Silence and Concealment in Political Discourse Melani Schröter,2013-05-08 This book constitutes a significant contribution to political discourse analysis and to the study of silence both from the point of view of discourse analysis as well as pragmatics and it is also relevant for those interested in politics and media studies It promotes the empirical study of silence by analysing metadiscourse about politicians silence and by systematically conceptualising the communicativeness of silence in the interplay between intention to be silent expectation of speech and relevance of the unsaid Three cases of sustained metadiscourse about silent politicians from Germany are analysed to exemplify this approach based on media texts and protocols of parliamentary inquiries Ideals of political transparency and communicative openness are identified as a basis for disappointed expectations of speech which trigger and determine metadiscourse about politicians silences Finally the book deals critically with the role of those who act as advocates of the public's demand to speak out

Mediatization and Sociolinguistic Change Jannis

Androuloupoulos,2014-09-04 This is the first volume to focus on the role of media in processes of linguistic change one of the most contested issues in contemporary sociolinguistics. Its 17 chapters and five section commentaries present cutting edge research from variationist and interactional sociolinguistics media linguistics language ideology research and minority language studies. The volume advances our understanding of linguistic change in a mediatized world in three ways. First it introduces the notions of sociolinguistic change and mediatization to create a broader theoretical framing than the one offered by the media and language change. Second it takes the discussion beyond the notions of influence and effect and the binary distinction of media vs community language. Third it examines the relation of sociolinguistic change and mediatization and from five complementary viewpoints media influence on linguistic structure media engagement in interaction change in mass and new media language language ideological change and the role of media for minority languages. Bringing these strands of sociolinguistic scholarship together this volume examines their shared references and common lines of thinking.
