Rosa Mistika Swahili Edition:

Rosa Mistika Euphrase Kezilahabi, 2025-06-17 A controversial Swahili classic by one of Tanzania's most revered writers banned on publication and finally translated into English Teenage Rosa lives with her parents and four younger sisters in a village on Ukerewe Island in Lake Victoria where she attends the local school and helps out on the family farm Life would be relatively peaceful if it weren't for Rosa's father who drinks to oblivion and abuses his wife and daughters Initially relieved to be admitted into a residential school on the mainland Rosa soon discovers that she's ill prepared for life outside her village As she becomes accustomed to the attention and manipulations of men she begins to understand her sexuality as a weapon But this understanding born of the need to survive in a world of double standards comes with a price Rosa Mistika is a radical narrative exploration of womanhood maternal love agency and authority and the first ever Swahili novel to address issues of domestic violence sexual coercion and abortion Through the story of a young woman and her community it poses the enduring question To what degree are we responsible for the choices we make and to what degree are we acted upon by forces outside our control

Globalisation and African Languages Katrin Bromber, Birgit Smieja, 2011-07-20 Globalisation and African Languages links African language studies to the concept of globalisation which increasingly undergoes critical review Hence African linguists of various provenience can make valuable contributions to this debate In cultural matters which by definition include language there is often a sense that globalisation leads to a major trend of homogenisation which results in a reduction of diversity on the one hand and on the other in new themes being incorporated into global cultural patterns However often conflicting and overlapping particularistic interests exist which have a constructive as well as destructive potential This aspect leads directly to the first of three sections of this volume LANGUAGE USE AND ATTITUDES which addresses some of the burning issues in sociolinguistic research Since this research area is tightly linked to the educational domain these important issues are addressed in articles that comprise the second section of this volume LANGUAGE POLICY AND EDUCATION The third section of the volume presents articles dealing with LANGUAGE DESCRIPTION AND CLASSIFICATION demonstrating which parts of different language systems are affected through contact under historical and modern conditions The contributions of all the well known scholars in this volume show that globalisation is a two way street and to ensure that all sides benefit in a reciprocal manner means the impacts have to be monitored globally regionally nationally and locally By disseminating and emphasising these linguistic findings as part of the global cultural heritage African language studies may offer urgently needed new perspectives towards a rapidly changing world
