Relationship Marketing Thorsten Hennig-Thurau, Ursula Hansen, 2013-06-29 The concept of marketing and managing relationships with customers and other interest groups is at the core of marketing today In the academic world the topic is covered in special issues released by numerous journals e g Journal of the Academy of Marketing Science Journal of Strategic Marketing Psychology Marketing and conferences and conference sessions regularly discuss the advantages of the approach But relationship marketing is not limited to theory On the contrary no service firm or business to business company can now do without some form of long term orientation and all have implemented at least some elements of the relationship marketing concept Even in the consumer goods sector there are a growing number of cases where the traditional orientation towards brand equity is being complemented by a relational focus As Berry has mentioned relationship marketing is a new old concept Several important aspects of relationship marketing were already being discussed in the marketing literature This applies both to central constructs such as customer satisfaction and to single elements such as the management of complaints and after sales services Although they do not involve explicit mention of the term relationship VI Preface marketing a long term orientation can be found in the network approach of industrial marketing closely related to the work of the IMP Group in the work of Gronroos Gummesson and their colleagues at the Nordic School of Services Marketing and last but not least in the concept of customer focused marketing JPRS Report ,1993-02 Plunkett's Automobile Industry Almanac 2007 Jack W. Polish Women in the Business World Ewa Maszyk-Musiał, Ewa Lisowska, 1997

The New Strategic Brand Management Jean-Noël Kapferer, 2012-01-03. Adopted internationally by business schools and MBA programmes, this book is the ultimate resource for senior strategists, positioning professionals and postgraduate students to understand and overcome the challenges of brand management and strategy today. Written by the leading international expert of branding, Jean-Noël Kapferer, The New Strategic Brand Management is simply the reference source for branding professionals and postgraduate students. Over the years, it has not only established a reputation as one of the leading works on brand strategy but also has become synonymous with the topic itself. Using an array of international case studies, this book covers all the leading issues faced by brand strategists today, with both gravitas and intelligent insight. It reveals new thinking on topics such as putting culture and content into brands, the impact of private labels and the comeback of local brands. This updated fifth edition builds on the book's already impressive reputation, including new content that will help students and practitioners stay up to date with targeting, with relevant research and market knowledge to support the discipline. With dedicated sections for specific types of brands (luxury, corporate and retail), international examples and case studies from companies such as Audi, Nivea, Toyota and Absolut Vodka, plus models and frameworks such as the Brand Identity Prism, The New Strategic Brand Management remains at the forefront of strategic brand thinking.
