Public and Nonprofit Organizations Fifth Edition is an established core text designed to help you develop your leadership and management skills. Bestselling authors Denhardt, Aristigueta, and Rawlings cover important topics such as stress, decision making, motivation, leadership, teams, communication, and change. Cases, self-assessment exercises, and numerous examples provide you with the opportunity to apply concepts and theories discussed in the chapter. Focusing exclusively on organizational behavior in both public and nonprofit organizations, this text is a must-read for students in public administration programs. New to the Fifth Edition: Increased attention to issues related to nonprofit organizations helps you develop a better understanding of the differences and similarities in public and nonprofit organizations as well as the way they interact with one another and with the private sector. Broadened coverage of issues related to ethics and diversity offers you a broader perspective on important issues to consider, such as the examination of implicit and explicit bias, generational differences, and power and privilege. Additional discussions of collaboration, inclusion, and participation both within the organization and with external constituencies show you the value rationale for engagement and its practical effects. Revised and updated information on emerging technology illustrates to you how an increasingly digital, connected, and networked environment affects our ability to manage public and nonprofit organizations. New cases, examples, self-assessments, and exercises cover recent developments in research and practice to offer relevant ways for you to practice and improve your management skills.

ECMLG 2017 13th European Conference on Management, Leadership and Governance Martin Rich, 2017-12-11 These Proceedings represent the work of contributors to the 13th European Conference on Management, Leadership and Governance. ECMLG 2017 was hosted this year by the Cass Business School, City University of London, on 11-12 December 2017. The Conference Chair is Dr Martin Rich. The conference will be opened with a keynote address by Dr Helen Rothberg from Marist College, Poughkeepsie, USA, with a speech entitled 'Everything I Know about Leadership I Learned as a Bartender'. On the second day, the keynote will be delivered by Dr Amanda Goodall from City University of London on the topic of 'Why we need core business experts as leaders'. ECMLG is a well-established platform for individuals to present their research findings, display their work in progress, and discuss conceptual advances in many different branches of Management, Leadership and Governance. At the same time, it provides an important opportunity for members of the community to come together with peers, share knowledge, and exchange ideas. With an initial submission of 160 abstracts, after the double-blind peer review process, there are 61 academic papers, 8 PhD Papers, and 2 Work in Progress papers in these Conference Proceedings. These papers reflect the truly global nature of research in the area, with contributions from Australia, Austria, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Czech Republic, Finland, Germany, Hungary, Iran, Ireland, Israel, Kazakhstan, Kenya, Lithuania, Malaysia, Core Competencies for Accountants in the Federal Government, 1998 Supervisors in the Federal Government United States.
