

Precision in word choice and accuracy in conveying information are crucial. Hill advises writers to choose their words carefully to convey exact meanings and to ensure that their facts and data are correct. This builds credibility and trust with the reader and enhances the overall quality of the writing.

Good writing should be coherent and unified. Coherence refers to the logical flow of ideas, where each sentence and paragraph smoothly transitions to the next. Unity means that all parts of the text contribute to the central theme or argument. Hill stresses the importance of organizing ideas logi
