I Speak For Myself American Women On Being Muslim Maria M Ebrahimji:

Converting to Islam Amy Melissa Guimond, 2017-06-16 This text aims to discover the shared lived experiences of white American female converts to Islam in post 9 11 America It explores the increasingly hostile social climate faced by Muslim Americans as well as the spiritual social physical and mental integration of these women into the Muslim American population In the United States rates of conversion to Islam are rapidly increasing alongside Islamophobic sentiment and hate crimes against Muslims For a period of time there was a lull in this negative sentiment However in light of the Paris terror attacks the increased prominence of ISIS ISIL and the influx of refugees from Syria anti Muslim rhetoric is once again on the rise This volume analyzes how a singular collection of female converts have adapted to life in the United States in the shadow of 9 11

Young Muslim America Muna Ali, 2018-01-08 Young Muslim America explores the perspectives and identities of the American descendants of immigrant Muslims and converts to Islam Whether their parents were new Muslims or new Americans the younger generations of Muslim Americans grow up bearing a dual heritage and are uniquely positioned to expound the meaning of both In this ethnographic study Muna Ali explores the role of young Muslim Americans within America and the ummah through four dominant narratives that emerge from discussions about and among Muslims Cultural differences purportedly cause an identity crisis among young Muslims torn between seemingly irreconcilable Islamic and Western heritages Additionally culture presumably contaminates a pure Islam and underlies all that divides Muslim America s diverse subgroups Some propose creating an American Muslim culture and identity to overcome these challenges But in this historical moment when Muslims have become America s newest problem people and political wedge some Americans are suspicious of this identity and fear a Muslim cultural takeover and the Islamization of America Situating these discussions in the fields of identity immigration American studies and the anthropology of Islam Ali examines how younger Muslims see themselves their faith community and their society and how that informs their daily life and helps them envision an American future

Muslim Textualities Jean M. Kane, 2022-03-14 In the first decade of the twenty first century

Muslim women writers located in Europe and American entered the cultural mainstream Literary and visual productions negotiated static visual emblems of Islam most prominently the veil They did so not by rejecting veiling practices but by adapting Muslim resources concepts and visual tradition to empowerment narratives in popular media Mainstream reception of their works has often overlooked or misread these negotiations Muslim Textualities argues for more flexible and capacious interpretation with particular attention to visibility as a metaphor for political agency and to knowledge of cultural contexts This provocative volume aims to articulate Muslim female agency through clear and accessible analysis of the theory and concepts driving the interpretation of these works Scholars interested in the working representations of Muslim women feminist subjectivities and the complexities of gender roles patriarchy and feminism will find this volume of particular interest

Muslim Women in America Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad,Jane I. Smith,Kathleen M. Moore,2006-03-02 The treatment and role of women are among the most discussed and controversial aspects of Islam The rights of Muslim women have become part of the Western political agenda often perpetuating a stereotype of universal oppression Muslim women living in America continue to be marginalized and misunderstood since the 9 11 terrorist attacks Yet their contributions are changing the face of Islam as it is seen both within Muslim communities in the West and by non Muslims In their public and private lives Muslim women are actively negotiating what it means to be a woman and a Muslim in an American context Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad Jane I Smith and Kathleen M Moore offer a much needed survey of the situation of Muslim American women focusing on how Muslim views about and experiences of gender are changing in the Western diaspora Centering on Muslims in America the book investigates Muslim attempts to form a new American Islam Such specific issues as dress marriage childrearing conversion and workplace discrimination are addressed The authors also look at the ways in which American Muslim women have tried to create new paradigms of Islamic womanhood and are reinterpreting the traditions apart from the males who control the mosque institutions A final chapter asks whether 9 11 will prove to have been a watershed moment for Muslim women in America This groundbreaking work presents the diversity of Muslim American women and demonstrates the complexity of the issues Impeccably researched and accessible it broadens our understanding of Islam in the West and encourages further exploration into how Muslim women are shaping the future of American Islam Living Islam Out Loud Saleemah Abdul-Ghafur, 2012-04-03 Living Islam Out Loud presents the first generation of American Muslim women who have always identified as both American and Muslim. These pioneers have forged new identities for themselves and for future generations and they speak out about the hijab, relationships, sex, and sexuality, activism, spirituality, and much more. Contributors: Suad Abdul Khabeer, Sham-e-Ali al-Jamil, Samina Ali, Sarah Eltantawi, Yousra Y. Fazili, Suheir Hammad, Mohja Kahf, Precious Rasheeda Muhammad, Asra Q. Nomani, Manal Omar, Khalida Saed, Asia Sharif, Clark Khadijah Sharif, Drinkard Aroosha, Zoq Rana Inas Younis. Shattering the Stereotypes Fawzia Afzal-Khan, 2005 In the wake of September 11th, Muslim women in the West found themselves more marginalized than ever by a panicked discourse that did little to promote a true understanding of Islam or the Islamic world. Here, in this ambitious volume that includes essays, poetry, fiction, memoir, plays, and artwork, Muslim women speak for themselves, revealing a complexity of experience and thought that escapes most Western portrayals. Islam is, as editor Fawzia Afzal Khan puts it, only one spoke in the wheel of our lives. In Shattering the Stereotypes, essays by such writers as Ayesha Jalal, the Pakistani American historian; poems by award-winning poets including Suheir Hammad and Nathalie Handal; and a selection of short fiction and plays that are not just ethnically but attitudinally diverse together make a more rounded portrait of what it is to be a Muslim woman in the 21st century. Counter-narratives of Muslim American Women: Creating Space for MusCrit Noor Ali, 2022-03-21 What does it mean to be a young Muslim American woman in the US educational system? This book answers this question by presenting the counter-narratives of 15 young women. These accounts debunk prevalent stereotypes and biases and reveal an educational climate marked by Islamophobia. Through these overall educational experiences, readers are able to explore the role of family, faith-based education, the mosque, and community in these women's lives. The social and academic learning opportunities showcase instances of both inclusion and marginalization, which lead students to experience a double consciousness. What this study ultimately shows is that these students experience the dichotomous pull of religious and cultural values as they navigate their intersectional identities.
