Postcolonial Naturalism Eric D. Smith, 2023-11-16 Postcolonial Naturalism proposes an innovative periodizing schema for historicizing contemporary Anglophone fiction Engaging and revising the materialist paradigm of the Warwick Research Collective's concept of world literature Fredric Jameson's mapping of modernity's cultural periods and Christopher L. Hill's positing of a transnational naturalism Eric D. Smith theorizes postcolonial naturalism as a structurally determined cultural logic rather than as a literary technique or style Supported by careful theoretically and critically sophisticated analyses of exemplary literary works this important intervention invites us to reconsider the living history of aesthetic naturalism as well as its social and political implications for the practice of world literature in the aftermath of anticolonial resistance transformation In these times of conflict and disparity which threaten democratic values these novelists advocate an inclusive and humane India with a strong moral core instead of aggressive or elitist nationalism They represent an era of painful introspection an attempt to keep the soul of the nation alive This unique project would be of interest to students and scholars of Literature Political Science and History especially Post colonial studies The vast scope of the time period geographical expanse social groups writers and works covered here makes the work comprehensive and contemporary very few such works on recent Indian history and fiction exist as of now
