Handbook on Microfinance and Innovative Case Studies Medha Dubhashi, 2022-02-16 It is a long standing notion of the banking sector that the poor are not credit worthy and hence not bankable on the other hand the self help group bank linkage program is the largest microfinance program in the world The Grameen bank has illustrated the way to lend to the poor It has shown that lending to the SHGs is a viable proposition The book is an easy to read handbook useful for students academicians and practitioners It has illustration of innovative cases which adds to the pedagogy of case study in teaching

Developing bankable business plans Boscolo, M., Lehtonen, P., Pra, A., 2021-04-28 This guide was developed to improve the capacity of small producers their organizations and small and medium sized enterprises to access private investment and finance for sustainable forest based businesses It offers a framework to think through organize and develop a convincing investment proposal The guide introduces ten key elements presented as modules which should be included in any bankable business plan Templates tips and advice also provide users with a structured way to think through and substantiate information related to each of these elements The goal is to increase the business attractiveness to funding sources and thus facilitate access to finance The guide is especially aimed at those producer organizations and companies that seek to scale up operations and need the know how to do it themselves

Jobs for Shared Prosperity Roberta Gatti, Matteo Morgandi, Rebekka Grun, Stefanie Brodmann, Juan Manuel Moreno, Daniela Marotta, Marc Schiffbauer, Elizabeth Mata Lorenzo, 2013-04-25 In the aftermath of the Arab Spring when thousands of young women and men fought for the opportunity to realize their aspirations and potential the question of jobs continues to be crucial in the Middle East and North Africa region This report uses jobs as a lens to weave together the complex dynamics of employment creation skills supply and the institutional environment of labor markets Consistent with the framework of the 2013 World Development Report on jobs of which this report is the regional companion this work goes beyond the traditional links between jobs productivity and living standards to include an understanding of how jobs matter for individual dignity and expectations an aspect that was clearly central to the Arab Spring Just as important this report complements the economic perspective with an analysis of political economy equilibrium with a view to identifying mechanisms that would trigger a reform process As such the report has three objectives First it seeks to provide an in depth characterization of the dynamics of labor markets in the Middle East and North Africa and to analyze the barriers to the creation of more and better jobs It does so by taking a cross sectoral approach and identifying the distortions and incentives that the many actors firms governments workers students education and training systems currently face and which ultimately determine the equilibrium in labor markets Second the report proposes a medium term roadmap of policy options that could promote the robust and inclusive growth needed to tackle the structural employment challenge for the region Third the report aims to inform and open up a platform for debate on jobs among a broad set of stakeholders with the ultimate goal of contributing to reach a shared view of the employment challenges and the reform path ahead

Entrepreneurship Education and Training Programs around the World

Alexandria Valerio,Brent Parton,Alicia Robb,2014-05-06 Entrepreneurship has attracted global interest for its potential to catalyze economic and social development Research suggesting that certain entrepreneurial mindsets and skills can be learned has given rise to the field of entrepreneurship education and training EET Despite the growth of EET global knowledge about these programs and their impact remains thin In response this study surveys the available literature and program evaluations to propose a Conceptual Framework for understanding the EET program landscape The study finds that EET today consists of a heterogeneous mix of programs that can be broken into two groups entrepreneurship education and entrepreneurship training These programs target a range of participants secondary and post secondary education students as well as potential and practicing entrepreneurs The outcomes measured by program evaluations are equally diverse but generally fall under the domains of entrepreneurial mindsets and capabilities entrepreneurial status and entrepreneurial performance The dimensions of EET programs vary according the particular target group Programs targeting secondary education students focus on the development of foundational skills linked to entrepreneurship while post secondary education programs emphasize skills related to strategic business planning Programs targeting potential entrepreneurs generally are embedded within broader support programs and tend to target vulnerable populations for whom employment alternatives may be limited While programs serving practicing entrepreneurs focus on strengthening entrepreneurs knowledge skills and business practices which while unlikely to transform an enterprise in the near term may accrue benefits to entrepreneurs over time The study also offers implications for policy and program implementation emphasizing the importance of clarity about target groups and desired outcomes when making program choices and sound understanding of extent to which publicly supported programs offer a broader public good and compare favorably to policy alternatives for supporting the targeted individuals as well as the overall economic and social objectives

Replicating Microfinance in the United States James H. Carr,Zhong Yi Tong,2002-06-28 Microfinance was pioneered in the developing world as the lending of small amounts of money to entrepreneurs who lacked the kinds of credentials and collateral demanded by banks. Similar practices spread from the developing to the developed world reversing the usual direction of innovation and today several hundred microfinance institutions are operating in the United States. Replicating Microfinance in the United States reviews experiences in both developing and industrialized countries and extends the applications of microlending beyond enterprise to consumer finance, housing finance and community development finance, concentrating especially on previously underserved households and their communities. Handbook of Research on Business Model Innovation Through Disruption and Digitalization Rasmussen, Erik Stavnsager, Petersen, Nicolaj Hannesbo, 2023-02-27. Digital technologies are changing both the national and global business landscapes. Digitalization within firms and industries and newcomers from other fields give new conditions for competition through new business models. The Handbook of Research on Business Model Innovation Through Disruption and Digitalization discusses the aspects of the innovation of business models through disruption and digitalization. It further includes chapters on theories and practices related to the overall theme of how business models are developed. Covering topics such as agile networks, interactive business models and managerial implications, this major reference work is a dynamic resource for business leaders and executives, IT managers, human resource managers, entrepreneurs, government officials, students and faculty of higher education, librarians, researchers and academicians.

Ngo Strategies by Christians to Change the World Warner Woodworth Ph.D., 2023-05-11. Want to change the world? This book shares stories and practical ways that as Christians we can help to reduce human suffering in many developing nations. It admonishes all of us as children of God to reduce the suffering of others, empower the poor and take innovative actions to improve society by applying our faith and brains as well as financial resources. God anointed his Son with the Holy Spirit and power and Jesus went around doing good. Acts 10:38 and we should follow his example. He didn't merely suggest that we serve the world's have-nots; He commanded us to do so. Utilizing the best and most impactful solutions that exist in this book, I draw on the labors of love carried out by many U.S. Christians to offer the world's poor not merely a handout but an empowering hand up. The book inspires readers with amazing stories of washing the feet of lepers in India, aiding earthquake victims in Haiti, using microloans to help the Native American poor as Jesus would do, and laboring to assist survivors in rebuilding after the horrific Asian tsunami crisis, plus much more.

Women Entrepreneurs In The Middle East: Context, Ecosystems, And Future Perspectives For The Region Dina Modestus Nziku, Leo-paul Dana, Helene Balslev Clausen, Aidin Salamzadeh, 2024-04-29. Straddling North Africa and Western Asia, the Middle East has been a cradle of civilisation and entrepreneurship well before the arrival of Islam. In this region, gender roles were traditionally specified by culture, with women often expected to stay within the family environment while men would trade in society at large. This book contributes to the literature on a highly neglected field of study: women entrepreneurs in the Middle East. Recognising that entrepreneurship does not take place in a vacuum, it focuses on contexts and the ecosystems of this region, with largely

patriarchal societies that are influenced by culture religion and colonial experience This book provides readers with a topical analysis of women entrepreneurs in the Middle East on the context ecosystems and future perspectives for the region Authors have presented the reality of 11 countries from the region based on women entrepreneurs historical backgrounds challenges and achievements as well as the contribution towards economic development in their local immediate communities and the Middle East at large Following the country analysis by the authors of each chapter the editors provide a general assessment of the future of women entrepreneurs in the region by focusing on the current entrepreneurship policy and strategies of various countries in the region This volume will be an essential reading for anyone researching or working on projects related to women s entrepreneurship and small businesses in the Middle East Multidimensional Approach to Local Development and Poverty: Causes, Consequences, and Challenges Post COVID-19 Carvalho, João Conrado de Amorim,Bustelo, Francisco Espasandín,Sabino, Emmanuel M. C. B.,2021-12-17 The phenomenon of poverty despite being aggravated by the COVID 19 pandemic is recurrent and very harmful in peripheral countries There seems to be no single solution as each country faces its specificities requiring an immersion into its causes and consequences Multidimensional Approach to Local Development and Poverty Causes Consequences and Challenges Post COVID 19 discusses the results of research conducted on the multivariate causes of hunger and poverty and how the pandemic has aggravated this problem as well as the local development initiatives that have been implemented to mitigate the problem Covering a range of topics such as sustainable development and public policy this book is ideal for policymakers government officials practitioners researchers academicians instructors and students FDIC Quarterly ,2011 Informal and Formal Social Protection Systems in Sub-Saharan Africa Melese Getu,Stephen Devereux,2013 Addressing several themes in the social protection literature this book makes an original and important contribution to the rapidly growing body of literature on social protection in sub Saharan Africa Some of the themes are relatively neglected or under researched while some others are not usually conceptualised as social protection These themes are organized around the major issues informal social protection urban social protection social protection and physical security social protection in unstable contexts climate change pastoralism and gender Back cover The Routledge Companion to Entrepreneurship Ted Baker,Friederike Welter,2014-09-15 Research in entrepreneurship has been booming with perspectives from a range of disciplines and numerous developing schools of thought It can be difficult for young scholars and even long time researchers to find their way through the lush garden of ideas we see before us The purpose of this book is to map the research terrain of entrepreneurship providing the perfect starting point for new and existing researchers looking to explore Topics covered range from emerging perspective through issues at the core of the field to innovative methodologies Starting off with a preface by Bill Gartner each section of the book brings together a world class set of established leading researchers and rising stars This considered comprehensive and conclusive companion integrates the recent debates in entrepreneurship research under one cover to provide a resource which will be useful across disciplinary boundaries and for a whole range of students and researchers      Support for Growth-oriented, Women Entrepreneurs in Ethiopia, Kenya, and Tanzania Lois Stevenson, Annette St-Onge, 2005 Covers the background information to the ILO African Development Bank country level studies on the subject and presents the findings and recommendations resulting from the application of the analytical integrated framework in the three countries      Adding Value to Private Sector Investment Paul McClure, 2004 IFC shares the primary objective of all World Bank Group institutions to reduce poverty and improve the lives of people in its developing member countries Since 1956 IFC has committed more than      Aid that Works James Manor, 2007 Research in recent years on aid effectiveness shows that significant obstacles in fragile states insecurity poor governance and weak implementation capacity usually prevent aid from achieving the desired results in these environments This study investigates the attributes and effectiveness of donor supported programmes and projects that worked well under difficult conditions in fragile states Presented in this study are nine development initiatives in six less developed countries Afghanistan Cambodia Mozambique Sierra Leone Timor Leste and Uganda The cases show that development initiatives which engage local communities and local level governments are often able to have significant impact However for more substantial improvements to take place localized gains need to be scaled up either horizontally other localities or vertically to higher levels Given the advantages of working at the local level and the difficulty of working through mainstream bureaucratic agencies at higher levels in these countries donors often prefer to create parallel agencies to reach out to larger numbers of beneficiaries However this may in the long run weaken the legitimacy of mainstream government institutions and donor agencies may therefore choose to work as closely as possible with government officials from the beginning to build trust and demonstrating that new initiatives are non threatening and help prepare the eventual mainstreaming of parallel agencies

Microcredit Meltdown Crystal Murphy, 2018-12-03 Established to help people jumpstart their lives and economy after over a half century of conflict the South Sudanese microcredit sector collapsed in 2012 six years after its takeoff to the detriment of some 80 000 participants Microcredit Meltdown is an account of the ambitious launch and premature downfall of the Southern Sudanese microcredit industry Through a mixed methods ethnographic approach the book charts the state and non state actors that embarked upon economic development after war the assumptions built into microlending and the impact of ideologies and social norms on economic practice The text compares industry theories with the experiences of borrowers and finds that microcredit failed in South Sudan due to false assumptions that were inapplicable to this post conflict environment Yet the over promising and under delivering commercial microcredit was not isolated to South Sudan or even post conflict settings The Juba microcredit story is an instance of the broader global shift toward the commercial microcredit model Initiated to get badly needed capital into the hands of poor people instead the focus became sustaining a lending program The text shows how the ideological and material constraints of the commercial microcredit paradigm were woefully misaligned with local socio cultural realities and created the collapse in South Sudan
