Growing Up Latino Harold Augenbraum, Ilan Stavans, 1993 A comprehensive collection of Latino writing of fiction and nonfiction works in English      Composing Teacher-Research Cathy Fleischer, 1995-01-01 This story of a teacher's growth as a researcher in the classroom reflects the larger issues of the debate about this kind of research during the last decade

Crossing Cultures Judith Oster, 2003 In this important new study Judith Oster looks at the literature of Chinese Americans and Jewish Americans in relation to each other Examining what is most at issue for both groups as they live between two cultures languages and environments Oster focuses on the struggles of protagonists to form identities that are necessarily bicultural and always in process Recognizing what poststructuralism has demonstrated regarding the instability of the subject and the impossibility of a unitary identity Oster contends that the writers of these works are attempting to shore up the fragments to construct through their texts some sort of wholeness and to answer at least partially the questions Who am I and Where do I belong Book Jacket      CliffsNotes SAT BTPS Testing, 2012-03-19 Ace the SAT with the expert guidance of CliffsNotes Four full length practice tests Learning modules in the review sections help readers with different cognitive learning styles Strategies to reduce test taking anxiety      Beyond the Traditional Essay: Increasing Student Agency in a Diverse Classroom with Nondisposable Assignments Melissa Ryan, Kerry Kautzman, 2022-07-12 This volume offers a range of responses to the problem of disposable assignments essays written just for a grade and then thrown away The scholars collected here explore how renewable assignments can contribute to public knowledge eliciting student work that is shared across networks of learning that does something that transcends the teacher's grade Although there is significant interest in such innovative teaching practices particularly in this year of pedagogical experimentation there are few resources for teachers that collect in one place both scholarly context and practical advice for implementing renewable assignments in the classroom The essays in this volume range widely from demonstrating how digital tools engage and empower reluctant learners to raising theoretical questions around intellectual property to measuring the success of renewable assignments through outcomes assessment      Strategy and Structure William Jude Kelly, 1996      Non-Native English-Speaking Teachers Revisited Xuan Zheng, 2025-03-31 Drawing on ethnographical evidence this book examines the complexity of the controversial construct Non Native English Speaking Teacher NNEST and the newly proposed translingual translanguaging teacher in re-scripting their identities Zheng examines the process of international graduate students learning to become composition teachers and English professionals in the United States The book addresses the danger of either constructing fixed boundaries or dissolving them and helps readers to understand the duality of fixity and fluidity in identity development Zheng advocates for open dialogue between different ideologies in approaching language diversity in schools with the same aim of social justice This volume will attract academic readers from a range of disciplines and in different contexts trainers of international teaching assistants composition second language writing scholars and present or future professionals in TESOL second foreign language teaching      Tongue-Tied Otto Santa Ana, 2004-03-12 Tongue Tied is an anthology that gives voice to millions of people who on a daily basis are denied the opportunity to speak in their own language First person accounts by Amy Tan Sherman Alexie bell hooks Richard Rodriguez Maxine Hong Kingston and many other authors open windows into the lives of linguistic minority students and their experience in coping in school and beyond Selections from these writers are presented along with accessible abridged scholarly articles that assess the impact of language policies on the experiences and life opportunities of minority language students Vivid and unforgettable the readings in Tongue Tied are ideal for teaching and learning about American education and for spurring informed debate about the many factors that affect students and their lives      Writers Without Borders Lynn Z. Bloom, 2008-07-02 In Writers Without Borders Writing and Teaching Writing in Troubled Times Lynn Z Bloom presents groundbreaking research on the nature of essays and on the political philosophical ethical and pragmatic considerations that influence how we read write and teach them in times troubled by terrorism transgressive students and uses and abuses of the Internet Writers Without Borders reinforces Bloom's reputation for presenting innovative and sophisticated research with a writer's art and a teacher's heart Each of the eleven essays addresses in its own way the essay itself as one way to live and learn with others

The Harbrace Reader for Canadians Joanne Buckley, 2001 The Harbrace Reader for Canadians provides a compact collection of Canadian and international essays ranging from the classic to the contemporary Selections are organized by rhetorical mode and include introductions and concluding questions Edited by the author of Harcourt's market leading style guide Fit to Print this reader gains from Joanne Buckley's years of teaching and writing composition texts      Language

Diversity in the Classroom John Edwards, 2010 This book provides comprehensive coverage of language contact in classroom settings Particularly highlighted are the range and implications of attitudes towards languages and dialects with close attention to nonstandard varieties studies of Black English foreign language teaching and learning as well as broad consideration of the assumptions and intentions underpinning bilingual and multicultural education      Serendipity in

Rhetoric, Writing, and Literacy Research Maureen Daly Goggin, Peter N. Goggin, 2018-04-01 In the course of research most scholars have known moments of surprise catastrophe or good fortune though they seldom refer to these occurrences in reports or discuss them with students Serendipity in Rhetoric Writing and Literacy Research reveals the different kinds of work scholars particularly those in rhetoric writing and literacy need to do in order to recognize a serendipitous discovery or a missed opportunity In published scholarship and research the path toward discovery seems clean and direct The dead ends backtrackings start overs and stumbles that occur throughout the research process are elided and seems that the researchers started at point A and arrived safely and neatly at point B without incident as if by magic The path however is never truly clear and straight Research and writing is messy Serendipity in Rhetoric Writing and Literacy Research features chapters from twenty three writing scholars who have experienced moments of serendipity in their own work not by magic or pure chance but through openness and active waiting which offer an opportunity to prepare the mind Serendipity in Rhetoric Writing and Literacy Research illustrates the reality of doing research there is no reliable prescription or one size fits all manual but success can be found with focused dedication and an open mind Contributors Ellen Barton Zachary C Beare Lynn Z Bloom Jennifer Clary Lemon Caren Wakerman Converse Gale Coskan Johnson Kim Donehower Bill Endres Shirley E Faulkner Springfield Lyn e Lewis Gaillet Brad Gyori Judy Holiday Gesa E Kirsch Lori Ostergaard Doreen Piano Liz Rohan Ryan Skinnell Patricia Wilde Daniel Wuebben

Beyond Grammar Mary R. Harmon, Marilyn J. Wilson, 2012-09-10 Beyond Grammar Language Power and the Classroom asks readers to think about the power of words the power of language attitudes and the power of language policies as they play out in communities in educational institutions and in their own lives as individuals teachers and participants in the larger community Each chapter provides extended discussion of a set of critical language issues that directly affect students in classrooms the political nature of language the power of words hate language and bullying gender and language dialects and language policies Written for pre service and practicing teachers this text addresses how teachers can alert students to the realities of language and power removing language study from a neutral corner to situate it within the context of political social and cultural issues Developing a critical pedagogy about language instruction can help educators understand that classrooms can either maintain existing inequity or address and diminish inequity through critical language study A common framework structures the chapters of the text Each chapter begins with an overview of the language issue in question and includes references for further research and for classroom use and provides applications for classroom teachers Numerous references to the popular press and the breadth of language issues found therein foreground current thought on socio cultural language issues attitudes standards and policies found in the culture s at large References to current and recent events illustrate the language issue s importance cartoons address the issue and brief For Thought activities illustrate the point being discussed and extend the reader s knowledge and awareness Personal Explorations ask readers to go beyond the text to develop further understanding Teaching Explorations ask teachers to apply chapter content to teaching situations Beyond Grammar Language Power and the Classroom is intended for undergraduate and master s level courses that address literacy education linguistics and issues of language and culture

The Living Language Linda A. Morris, Hans A. Ostrom, Linda P. Young, 1984 Raise Your Voices Thomas M. McCann, Andrew Bouque, Dawn Forde, Elizabeth A. Kahn, Carolyn C. Walter, 2018-11-06 In a collection of chapters from high school teachers and university researchers Raise Your Voices offers English language arts teachers one stop shopping to learn how to foster dialogic classrooms and how to prompt sustain connect and assess classroom discussions especially discussions about issues that adolescents find consequential The chapters explore both the basics for facilitating discussion to support literacy learning and the principles for assessing the progress and effect of discussion and for including all students in lively dialogue Taken together the entries in this book envision the English language arts classroom as a supportive environment for authentic inquiry and for the genuine democratic processes involved in grappling together with tough perennial and contemporary issues      What So Proudly We Hail Amy A. Kass, Leon R. Kass, Diana Schaub, 2023-03-28

A stupendous compilation of the best things said by and to Americans I open it every night at random and always find something valuable Peggy Noonan Wall Street Journal Indispensable Should become The Book of Virtues for patriots Mona Charen nationally syndicated columnist Concerned about rising cynicism and apathy more and more Americans lament the decline in patriotic feeling and civic engagement Fortunately this wonderfully rich anthology is here to help all Americans realize more deeply and appreciate more fully who they are as citizens of the United States At once inspiring and thought provoking What So Proudly We Hail explores American identity character and civic life using the soul shaping power of story speech and song Editors Amy Kass Leon Kass and Diana Schaub acclaimed scholars who among them have more than a century of teaching experience have assembled dozens of selections by our country's greatest writers and leaders from Mark Twain to John Updike from George Washington to Theodore Roosevelt from Willa Cather to Flannery O'Connor from Benjamin Franklin to Martin Luther King Jr from Francis Scott Key to Irving Berlin Featuring the editors insightful and instructive commentary What So Proudly We Hail illuminates our national identity the American creed the American character and the virtues and aspirations of active citizenship This marvelous book will spark much needed discussion and reflection in living rooms classrooms and reading groups everywhere      Patterns of Exposition 11 Randall E. Decker, Robert A. Schwegler, 1988      Second and Foreign Language Learning Through Classroom Interaction Joan Kelly Hall, Lorrie Stoops Verplaetse, 2000-06-01 This volume brings together the current theoretical interest in reconceptualizing second and foreign language learning from a sociocultural perspective on language and learning with practical concerns about second and foreign language pedagogy It presents a set of studies whose focus is on the empirical description of particular practices constructed in classroom interaction that promote the learning of a second or foreign language The authors examine in detail the processes by which the learning of additional languages is accomplished in the interaction of a variety of classrooms and in a variety of languages Not only will the findings from the studies reported in this volume help to lay a foundation for the development of a more expansive sociocultural model of second and foreign language learning but on a more practical level they will help language educators in creating a set of principles for identifying and sustaining classroom interactional practices that foster additional language development The volume is distinguished in three ways Following a Vygotskian perspective on development the studies assume that language learning is a fundamentally pragmatic enterprise intrinsically linked to language use This breaks from a more traditional understanding of second and foreign language learning which has viewed learning and use as two distinct phenomena The importance of classroom interaction to additional language development is foregrounded The investigations reported in this book are distinguished by their methodological approach Because language learning is assumed to be a situated context sensitive and dynamic process the studies do not rely on traditional experimental methods for collecting and analyzing data but rather they involve primarily the use of ethnographic and discourse analytic methods. The studies focus on interactional practices that promote second and foreign language learning. Although a great deal of research has examined first language learning in classrooms from a sociocultural perspective, little has looked at second and foreign language classrooms from such a perspective. Thus, there is a strong need for this volume of studies addressing this area of research. Researchers, teacher educators, and graduate students across the fields of second and foreign language learning, applied linguistics, and language education will find this book informative and relevant. Because of the programmatic implications arising from the studies, it will also appeal to teacher educators and teachers of second and foreign languages from the elementary to the university levels.
