Refugee Pathways to Freedom Janet Mancini Billson,2024-03-18 Janet Mancini Billson provides extended interviews with Russian Bhutanese Rohingya and Kurdish refugees and the resettlement workers who smooth their transition into Canada in order to paint a complex picture of creating a new life in a new land Refugee Pathways to Freedom Escaping Persecution and Statelessness shows how the agonies of losing one's home and leaving loved ones behind are coupled with the dangers of escaping into unknown territory and that those who make the journey to freedom know that the dream of a safe and secure future is fraught with risks and disappointment She argues that refugees and refugee agencies bring powerful ideas for revamping an overwhelmed global system that freezes victims of persecution in years of political and emotional limbo She examines how shrinking refugee flows by addressing root causes of displacement is critical but so is speeding up selection processes to reduce despair and lost years She further posits that drastically limiting time in refugee camps would prevent counterproductive education and work gaps and that reducing language barriers to employment ensures well being and successful integration

Converting the Imagination Patrick R. Manning, 2020-05-15 For two thousand years countless people around the world viewed reality through a Christian lens that endowed their lives with meaning purpose and coherence Today in an era of unprecedented secularization many have ceased to find meaning not only in Christianity but in life in general In Converting the Imagination Patrick Manning offers a probing analysis of this crisis of meaning marshalling historical and psychological research to shed light on the connections among the disintegration of the Christian worldview religious disaffiliation and a growing mental health epidemic As a response Manning presents an approach to religious education that is at once traditionally grounded in the model of Jesus own teaching and augmented by modern educational research and cognitive science Converting the Imagination is an invitation to transform the way we teach about faith and make sense of the world an invitation that echoes Jesus invitation to a fuller more meaningful life It is sure to captivate scholars and practitioners of religious education ministers seeking to reengage people who have drifted away from the faith or to support young people suffering from existential anxiety and anyone in search of deeper meaning in their religious traditions or in their own lives Converting the Imagination was a finalist for the 2021 Lilly Fellows Program Book Award <https://www.lillyfellows.org/grants-and-prizes/book-award>

Youth Sport and Spirituality Patrick Kelly S.J., 2015-08-15 One of the ten best recent Catholic sports books America Magazine Unsportsmanlike behavior by student athletes or parents at youth sporting events happens with regularity these days Much recent research reveals that young people are dropping out of sport at alarming rates due to the often toxic elements in the culture of youth sports The timely innovative essays in Youth Sport and Spirituality present a wide ranging overview that draws on resources from Catholic spiritual and theological traditions to address problems such as these as well as opportunities in youth sport in the United States The book consists of two sections In the first prominent scholars in philosophy psychology theology and spirituality reflect on how youth sport contributes to the integral development of the person and his or her grasp of spiritual values The second half of the book consists of chapters written by coaches athletic directors and specialists working with youth coaches These practitioners share how their approaches to working with youth in sport contribute to the integral development of their players and their openness to transcendent values The essays examine coaching as ministry youth sport and moral development and how parents can act as partners in youth sports among other topics The book will interest coaches athletic directors and youth ministers in Catholic elementary and high schools in parish settings as well as undergraduate and graduate students in education who are preparing to teach in Catholic schools Contributors Patrick Kelly S.J. Choosing Faith John W. Saultz, 2019-05-16 A belief is a judgment that we assume to be true when making life decisions Our beliefs cannot conclusively be proven true or false Beliefs can be as simple as our preference for food or as profound as our religious beliefs How are beliefs different from knowledge or opinion How do beliefs develop and change over time and how do they become the foundation of our purpose in life This book is divided into three sections The first explains how beliefs are formed in childhood and modified and adapted when we become adults The second section explores different types of belief and introduces the notion of moral beliefs about right and wrong and religious beliefs about the existence and nature of God The final section of the book explains how beliefs are prioritized into a faith that becomes our framework for making life decisions The beliefs we hold most dear form the building blocks of our purpose in life We have the freedom to choose our beliefs so we have the freedom to choose our purpose The goal of this book is to help the reader think deeply about this process and explore the meaning of this freedom
