Senem Deviren,2017-03-02 Contemporary architecture and the culture it reflects dependent as it is on fossil fuels has contributed to the cause and necessity of a burgeoning green process that emerged over the past half century This text is the first to offer a comprehensive critical history and analysis of the greening of architecture through accumulative reduction of negative environmental effects caused by buildings urban designs and settlements Describing the progressive development of green architecture from 1960 to 2010 it illustrates how it is ever evolving and ameliorated through alterations in form technology materials and use and it examines different places worldwide that represent a diversity of cultural and climatic contexts The book is divided into seven chapters with an overview of the environmental issues and the nature of green architecture in response to them followed by an historic perspective of the pioneering evolution of green technology and architectural integration over the past five decades and finally providing the intransigent and culturally pervasive current examples within a wide range of geographic territories The greening of architecture is seen as an evolutionary process that is informed by significant world events climate change environmental theories movements in architecture technological innovations and seminal works in architecture and planning throughout each decade over the past fifty years This time period is bounded on one end by the awareness of environmental problems beginning in the 1960 s the influential texts by Rachel Carson E F Schumacher Buckminster Fuller and Steward Brand and the impact of the OPEC Oil Embargo of 1973 and on the other end the pervasiveness of the necessary greening of architecture that includes systemic reforms in architectural and urban design land use planning transportation agriculture and energy production found in the 2000 s The greening process moves from remediation to holistic models of architecture Geographical landscapes give a global account of the greening process where some examples are parallel and sympathetic and others are in clear contrast to one another with very individuated approaches Certain events like the Rio Summit in 1992 and Kyoto Protocol in 1997 and themes such as the Hannover Principles in 2000 provide a dynamic ideological critique as well as a formal and technical discussion of the embodied and accumulative content of greening principles in architecture Way of the Earth T.c.

Mcluhan,1995-07 This book draws upon both ancient and contemporary sources to examine the significance of the earth from the perspective of six different cultures and how these spiritual traditions have valued perceived and understood the earth At first glance the peoples of aboriginal Australia Japan Greece Africa South America and Native North America couldn t be more different But by taking a closer look the author shows that there are many more similarities than differences all revere mountains as a source of inspiration and holiness all feel a spiritual connection to the soil itself all create art and literature to celebrate their connection to the land and all see themselves as inextricable from the land they call home This unique volume explores how human beings across the planet and across time have felt about the earth and nature and how they have understood it related to it and celebrated it in their literature mythology religion and art It demonstrates that no matter where on the planet we exist and no matter what time period we live we all have a profound connection to the earth from Book Jacket Starwalkers and the Dimension of the Blessed William Henry,2011-08-06 Behind all myths there is one message a timeless truth that mystic traditions point to our Earthly lives are a preparation for life as Starwalkers advanced interdimensional beings who travel the Dimension of the Blessed In this comprehensive study the first ever of its kind William Henry reconstructs the ancient beliefs in this Dimension from clues from Egypt to Sumeria to Greece to America When pieced together these myths create an adventure to a realm of incredible possibility A few of the enigmas this book explores are The Egyptian belief that interdimensional beings of light created humanity The meaning behind the reed the key term constantly repeated over thousands of years in these global myths How Moses parting of the Sea of Reeds while leading the Israelites to Canaan the Place of Reeds is an allegory for the opening of a gate to another realm The secret meaning behind Jesus performing his first miracle at Cana which means reed and the tearing open of the heavens at his baptism and crucifixion How the human body is capable of producing a spiritual substance that is made of space time and through which one can see other times and places How the study of other dimensions can affect our biology and will change our lives in the near future Chapters include A Cosmic Species The Dimension of the Blessed The Field Up Out of Egypt The Blessed Falcons The Divine Spark of the Blessed Atlantis The Blessed Land The Sea at the End of the World Manna and the Blessed Realm Blessed Sirius Gilgamesh Tearing Open the Dimension of the Blessed Judas and the Dimension of the Blessed more

Elemental Architecture Phillip James Tabb,2018-10-31 Elemental Architecture presents a new and refreshing approach to sustainable architectural practice Going beyond the standard performance based and quantitative sustainable measures it incorporates a broader framework of considerations including the more poetic and noetic possibilities of environmental design The book is structured around the ancient Greek and medieval alchemists system of the Five Temperaments fire earth air water and ether Phillip James Tabb examines how these elements produce both positive and negative environmental forces which have an impact on architectural design from drinking water and fresh air to torrential floods and tornados He shows how responding to or enhancing these forces can help us to create a more sustainable healthy and purposeful architecture To illustrate this each chapter draws on seminal contemporary works of architecture from Peter Zumthor s Bruder Klaus Field Chapel to Frank Lloyd Wright s masterpiece at Fallingwater These examples are accompanied by over a hundred high quality illustrations Expanding the discussion of sustainability to include phenomenological as well as qualitative considerations Elemental Architecture is ideal for students and researchers with an interest in sustainable architecture and architectural theory

The Golden Thread Joscelyn Godwin,2014-04-01 The Golden Thread traces the interconnectedness of esoteric wisdom in the Western world from classical antiquity to contemporary Europe and America Joscelyn Godwin lends personal perspective to an arrangement of text that is historical and wisdom that is timeless creating a source of inspiration that calls us to action in our everyday spiritual practice Every chapter therefore makes reference to some aspect of contemporary life and issues of immediate concern Elegantly written and not without irony and humor readers will appreciate the non threatening tone of Godwin s writing which is not meant to preach or convert but rather inform the public on an often baffling field Educated readers who are curious about the esoteric and mystery traditions and interested in finding surprising new approaches to subjects that veer away from the trends of current thought will be particularly drawn to this book

The Quest Lyman C.D. Kulathungam,2012-04-25 The human spirit seems incapable of being stagnant ever pushing the boundaries of knowledge and experience We try to understand life through questions regarding our own existence the nature of the universe and the nature of God The question of our collective heart is the external manifestation of an internal longing a quest if you will This thirst to understand reality can be seen in superstructures that are scientific social political and especially religious When considering the doctrines institutions and rituals of religions we observe certain core aspirations expressed by the people of these communities These aspirations generate from an underlying quest which seeks a way out of our perceived predicament a salvific quest Regardless of whether we view ourselves as religious pre religious post religious or non religious we find ourselves involved in such a quest it seems to be an integral part of our human personhood Using a unique framework of analysis this book explores Christ s relevance to the quest expressed by the communities of eight major living religions a relevance that neither degrades Christ nor demeans other saviors Christ is not part of the human quest but is well equipped to satisfy that quest
