Following their arrival back at the barracks, approximately 200,000 soldiers were sent to the rear areas for a full-scale training exercise. While a small unit was being trained in ground tactics, several hundred soldiers were being trained in amphibious assault tactics. These soldiers were trained to operate in the water and on the beach. They were trained to land on the beach and establish a beachhead. They were trained to move inland and establish a permanent base.

It really has taken your time, which has the school community very, very appreciative, because it's helped keep parents in sight of what the school board and the district's vision and mission statement are, and that's a really important thing to have.
