Book Darren Wershler, Lori Emerson, Jussi Parikka, 2022-03-22 An important new approach to the study of laboratories presenting a practical method for understanding labs in all walks of life From the Big Science of Bell Laboratories to the esoteric world of science chambers to university media labs to neighborhood makerspaces places we call labs are everywhere but how exactly do we account for the wide variety of ways that they produce knowledge More than imitations of science and engineering labs many contemporary labs are hybrid forms that require a new methodological and theoretical toolkit to describe The Lab Book investigates these vital creative spaces presenting readers with the concept of the hybrid lab and offering an extended and rare critical investigation of how labs have proliferated throughout culture Organized by interpretive categories such as space infrastructure and imaginaries The Lab Book uses both historical and contemporary examples to show how laboratories have become fundamentally connected to changes in the contemporary university Its wide reach includes institutions like the MIT Media Lab the Tuskegee Institute's Jesup Wagon ACTLab and the Media Archaeological Fundus The authors cover topics such as the evolution and delineation of lab based communities how labs tools and technologies contribute to defining their space and a glossary of key hybrid lab techniques Providing rich historical breadth and depth The Lab Book brings into focus a critical but often misunderstood aspect of the contemporary arts and humanities

The Architecture of Neoliberalism Douglas Spencer, 2016-10-20 The Architecture of Neoliberalism pursues an uncompromising critique of the neoliberal turn in contemporary architecture This book reveals how a self styled parametric and post critical architecture serves mechanisms of control and compliance while promoting itself at the same time as progressive Spencer's incisive analysis of the architecture and writings of figures such as Zaha Hadid Patrik Schumacher Rem Koolhaas and Greg Lynn shows them to be in thrall to the same notions of liberty as are propounded in neoliberal thought Analysing architectural projects in the fields of education consumption and labour The Architecture of Neoliberalism examines the part played by contemporary architecture in refashioning human subjects into the compliant figures student entrepreneurs citizen consumers and team workers requisite to the universal implementation of a form of existence devoted to market imperatives

Critique of Architecture Douglas Spencer, 2021-01-18 Critique of Architecture offers a renewed and radical theorization of the relations between capital and architecture It explicates the theoretical gymnastics through which architecture legitimates its services to neoliberalism examines the discipline's production of platforms for happily compliant consumers and challenges its entrepreneurial self image Critique of Architecture also addresses the discourse of autonomy questioning its capacity to engage effectively with the terms and conditions of capitalism today analyses the post political turns of contemporary architecture theory and reckons with the legacies and limitations of critical theory
