Architecture, from Prehistory to Postmodernity Marvin Trachtenberg, Isabelle Hyman, 2002 Moving back and forth between the long shot on historical trends and close ups on major works and crucial architectural themes this insightful lively and original analysis also accepts the conventional period and thematic structures of architectural history and the canon of great buildings Designed to help readers understand and appreciate what great architecture is in its full dimensions of use structure and aesthetic qualities as well as its history this lavishly illustrated book explains specific qualities of each period and the often complex illuminating differences between the periods This comprehensive volume examines all aspects of architectural history from the Ancient world the Middle Ages the Renaissance and Baroque periods through the modern world For historians and architectural enthusiasts Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Byzantium/Modernism

,2015-06-29 Byzantium Modernism features contributions by fourteen international scholars and brings together a diverse range of interdisciplinary essays on art architecture theatre film literature and philosophy which examine how and why Byzantine art and image theory can contribute to our understanding of modern and contemporary visual culture Particular attention is given to intercultural dialogues between the former dominions of the Byzantine Empire with a special focus on Greece Turkey and Russia and the artistic production of Western Europe and America Together these essays invite the reader to think critically and theoretically about the dialogic interchange between Byzantium and modernism and to consider this cross temporal encounter as an ongoing and historically deep narrative rather than an ephemeral or localized trend Contributors are Tulay Atak Charles Barber Elena Boeck Anthony Cutler Rico Franses Dimitra Kotoula Marie Jos Mondzain Myroslava M Mudrak Robert S Nelson Robert Ousterhout Stratis Papaioannou Glenn Peers Jane A Sharp and Devin Singh

Sacred Power, Sacred Space Jeanne Halgren Kilde, 2008-07-21 Jeanne Halgren Kilde's survey of church architecture is unlike any other Her main concern is not the buildings themselves but rather the dynamic character of Christianity and how church buildings shape and influence the religion Kilde argues that a primary function of church buildings is to represent and reify three different types of power divine power or ideas about God personal empowerment as manifested in the individual's perceived relationship to the divine and social power meaning the relationships between groups such as clergy and laity Each type intersects with notions of Christian creed cult and code and is represented spatially and materially in church buildings Kilde explores these categories chronologically from the early church to the twentieth century She considers the form organization and use of worship rooms the location of churches and the interaction between churches and the wider culture Church buildings have been integral to Christianity and Kilde's important study sheds new light on the way they impact all aspects of the religion Neither mere witnesses to transformations of religious thought or nor simple backgrounds for religious practice church buildings are in Kilde's view dynamic participants in religious change and goldmines of information on Christianity itself Forthcoming Books Rose Arny, 2002-04 Subject Guide to Children's Books in Print 1997

Bowker Editorial Staff, R R Bowker Publishing, 1996-09 Books in Print , 1991 Italy's Renaissance in Buildings and Gardens Frederick Kiefer, 2024-10-08 Palaces villas and churches These were the highlights of my first visit to Italy I took a lot of photos and looked forward to sharing them with friends and family Back home though I found that I didn't recall much about the places that impressed me Although I had the benefit of a half day guide in Rome Florence and Venice I sometimes had difficulty hearing what was said on crowded streets and busy interiors The guides were capable but had only enough time to mention a few major features As a rule they skimmed on actually describing buildings that intrigued me And so they were not especially helpful in providing the insights I wanted Upon my return I found myself wondering Where did the architects actually find their ideas What did they want to accomplish And what do their choices tell us about their time My sojourn in Italy would have been more satisfying if I had come away with a fuller account of what I had seen What I most needed was context This book supplies that context Contemplation of antiquity and the exchange of views among architects released a surge of intellectual energy not seen for a millennium a development that would never have happened so quickly were it not for Johannes Gutenberg's invention of printing with movable type This development in turn led to architects heightened self awareness of their collective enterprise They read what their fellow architects wrote and thereby gained in sophistication They were no longer merely masons They became architects in the modern sense They took pride in their achievements and shared a conviction that the visual culture they created was far superior to that of the previous thousand years Their embrace of classical civilisation had a visceral urgency Rome after all was a culture with a storied past peopled by larger than life figures To learn what the ancients had created in word or stone could supply a shortcut to wisdom And emulating the Romans would provide new models of aesthetic excellence This endeavour became known as the Renaissance or rebirth The Reformation however changed everything Martin Luther brought to issue a quandary How exactly was Christianity to be reconciled with the pagan past if at all Could one source of inspiration be sustained without compromising the other Religious reform questioned the aesthetic achievements of the previous hundred years The story of Renaissance architecture represents the effort to find an accommodation Postmodern Music/postmodern Thought Judith Irene Lochhead, Joseph Henry Auner, 2002 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informal company
