Authorizing Translation Michelle Woods, 2016-10-04 Authorizing Translation applies ground breaking research on literary translation to examine the intersection between Translation Studies and literary criticism rethinking ways in which analyzing translation and the authority of the translator can provide nuanced micro and macro readings of literary work and the worlds through which it moves A substantial introduction surveys the field and suggests possible avenues for future research while six case study based chapters by a new generation of Literature and Translation Studies scholars focus on the question of authority by asking Who authors translations Who authorizes translations What authority do translations have in different cultural contexts What authority does Literary Translation Studies have as a field The hermeneutic role of the translator is explored through the literary periods of Romanticism Modernism and Postmodernism and through different cultures and languages The case studies focus on data centered analysis of reviews of translated literature ultimately illustrating how the translator's authority creates and hybridizes literary cultures Authorizing Translation will be of interest to students and researchers of Literary Translation and Translation Studies Additional resources for Translation and Interpreting Studies are available on the Routledge Translation Studies Portal <http://www.routledge.com/textbooks/translationstudies>

Author Fictions

Ingo Berensmeyer, 2023-10-04 Fictional novelists and other author characters have been a staple of novels and stories from the early nineteenth century onwards What is it that attracts authors to representing their own kind in fiction Author Fictions addresses this question from a theoretical and historical perspective Narrative representations of literary authorship not only reflect the aesthetic convictions and social conditions of their actual authors or their time they also take an active part in negotiating and shaping these conditions The book unfolds the history of such author fictions in European and North American texts since the early nineteenth century as a literary history of literary authorship ranging from the Victorian bildungsroman to contemporary autofiction It combines rhetorical and sociological approaches to answer the question how literature makes authors Identifying author fictions as narratives that address the fragile material conditions of literary creation in the actual and symbolic economies of production Ingo Berensmeyer explores how these texts elaborate and manipulate concepts and models of authorship This book will be relevant to English American and comparative literary studies and to anyone interested in the topic of literary authorship
