Issues Around Aligning Theory, Research and Practice in Social Work Education Allucia L. Shokane, Jabulani C. Makhubele, Lisa V. Blitz, 2018-12-01 Issues Around Aligning Theory Research and Practice in Social Work Education provides a reflection on social work education with a slant towards an Afrocentric approach aiming to facilitate

strong reflective thinking and to address local realities about social work education on the African continent as well as in broader global contexts This volume focuses on issues around aligning theory research and practice in social work education A significant contribution is made here to the scholarly understanding of opportunities to sustain the academic discourse on social work education Social work as a profession and a social science discipline is dynamic and it ought to meet the challenges of the realities of the societies in which it serves given the history of the changing society of South Africa from apartheid to democracy Over the years social work education and training has undergone tremendous curricular changes with the enactment of the White Paper for Social Welfare and the national review respectively by the South African Council for Social Services Professions SACSSP and the Council on Higher Education CHE for the re accreditation of all Bachelor of Social Work BSW programmes in South Africa fulfilling the prescripts of the Higher Education Act No 101 of 1997 as amended and Social Service Professions Act No 110 of 1978 It is worth mentioning that the curricular changes will also continue with the current reviewing of Social Service Professions Act No 110 of 1978 as amended which is underway in South Africa This book is really ground breaking The Afrocentric perspective on social work practice contributes to the current discourse on decolonisation of social work teaching and practice From a methodological perspective the book is premised on multi inter and trans disciplining in social sciences It covers aspects of social work education and practice through research narrative qualitative African methodology secondary data analysis etc engendering values and ethics report writing supervision in fieldwork as well as exchange programmes and international service learning addressing a number of concepts such as cultural competency cultural awareness and sensitivity are addressed Wellbeing in Doctoral Education Lynette Pretorius, Luke Macaulay, Basil Cahusac de Caux, 2019-09-10 This book offers a range of personal and engaging stories that highlight the diverse voices of doctoral students as they explore their own learning journeys Through these stories doctoral students call for an academic environment in which the discipline specific knowledge gained during their PhD is developed in concert with the skills needed to maintain personal wellbeing purposely reflect on experiences and build intercultural competence In recent years wellbeing has been increasingly recognised as an important aspect of doctoral education Yet few resources exist to help those who support doctoral students Wellbeing in Doctoral Education provides a voice for doctoral students to advocate for improvements to their own educational environment Both the struggles and the strategies for success highlighted by the students are therefore invaluable not only for the students themselves but also their families their social networks and academia more broadly Importantly the doctoral students stories should be a clarion call for those in decision making positions in academia These narratives demonstrate that it is imperative that academic institutions invest in providing the skills and support that doctoral students need to succeed academically and flourish emotionally Instructed Second Language Acquisition Research Methods Laura Gurzynski-Weiss, Youjin Kim, 2022-12-08 Written for novice and established scholars alike Instructed Second Language Acquisition Research Methods
