

MALACANAN PALACE
MANILA

My warmest greetings to the Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary Parish, as you hold your 10th Foundation Day Celebration.

The strength of our nation is fortified by the faith of Filipinos. The triumph of your congregation in fulfilling your parish's aspirations attests to this potential in uniting our people. We in government recognize you as among our partners in nation-building as you inspire our citizenry to impart the teachings of the Church, sustain their involvement beyond their community, and take great interest in issues of national importance. May this gathering serve to empower you and your parishioners in our communal pursuit of renewal and lasting reform.

Illuminated by the grace of God, let us carry on the path towards a revitalized Philippines. Guided by the principles of honesty, integrity and solidarity, we can elevate the condition of our fellowmen, enabling them to live with dignity and hope.

H.E. BENIGNO S. AQUINO III
President of the Republic

in Information Control and Automation and another goal is to promote scientific information interchange between researchers developers engineers students and practitioners working all around the world The conference will be held every year to make it an ideal platform for people to share views and experiences in Information Control and Automation and related areas Everyone interested in these fields were welcomed to join the online conference and to give comments and raise questions to the speeches and presentations Eccentric Modernisms Tirza True Latimer,2017 What if we ascribe significance to aesthetic and social divergences rather than waving them aside as anomalous What if we look closely at what does not appear central or appears peripherally or does not appear at all viewing ellipses outliers absences and outtakes as significant Eccentric Modernisms places queer demands on art history tracing the relational networks connecting cosmopolitan eccentrics who cultivated discrepant strains of modernism in America during the 1930s and 1940s Building on the author s earlier studies of Gertrude Stein and other lesbians who participated in transatlantic cultural exchanges between the world wars this book moves in a different direction focusing primarily on the gay men who formed Stein s support network and whose careers in turn she helped to launch including the neo romantic painters Pavel Tchelitchew and writer editor Charles Henri Ford Eccentric Modernisms shows how these eccentric modernists bucked trends by working collectively reveling in disciplinary promiscuity and sustaining creative affiliations across national and cultural boundaries

Restaging the Past Angela Bartie,Linda Fleming,Mark Freeman,Alexander Hutton,Paul Readman,2020-08-17 Restaging the Past is the first edited collection devoted to the study of historical pageants in Britain ranging from their Edwardian origins to the present day Across Britain in the twentieth century people succumbed to pageant fever Thousands dressed up in historical costumes and performed scenes from the history of the places where they lived and hundreds of thousands more watched them These pageants were one of the most significant aspects of popular engagement with the past between the 1900s and the 1970s they took place in large cities small towns and tiny villages and engaged a whole range of different organised groups including Women s Institutes political parties schools churches and youth organisations Pageants were community events bringing large numbers of people together in a shared celebration and performance of the past they also involved many prominent novelists professional historians and other writers as well as featuring repeatedly in popular and highbrow literature Although the pageant tradition has largely died out it deserves to be acknowledged as a key aspect of community history during a period of great social and political change Indeed as this book shows some traces of pageant fever remain in evidence today Military Sea Transportation Service Magazine ,1966 The Wrecking Crew Kent Hartman,2012-02-14 Winner of the Oregon Book Award for General Nonfiction and Los Angeles Times bestseller It makes good music sound better Janet Maslin in The New York Times A fascinating look into the West Coast recording studio scene of the 60s and the inside story of the music you heard on the radio If you always assumed the musicians you listened to were the same people you saw onstage you are in for a big surprise Dusty Street host of Classic Vinyl on Sirius XM Satellite Radio

If you were a fan of popular music in the 1960s and early 70s you were a fan of the Wrecking Crew whether you knew it or not. One hit record after hit record by everyone from the Byrds the Beach Boys and the Monkees to the Grass Roots the 5th Dimension Sonny Cher and Simon Garfunkel this collection of West Coast studio musicians from diverse backgrounds established themselves in Los Angeles California as the driving sound of pop music sometimes over the objection of actual band members forced to make way for Wrecking Crew members. Industry insider Kent Hartman tells the dramatic definitive story of the musicians who forged a reputation throughout the business as the secret weapons behind the top recording stars. Mining invaluable interviews the author follows the careers of such session masters as drummer Hal Blaine and keyboardist Larry Knechtel as well as trailblazing bassist Carol Kaye the only female in the bunch who went on to play in thousands of recording sessions in this rock history. Readers will discover the Wrecking Crew members who would forge careers in their own right including Glen Campbell and Leon Russell and learn of the relationship between the Crew and such legends as Phil Spector and Jimmy Webb. Hartman also takes us inside the studio for the legendary sessions that gave us Pet Sounds Bridge Over Troubled Water and the rock classic Layla which Wrecking Crew drummer Jim Gordon cowrote with Eric Clapton for Derek and the Dominos. And the author recounts priceless scenes such as Mike Nesmith of the Monkees facing off with studio head Don Kirshner Grass Roots lead guitarist and future star of The Office Creed Bratton getting fired from the group and Michel Rubini unseating Frank Sinatra's pianist for the session in which the iconic singer improvised the hit making ending to Strangers in the Night. The Wrecking Crew tells the collective behind the scenes stories of the artists who dominated Top 40 radio during the most exciting time in American popular culture.
