Neopatriarchy Hisham Sharabi, 1992-10-29 Focusing on the region of the Arab world comprising some two hundred million people and twenty one sovereign states extending from the Atlantic to the Persian Gulf this book develops a theory of social change that demystifies the setbacks this region has experienced on the road to transformation Professor Sharabi pinpoints economic political social and cultural changes in the last century that led the Arab world as well as other developing countries not to modernity but to neopatriarchy a modernized form of patriarchy He shows how authentic change was blocked and distorted forms and practices subsequently came to dominate all aspects of social existence and activity among them militant religious fundamentalism an ideology symptomatic of neopatriarchal culture Presenting itself as the only valid option Muslim fundamentalism now confronts the elements calling for secularism and democracy in a bitter battle whose outcome is likely to determine the future of the Arab world as well as that of other Muslim societies in Africa and Asia

Tessler     The Mobilization of Political Islam in Turkey Banu Eligür, 2010-04-12 The Mobilization of Political Islam in Turkey explains why political Islam which has been part of Turkish politics since the 1970s but on the rise only since the 1990s has now achieved governing power Drawing on social movement theory the book focuses on the dominant form of Islamist activism in Turkey by analyzing the increasing electoral strength of four successive Islamist political parties the Welfare Party its successor the Virtue Party and the successors of the Virtue Party the Felicity Party and the Justice and Development Party This book which is based on extensive primary and secondary sources as well as in depth interviews provides the most comprehensive analysis currently available of the Islamist political mobilization in Turkey     The Dilemma of Development in the Arabian Peninsula Osama Abdul Rahman, 2023-07-07 This book first published in 1987 and by one of Saudi Arabia's most distinguished academics reviews the experience of the Arab oil producers in social economic and political development in the key period of the Seventies and Eighties It is broadly pessimistic about the prospects for future development and sceptical about past achievements It argues that the petro bureaucracy in the Arabian Peninsula has failed to establish the basic principles of effective development because it has been mesmerised by the vast oil revenues it has attempted to administer The book suggests that in many respects the oil revenues have obstructed serious development because they have made the Arabian economies totally dependent on one expendable resource and this has made them too vulnerable to external pressures and interests Furthermore the oil revenues have encouraged fantasy and wishful thinking which have skewed the development process and stimulated pseudo development The book makes clear that until the petro bureaucracy adopts a realistic approach to development there can be no prospect of real development in the Arabian Peninsula     The Arab World Halim Barakat, 1993-10-14 This wide ranging examination of Arab society and culture offers a unique opportunity to know the Arab world from an Arab point of view Halim Barakat an expatriate Syrian who is both scholar and novelist emphasizes the dynamic changes and diverse patterns that have characterized the Middle East since the mid nineteenth century The Arab world is not one shaped by Islam nor one simply explained by reference to the sectarian conflicts of a mosaic society Instead Barakat reveals a society that is highly complex with many and various contending polarities It is a society in a state of becoming and change one whose social contradictions are at the root of the struggle to transcend dehumanizing conditions Arguing from a perspective that is both radical and critical Barakat is committed to the improvement of human conditions in the Arab world     Political Modernization in the Gulf Shahid Jamal Ansari, 1998 The entire Gulf is passing through a transitional phase The member states of the Gulf Cooperation Council GCC are witnessing change in varying degrees The change has become too evident from the 1960s It was oil more than any other factor which was responsible for a rapid transition Control over oil production and marketing have led to the strengthening of governmental role as owner and distributor of oil income The regions tribal society is being transformed into a modern society Political modernization is a recent phenomenon if the nature and extent of structural and informal transformations are taken into account Three broadly defined phases of political change can be discerned in the Arabian Peninsula the traditional the neo traditional and the modernizing or post traditional The modernizing phase was initiated by radical policies of socio economic development including the necessary restructuring of replacement of regimes and a redefinition or expansion of the scope and role of the state However the pace and direction of change is not clear enough The coming few decades are crucial in this regard The Next Arab Decade Hisham Sharabi,2019-07-11 This book is concerned with defining the nature of the crisis of the Arab world with tracing its possible development and with charting the conditions of its possible outcomes addressing the next decade from the vantage of 1986 rather than that of 1985 Egypt Islam And Democracy:Critical Essays Saad Eddin Ibrahim,2002 These essays by one of Egypt s most influential intellectuals provide a fascinating perspective on the political religious economic and social issues of contemporary Egypt Written over a period of fifteen years the essays cover a range of topics including civil society and the prospects for democratization in Egypt and the region the urban sociology of Cairo the development of Egypt s landed bourgeoisie structural adjustment and the processes of economic liberalization and the complexities of ethnic conflicts and minorities in the Arab world A number of essays address different aspects of Islamic activism in Egypt the formation membership and activities of activist groups and their philosophies political and social roles and ideological relations with the West Written at various points in the modern history of Islamic activism democratic reform and economic and social liberalization these essays reflect the processes of change and continuity in the sociopolitical development of present day Egypt while a new postscript written by the author in 2001 brings the story into perspective at the beginning of the twenty first century Islam, Authoritarianism, and Underdevelopment Ahmet T. Kuru,2019-08-01 Why do Muslim majority countries exhibit high levels of authoritarianism and low levels of socio economic development in comparison to world averages Ahmet T Kuru criticizes explanations which point to Islam as the cause of this disparity because Muslims were philosophically and socio economically more developed than Western Europeans between the ninth and twelfth centuries Nor was Western colonialism the cause Muslims had already suffered political and socio economic problems when colonization began Kuru argues that Muslims had influential thinkers and merchants in their early history when religious orthodoxy and military rule were prevalent in Europe However in the eleventh century an alliance between orthodox Islamic scholars the ulema and military states began to emerge This alliance gradually hindered intellectual and economic creativity by marginalizing intellectual and bourgeois classes in the Muslim world This important study links its historical explanation to contemporary politics by showing that to this day ulema state alliance still prevents creativity and competition in Muslim countries The Politics of Migration in Modern Egypt Gerasimos Tsourapas,2019 Examines how authoritarian regimes employ labour emigration in order to remain in power both in Egypt and beyond Over-stating the Arab State Nazih N. Ayubi,1996-12-31 The author s objective within this book is to place the Arab world within a theoretical and comparative framework that avoids both orientalist and fundamentalist insistence on the utter peculiarity and uniqueness of the region The book focuses in detail on eight Arab countries Orient,1986 Handbook of Comparative and Development Public Administration Ali Farazmand,2019-02-21 With contributions from nearly 80 international experts this comprehensive resource covers diverse issues aspects and features of public administration and policy around the world It focuses on bureaucracy and bureaucratic politics in developing and industrialized countries and emphasizing administrative performance and policy implementation as well as political system maintenance and regime enhancement The book covers the history of public administration and bureaucracy in Persia Greece Rome and Byzantium and among the Aztecs Incas and Mayas public administration in small island states Eastern Europe and ethics and other contemporary issues in public administration
