Seniors AP: 1st, 3rd, 6th, and 8th

GENERAL READING EXPECTATIONS

1. Read the novel
2. Know the main characters by name.
3. Summarize the novel's plot and key events.
4. Explain the meaning of the title.
5. Consider the implications of revenge, justice, forgiveness, and the human heart in light of The Scarlet Letter.
6. Know all main characters, the thematic symbols associated with them, their relationship to one another, and what becomes of them:

Characters

Hester Prynne: Commits adultery with Rev. Arthur Dimmesdale, gives birth to Pearl, is married to Roger Chillingworth. She is forced to wear the "Scarlet (red) A".

- 'A' changes in meaning – adultery to angel to able. End up on Hester's grave stone
- Carries her punishment with dignity; earns the eventual respect of the village.
- Her goodness frequently associated with symbols of nature: sunshine, rosebush
- She moves away but returns near the end of her life.

Pearl: Hester and Dimmesdale's child. She's wild, aggressive, untamed.

- She instinctively knows that Dimmesdale is her father; knows that Chillingworth is dangerous. Only recognizes her mother with the 'A' on her chest.
- Wants Dimmesdale to stand with her and her mother in the daylight – accept her as his own.
- Eventually leaves village with Hester; Chillingworth leaves her land in his will, making her very wealthy. She never returns, though it's thought she lives in Europe.

Dimmesdale: A Puritan minister; had adulterous relationship with Hester. Is Pearl's father. He is plagued by guilt for keeping his role in the affair secret.

- His "common gesture" is his hand over his heart, signifies secret guilt/sin. It is suggested that he has a 'Scarlet A' carved in his chest, self-inflicted.
- Other self-punishments include whipping himself, starving, vigils where he stays awake — he wants redemption like Hester got by public shame.

Chillingworth: Is Hester's husband. Was missing for 2 years. Is angry someone had an affair with his wife. Wants revenge on that man. Suspects Dimmesdale; moves in with him to "search his soul" and torment him. Poses as a "leech" (doctor) as he has certain medical knowledge.

- Wasn't always an evil man. Is much older than Hester.

Symbols

The following is a list of commonly accepted symbols present in The Scarlet Letter. Hawthorne's rich use of symbols in this novel ranges from the obvious, to those not as easily recognized or agreed upon.

1. The Prison: crime and punishment, the black flower of civilized society
2. The Rosebush: passion, some sweet moral blossom, that may be found along the track, or relieve the darkening close of a tale of human frailty and sorrow.
3. The Beadle: Puritan law

Renew! Shawna Coppola,2023-10-10 When was the last time you shook up your writing instruction In Renew Become a Better and More Authentic Writing Teacher author Shawna Coppola builds on the premise that our students are ever changing and so is our collective knowledge base Instructional strategies that have worked in the past may need to evolve accordingly Coppola guides K 8 writing teachers with a three part framework for Rethinking Revising and Renewing their approaches and finding new energy along the way Using the framework Renew examines the most pervasive educational practices in writing instruction and poses questions that guide teachers to revise those practices to ensure they are effective for all students Coppola believes the work is challenging yet critical referencing R Buckminster Fuller s Knowledge Doubling Curve According to Fuller s paradigm the amount of time it takes for us to increase our collective knowledge base by 100 percent will continue to shrink the older we get If this is true or even close to being true show can we as educators ever feel satisfied with teaching our students the same concepts using the same methodologies and practices that we have in the past The book offers a road map for renewing key aspects of our practice including How we teach the writing process Over time and frequent usage some of our favorite teaching strategies can become rigid Coppola gives a candid account of how her enthusiasm for the writing process as an undergraduate led her to teach writing for years as a set of pre determined steps Now she teaches that there are many variations of the writing process and many twists and turns along the path One foundational strategy used is opening up her own process as a writer and her writer s notebooks to students and encouraging them to think and talk about their process with classmates What we mean by Writing Coppola argues that drawing isn t an accompaniment to writing it is writing It s another form of composition through which students can tell stories convey ideas and engage readers The book is full of visual compositions by students as well as Shawna s wonderfully simple and evocative sketches from her writer s notebook The tools we use to teach writing The most ubiquitous tools used to teach writing from anchor charts to graphic organizers to sentence starters etc tend to be teacher centric rather than student centric Renew invites students into the process of constructing tools that are meaningful and helpful to them The book includes a range of examples of tools built collaboratively with students How we assess and evaluate student writing Coppola draws a distinction between assessments which should be an interactive conversation with students and evaluation which is about judging and categorizing what students know and can do Renew offers a range of examples and resources that illustrate effective feedback for student writers including online videos of teacher student and peer to peer conferences Renew also offers ideas for how teachers can nurture their own writing lives and thus reinvigorate their instructional practice Through rethinking revising and renewing their practice teachers can not only strengthen students skills as writers but also nurture students to become critical thinkers problem solvers and risk takers in the classroom and in our rapidly changing world
