Guided Reader to Early Years and Primary English Margaret Mallett, 2015-10-23 A Guided Reader to Early Years and Primary English draws on extracts from the published work of some of the most influential education writers to provide insight guidance and clarity about key issues affecting early years practitioners and primary English teachers The book brings together key extracts from classic and contemporary writing and contextualises these in both theoretical and practical terms The extracts are accompanied by a summary of the key ideas and issues raised questions to promote discussion and reflective practice and annotated further reading lists to extend thinking Taking a thematic approach and including a short introduction to each theme the chapters cover Models of and approaches to early years and primary English Speaking and listening in English lessons story telling drama booktalk and debate Reading and responding to texts in English lessons Writing in English lessons finding a voice Knowledge about language grammar spelling punctuation and handwriting The rich landscape of children s literature Non fiction in English lessons Planning assessing and recording children s progress the learning cycle Aimed at trainee and newly qualified teachers those working towards Masters level qualifications and all those involved in the teaching of early years and primary English this accessible but critically provocative text will be an essential resource for those that wish to deepen their understanding of early years and primary English education The Crossover Novel Rachel Falconer, 2008-10-21 Highly recommended by Choice While crossover books such as Rowling s Harry Potter series have enjoyed enormous sales and media attention critical analysis of crossover fiction has not kept pace with the growing popularity of this new category of writing and reading Falconer remedies this lack with close readings of six major British works of crossover fiction and a wide ranging analysis of the social and cultural implications of the global crossover phenomenon A uniquely in depth study of the crossover novel Falconer engages with a ground breaking range of sources from primary texts to child and adult reader responses to cultural and critical theory Bowker's Guide to Characters in Fiction , 2003 Race in Young Adult Speculative Fiction Meghan Gilbert-Hickey, Miranda A. Green-Barteet, 2021-04-22 Winner of the Children s Literature Association s 2023 Edited Book Award Contributions by Malin Alkestrand Joshua Yu Burnett Sean P Connors Jill Coste Meghan Gilbert Hickey Miranda A Green Barteet Sierra Hale Kathryn Strong Hansen Elizabeth Ho Esther L Jones Sarah Olutola Alex Polish Zara Rix Susan Tan and Roberta Seelinger Trites Race in Young Adult Speculative Fiction offers a sustained analysis of race and representation in young adult speculative fiction YASF The collection considers how characters of color are represented in YASF how they contribute to and participate in speculative worlds how race affects or influences the structures of speculative worlds and how race and racial ideologies are implicated in YASF This collection also examines how race and racism are discussed in YASF or if indeed race and racism are discussed at all Essays explore such notable and popular works as the Divergent series The Red Queen The Lunar Chronicles and the Infernal Devices trilogy They consider the effects of colorblind ideology and postracialism on YASF a genre that is often seen as progressive in its representation of adolescent protagonists Simply put colorblindness silences those who believe and whose experiences demonstrate that race and racism do continue to matter In examining how some YASF texts normalize many of our social structures and hierarchies this collection examines how race and racism are represented in the genre and considers how hierarchies of race are reinscribed in some texts and transgressed in others Contributors point toward the potential of YASF to address and interrogate racial inequities in the contemporary West and beyond They critique texts that fall short of this possibility and they articulate ways in which readers and critics alike might nonetheless locate diversity within narratives This is a collection troubled by the lingering emphasis on colorblindness in YASF but it is also the work of scholars who love the genre and celebrate its progress toward inclusivity and who further see in it an enduring future for intersectional identity
