Glocalized Solutions for Sustainability in Manufacturing Jürgen Hesselbach, Christoph Herrmann, 2011-03-19 The 18th CIRP International Conference on Life Cycle Engineering LCE 2011 continues a long tradition of scientific meetings focusing on the exchange of industrial and academic knowledge and experiences in life cycle assessment product development sustainable manufacturing and end of life management The theme Glocalized Solutions for Sustainability in Manufacturing addresses the need for engineers to develop solutions which have the potential to address global challenges by providing products services and processes taking into account local capabilities and constraints to achieve an economically socially and environmentally sustainable society in a global perspective Glocalized Solutions for Sustainability in Manufacturing do not only involve products or services that are changed for a local market by simple substitution or the omitting of functions Products and services need to be addressed that ensure a high standard of living everywhere Resources required for manufacturing and use of such products are limited and not evenly distributed in the world Locally available resources local capabilities as well as local constraints have to be drivers for product and process innovations with respect to the entire life cycle The 18th CIRP International Conference on Life Cycle Engineering LCE 2011 serves as a platform for the discussion of the resulting challenges and the collaborative development of new scientific ideas Model Dynamics Life

Vincenot,Stefano Mazzoleni,Lael Parrott,2017-01-11 Systems studied in environmental science due to their structure and the heterogeneity of the entities composing them often exhibit complex dynamics that can only be captured by hybrid modeling approaches While several concurrent definitions of hybrid modeling can be found in the literature it is defined here broadly as the approach consisting in coupling existing modelling paradigms to achieve a more accurate or efficient representation of systems The need for hybrid models generally arises from the necessity to overcome the limitation of a single modeling technique in terms of structural flexibility capabilities or computational efficiency This book brings together experts in the field of hybrid modelling to demonstrate how this approach can address the challenge of representing the complexity of natural systems Chapters cover applied examples as well as modeling methodology Biological Control Systems and Disease Modelling Babatunde Ogunnaike,David Bogle,Robert Parker,Julio R.
