Prophetic Witness In World Christianities Rethinking Pastoral Care And Counseling International Practical Theology:

Prophetic Witness in World Christianities Annemie Dillen, Anne Vandenhoeck, 2011 Prophets have a reputation of changing for the better the relationship between people and God Christianity has a long history of prophets who have directed the faithful towards more justice and righteousness What can Christians learn from prophets for daily life for contemporary theology and for pastoral care This book looks at prophetic action from a biblical pastoral and ethical perspective The contributions from both pastoral theologians and pastors from around the globe make this study a unique exercise in maintaining the prophetic perspective in theological reflection and pastoral practice Series International Practical Theology Vol 13

Gegenreligion Dietrich Zilleßen, 2019 Gegenreligion widersteht dem Fundamentalismus Sie bedarf einer Bildung deren Religiosität sich als humane Beziehung darstellt Bildung ist eine Form von Kultivierung die die Ansprüche des Fremden achtet Lernen orientiert sich am Wert der Differenz Religionspädagogik gründet in einer Lernkultur der Gegenseitigkeit Konkrete Lernentscheidungen sind nicht schlüssig sondern experimentell An vielen Beispielen umkreist experimentelle Didaktik Fragen und Probleme bedenkt Erfahrungen wieder und wieder und verfolgt dabei Spuren im Unwegsamen Diese Art von Bildung und ihre Religion sind unterwegs sonst könnten sie weder Bildung noch Religion sein Ihre Grundfrage ist wie sich in multikultureller Lebenswelt verantwortlich denken und handeln lässt

Theology in Service to the Church Allan Hugh Cole, 2014-07-17 As a global religion with growing numbers of expressions Christianity calls for deepening relationships across traditions while also formulating collaborative visions A thriving church will require Christians from various traditions and on varying trajectories to become familiar with one another appreciate one another and work in common service to God in Jesus Christ In this book a group of thirteen distinguished scholars from around the world and representing a range of Orthodox Catholic and Protestant perspectives demonstrate how theological reflection and broad based ecumenical conversations may serve the church Reflecting on numerous salient matters facing the global church these scholars model what may be accomplished in ecumenical conversations that recognize the gifts that come with unity across diversity among those who seek to be faithful to Jesus Christ

Unbeaten Paths John Fernandes, 2020-03-10 John Fernandes walked on Unbeaten Paths and presents a theologically reflected autobiography on it He studied in Mangaluru Pune Innsbruck and Trier As Pastor and Professor of Theology in India he committed himself to justice and peace Living on the Periphery Crossing Borders Building Bridges aptly summarises the author's life This book includes a lived Liberation Theology examples of ecumenical and interfaith cooperation and commitment to justice peace and ecology Thus it is a contribution to narrative mission theology The Indian artist Jyoti Sahi has illustrated the book

Social inequality and interreligious learning Alexander Unser, 2019 Interreligious learning is viewed as a key educational task today Increasing religious plurality in our societies and associated risks of societal tensions and conflicts necessitate that students deal at school with other religions their belief systems and the social reality of those who believe in them Although several international studies have shown that some categories of students are at risk to be disadvantaged at school because of social inequality this problem is currently not considered in theories of interreligious learning Therefore the present study investigates whether or not categories of students are disadvantaged in interreligious learning In addition to theological and pedagogical insights about the problem of social inequality this book presents an empirically validated action theoretical model which helps to understand why some students have better or worse opportunities in interreligious learning The action theoretical model further proposes strategies to address unequal learning conditions in interreligious learning

Authenticity and Community Hans S. Reinders, 2011 Dr Herman P Meininger has made important contributions to the ethical reflection in the field of disability and disability studies In honor to his work this book presents essays of international well known experts

Pastoral and Spiritual Care Across Religions and Cultures II Isabelle Noth, Claudia Kohli Reichenbach, 2019-05-20 This diverse compilation of contributions explores the pressing topic of how to provide appropriate spiritual care in the context of human migration The psycho spiritual dimensions of suffering particular to human migration such as social exclusion alienation and various types of trauma are considered from various disciplinary perspectives Complex but important questions are explored How might various methods of self healing be better supported by spiritual caregivers How can faith communities cultivate more supportive contexts responsive to the particular needs prompted by migration The International Association for Spiritual Care IASC founded in 2015 in Bern Switzerland is dedicated to the promotion of richer interdisciplinary dialogue amongst people from different cultural and religious backgrounds The volume starts from the premise that failures to cultivate deeper respect for diversity risks cultural misunderstandings and relational harm in the context of helping relationships and therefore personal encounters and scholarly exchanges between Muslims Jews Christians Buddhists Hindus Sikhs people without religious affiliation and atheists are critically important and unquestionably valuable These contributions reflect the fruits of the inaugural conference of the IASC which was held at the University of Bern and in the House of Religions in June 2016

Resilient Religion, Resilience and Heartbreaking Adversity Chris A.M. Hermans, Kobus Schoeman, 2023-01-05 A resilience theory on religion needs to answer four questions What defines the kind of adversity which is addressed in religion What is characteristic for processes of resilience in religion What defines resilient religion as outcome Which logic of inference epistemology based on our beliefs and experiences about reality binds these three elements together The book starts with mapping the field of resilience theory on religion by addressing all four questions The need for thinking about Christian resilience and the God symbol is addressed and the need to be explicitly contextual with regard to resilience in South Africa Next three types practices of religious acting are related to experiences of resilience namely preaching narrating and discerning In the last chapters the focus is on the way stories help to express feelings of experiences of crises tragedy and trauma But also how stories can help heal the broken heart Prof

Chris A M Hermans is extraordinary professor in practical theology and missiology at the University of the Free State South Africa He is emeritus professor in pastoral theology at Radboud University the Netherlands and emeritus professor in empirical study of religion at Radboud University the Netherlands Prof Kobus W J Schoeman is professor of practical theology at the University of the Free State South Africa

The Prophetic Church R. Loren Sandford, 2009-02-01 R Loren Sandford does not believe we will see revival sweep the Western world despite the prayers of those longing for God to send it without certain key elements The goal of our pursuit in these crucial days rather than seeking power must be intimacy with God and oneness with his heart In addition to biblical examples and practical application Sandford shows readers how certain lighthouse churches are incorporating and cultivating these goals The church of Jesus Christ he says can rise up to have a prophetic impact on cities and nations and become all that our Savior called us to be

Prophetic Witness Heinrich Bedford-Strohm, Etienne De Villiers, 2011 The role of religious prophetic witness in the public discourse of modern civil societies is a vital question not only for the churches but for society as a whole Is it still appropriate for churches to make use of prophetic witness as a mode of public discourse in contemporary democratic societies Can biblical tradition be a referential source for prophetic public statements of the churches in highly debated political questions Or must public discourse in pluralistic societies be strictly grounded in purely reason based arguments This book deals with these questions in a multi disciplinary perspective looking at historical settings of biblical texts and discussing contemporary issues and contexts Series Theology in the Public Square Theologie in der Öffentlichkeit Vol 1

Prophetic Witnesses to Joy Juliet Mousseau, 2021-11-08 A life of consecration prefigures what Christians hope for by calling into question the value of power sexuality and material possessions Religious life challenges the idea that these things alone bring happiness and shows that we can be more fulfilled happier and more whole without being attached to them Furthermore detaching ourselves from these desires allows others to live with more dignity and greater ease as well Consecrated life then is a prophetic witness to the joy of the eschatological call of Christianity In the words of Pope Francis to religious men and women leading up to the Year of Consecrated Religious Wake up the world Be witnesses of a different way of doing things of acting of living

The Holy Spirit in Mission Gary Tyra, 2011-10-19 The church has been called to participate in God's mission in the world But without a robust biblical sense of the Spirit's action how can we be sure we're fulfilling that call In this innovative work of missional pneumatology Gary Tyra synthesizes charismatic and evangelical perspectives to flesh out the nature and purpose of the church's preaching proclamation and service

Witnessing Maria Clara Bingemer, Peter Casarella, 2014-10 Inspired by the twenty fifth anniversary of the Jesuit martyrs of El Salvador this volume gathers reflection on the meaning and role of Christian witness in the world today The meaning of witness has always carried special weight in the examples of martyrs But as the contributors both from North and South America here

demonstrate the implications of witness extend in many ways to pedagogy the role of narrative in theology spirituality intercultural dialogue and politics
