Archive Wars Rosie Bsheer, 2020-09-22 A study of the Saudi Arabian monarchy's efforts to construct and disseminate a historical narrative to legitimize its rule The production of history is premised on the selective erasure of certain pasts and the artifacts that stand witness to them From the elision of archival documents to the demolition of sacred and secular spaces each act of destruction is also an act of state building Following the 1991 Gulf War political elites in Saudi Arabia pursued these dual projects of historical commemoration and state formation with greater fervor to enforce their postwar vision for state nation and economy Seeing Islamist movements as the leading threat to state power they sought to de-center religion from educational cultural and spatial policies With this book Rosie Bsheer explores the increasing secularization of the postwar Saudi state and how it manifested in assembling a national archive and reordering urban space in Riyadh and Mecca The elites project was rife with ironies in Riyadh they employed world renowned experts to fashion an imagined history while at the same time in Mecca they were overseeing the obliteration of a thousand year old topography and its replacement with commercial megaprojects Archive Wars shows how the Saudi state's response to the challenges of the Gulf War served to historicize a national space territorialize a national history and ultimately refract both through new modes of capital accumulation Praise for Archive Wars An instant classic With incredible insight creativity and courage Rosie Bsheer peels away the political and institutional barriers that have so long mystified others seeking to understand Saudi Arabia Bsheer tells us remarkable new things about the exercise and meaning of power in today's Saudi Arabia Toby Jones Rutgers University author of Desert Kingdom How Oil and Water Forged Modern Saudi Arabia There are now two distinct eras in the writing of Saudi Arabian history before Rosie

Bsheer's Archive Wars and after Robert Vitalis University of Pennsylvania author of Oilcraft Archive Wars explores with conceptual brilliance and historical aplomb the various forms of historical erasure central not just to the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia but to all modern states In a finely grained analysis Rosie Bsheer rethinks the significance of archives historicism capital accumulation and the remaking of the built environment A must read for all historians concerned with the materiality of modern state formation Omnia El Shakry University of California Davis author of The Great Social Laboratory Subjects of Knowledge in Colonial and Postcolonial Egypt MEED, 1994-04 The Arab World and Iran Amin Saikal, 2016-06-20 This volume focuses on interpreting the changing domestic and regional dynamics in the Arab world and Iran Its chapters discuss an array of countries events actors and issues from an examination of the Arab Spring and the Tunisian democratic transition to an exploration of the role of Saudi Iranian geostrategic rivalry to the impact of ethnic and sectarian politics in Syria Iraq and across the region Chapters from expert contributors are organized into three parts The first section of the volume covers the aspects and dynamics of change in the Arab world The second examines the role of Islam Islamism Islamic governance and sectarian and ethnic politics in the region The third section focuses on Iranian domestic and regional politics Yet the theme of transition is constant throughout as this multidisciplinary book draws connections across countries and events to not only inform about the prevailing regional situation but also to invite readers to draw their own conclusions as to the future of the Middle East Collectively the volume provides a fresh interpretation of the changing dynamics of the Arab world and Iran unpacking the complexities of the disputes conflicts rivalries failed goals and processes of change and development that have made the Muslim Middle East so turbulent directionless and perpetually contested by both regional and international actors Trade Policy Review, 2021 China-Gulf Oil Cooperation Under the Belt and Road Initiative Tingting Zhang, Dehua Wang, 2020-11-24 This book not only discusses how to further deepen the oil cooperation relations between China and the Gulf Council Countries in the context of the Belt and Road Initiative but also investigates how to ensure the security of the entire oil supply chain including oil supply oil transportation channels oil demand and petroleum reserves in China Further it examines a novel win win oil cooperation between China and the GCC countries known as joint oil stockpiling The results presented offer guidance for similar energy cooperation between China and other energy producing countries and also provide a new perspective on how to improve the research on and understanding of China's energy security issues and multi lateral energy cooperation issues making the book of particular interest to engineers and scientists in the field of energy international relations and oil stockpiling enterprises Urban Intensities Peter G. Rowe, Har Ye Kan, 2014-08-20 Diversity and density in housing today Accommodation of diversity and the creation of urban density are a focus of world wide building and planning activities today This book combines the architectural and urban scales to demonstrate that it is a specific quality urban intensity which determines the success of housing The authors provide a typology of housing according to the ways in which diversity and density are created Comparisons with historical models and critical appraisals based on the authors unique standing give ample information on the pros and cons of major types of housing their pitfalls and successful examples Newly created sets of drawings from floor plans to spectacular 3D aerial views of the buildings in their urban contexts accompany each of the more than twenty case studies that are described and analyzed in detail The approach taken here relates to many pressing issues in contemporary housing including the avoidance of urban sprawl the revival of city centers and the ongoing search for innovative housing types A qualitative approach to diversity and density in housing A concept that unites architectural and urban design A wide range of original drawings of benchmark case studies

The Secure and the Dispossessed Nick Buxton, Ben Hayes, 2015-11-20 While the world's scientists and many of its inhabitants despair at the impact of climate change corporate and military leaders see nothing but opportunities For them melting ice caps mean newly accessible fossil fuels borders to be secured from climate refugees social conflicts to be managed and more failed states in which to intervene They are securing their assets at the expense of the planet and its inhabitants The Secure and the Dispossessed looks at these deadly approaches with a critical eye It also considers the flip side that the legitimacy of the elite is under unprecedented pressure from resistance by communities to resource grabs to those creating new ecological and socially just models for managing our energy food and water Topics covered include geoengineering militarism refugee protection greenwashing and the agricultural crisis among others Adaptation and resilience to a climate changed world is desperately needed but the form it will take will affect all of our futures
