Geographies of Cubanidad Rebecca M. Bodenheimer, 2015-07-10 Derived from the nationalist writings of Jos Mart the concept of Cubanidad Cubanness has always imagined a unified hybrid nation where racial difference is nonexistent and nationality trumps all other axes identities Scholars have critiqued this celebration of racial mixture highlighting a gap between the claim of racial harmony and the realities of inequality faced by Afro Cubans since independence in 1898 In this book Rebecca M Bodenheimer argues that it is not only the recognition of racial difference that threatens to divide the nation but that popular regional sentiment further contests the hegemonic national discourse Given that the music is a prominent symbol of Cubanidad musical practices play an important role in constructing regional local and national identities This book suggests that regional identity exerts a significant influence on the aesthetic choices made by Cuban musicians Through the examination of several genres Bodenheimer explores the various ways that race and place are entangled in contemporary Cuban music She argues that racialized notions which circulate about different cities affect both the formation of local identity and musical performance Thus the musical practices discussed in the book including rumba timba eastern Cuban folklore and son are examples of the intersections between regional identity formation racialized notions of place and music making In the Course of Performance Bruno Nettl, Melinda Russell, 1998-12-15 In the Course of Performance is the first book in decades to illustrate and explain the practices and processes of musical improvisation. Improvisation by its very nature seems to resist interpretation or elucidation. This difficulty may account for the very few attempts scholars have made to provide a general guide to this elusive subject. With contributions by seventeen scholars and improvisers, In the Course of Performance offers a history of research on improvisation and an overview of the different approaches to the topic that can be used ranging from cognitive study to detailed musical analysis. Such diverse genres as Italian lyrical singing, modal jazz, Indian classical music, Javanese gamelan, and African American girls singing games are examined. The most comprehensive guide to the understanding of musical improvisation available. In the Course of Performance will be indispensable to anyone attracted to this fascinating art. Contributors are Stephen Blum, Sau Y Chan, Jody Cormack, Valerie Woodring, Goertzen Lawrence, Gushee Eve, Harwood Tullia, Magrini Peter, Manuel Ingrid, Monson Bruno, Nettl Jeff, Pressing Ali, Jihad Racy, Ronald Riddle, Stephen Slawek, Chris Smith, R Anderson, Sutton and T Viswanathan Popular Musics of the Non-Western World Peter Manuel, 1988 Emphasizing stylistic analysis and historical development, this unique book is the first to examine all major non-Western music styles from reggae and salsa to the popular musics of non-Western Europe, Asia, Africa, and the Middle East. *Mitteilungen aus dem Hamburgischen Zoologischen Museum und Institut. Njoroge, 2016-06-16 In Chocolate Surrealism, Njoroge M. Njoroge highlights connections among the production, performance, and reception of popular music at critical historical junctures in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries. The author sifts different origins and styles to place socio-musical movements into a larger historical framework. Calypso reigned during the turbulent interwar period and the ensuing crises of capitalism. The Cuban rumba son complex enlivened the postwar era of American empire. Jazz exploded in the Bandung period and the rise of decolonization. And lastly, Nuyorican Salsa coincided with the period of the civil rights movement and the beginnings of black brown power. Njoroge illuminates musics of the circum-Caribbean as culturally and conceptually integrated within the larger history of the region. He pays close attention to the fractures, fragmentations, and historical particularities that both unite and divide the region's sounds. At the same time, he engages with a larger discussion of the Atlantic world. Njoroge examines the deep interrelations between music, movement, memory, and history in the African diaspora. He finds the music both a theoretical anchor and a mode of expression and representation of black identities and political cultures. Music and performance offer ways for the author to re theorize the intersections of race nationalism and musical practice and geopolitical connections Further music allows Njoroge a reassessment of the development of the modern world system in the context of local popular responses to the global age The book analyzes different styles times and politics to render a brief history of Black Atlantic sound
