Researching Interpretive Talk Around Literary Narrative Texts John Gordon,2020-08-25 Drawing on a multidisciplinary approach integrating insights from conversation analysis narrative analysis and narratology this book

theorizes teaching around narrative prose in each level of education with a focus on a new framework of Pedagogic Literary Narration which emphasizes the practice of shared novel reading and the importance of the role of the teacher in mediating this practice With insights taken from a comprehensive set of transcripts taken from actual classrooms the volume focuses on the convention in native tongue literary study in which teachers and students read a novel shared over lessons combining periods of reading aloud with those of questioning and discussion In so doing Gordon seeks to extend existing methodologies from literary and social science research toward informing teaching practice in literary pedagogy and address the need for a theorization of literary pedagogy which considers the interrelationship between text in print and text through talk

Transcripts are supported with comprehensive analyses to help further explicate the research methodology and provide guidance on implementing it in the classroom This book is a valuable resource for scholars in language and education literary studies narrative inquiry and education research Oxford Revise: AQA GCSE English Literature: Power and Conflict Poetry
