cast the older tradition of lineages and transmissions as impure and decadent Rongzompa composed the work translated here in order to clearly and definitively articulate how Dzogchen was very much in line with the wide variety of sutric and tantric teachings espoused by all the Tibetan schools Using the kinds of philosophic and linguistic analyses favored by the new schools he demonstrates that the Great Perfection is indeed the culmination and maturation of the Mah y na the Great Vehicle The central topic of the work is the notion of illusory appearance for when one realizes deeply that all appearances are illusory one realizes also that all appearances are in that respect equal The realization of the equality of all phenomena is said to be the Great Perfection approach to the path which frees one from both grasping at and rejecting appearances However for those unable to remain effortlessly within the natural state in the final chapter Rongzompa also describes how paths with effort are included in the Great Perfection approach
