Abstract

Aravind Adiga's Man Booker Prize winning debut novel The White Tiger is sharp, fascinating, attacks poverty and injustice. The White Tiger is a ground breaking Indian novel. Aravind Adiga speaks of suppression and exploitation of various sections of Indian society. Mainly a story of Balram, a young boy's journey from rags to riches, Darkness to Light transforming from a village teashop boy into a Bangalore entrepreneur. This paper deals with poverty and injustice. The paper analyses Balram's capability to overcome the adversities and cruel realities. The pathetic condition of poor people try to make both ends meet. The novel mirrors the lives of poor in a realistic mode. The White Tiger is a story about a man's journey for freedom. The protagonist Balram in this novel is a victim of injustice, inequality and poverty. He worked hard inspite of his low caste and overcame the social hindrance and become a successful entrepreneur. Through this novel Adiga portrays realistic and painful image of modern India. The novel exposes the anxieties of the oppressed.

Chetan Bhagat and Aravind Adiga Dr. Harleen Kaur Ruprah, 2023-10-31 Many writers are also social critics who aptly use their platform to raise awareness of social issues challenge power structures and promote social change Aravind Adiga and Chetan Bhagat are two such writers who have mirrored the true face of the modern society unveiling the core mindset of the youth Both the writers are activists of the present age who highlight social issues concerning bribery poverty dishonesty casteism corruption and degeneration of values in the Indian contemporary society Their novels are the amalgamation of fantasy and reality They have portrayed a true face of modern Indian society by describing the change in social cultural as well as political scenario through their imaginary characters Monolingualism and Linguistic Exhibitionism in

Fiction Anjali Pandey, 2016-01-25 How are linguistic wars for global prominence literarily and linguistically inscribed in literature This book focuses on the increasing presence of cosmetic multilingualism in prize winning fiction making a case for an emerging transparent turn in which momentary multilingualism works in the service of long term monolingualism

Tradition and Modernity. Changing the Images of Women in Selected Fiction by Manju Kapur and Anita Nair Sasikala Alagiri, 2017-11-21 Along with a range of socio cultural political and economic concerns the focus on self has been an inevitable assertion of writers during the last quarter of the twentieth century Individualistic in tone the contemporary women novelists are trying to portray realistically the predicament of modern women torn between the forces of tradition and modernity their sense of frustration and alienation the emotional and psychological turmoil and complexities of man women relationships and subtleties of feminine consciousness against the persistent patriarchal social set up Cognizant of the evils originating from patriarchy a positive sense of feminine identity has been recognized by them and the result is the emergence of a new woman in Indian society and its concept in the Indian English novel which has assumed a strident posture in the contemporary writings by women The shift from submission to assertion acquiescence to resistance and obedience to rebellion however has not been abrupt and effortless Women are still in the process of negotiation with different limiting factors and thresholds of patriarchy to claim their due space and affirm their identity The present study is an attempt to critically investigate the negotiations with cultural norms by the women characters in the selected novels by the contemporary novelists namely Manju Kapur and Anita Nair Almost all the women characters major and minor from the selected novels have been considered and positioned as per their ideological leanings and convictions under two thematic chapters namely Women in the Clutches of Traditional Norms and Tradition to Modernity The major issues around which the novels move education marriage gendered space and mother daughter relationships are taken up to put them within the contemporary social conditions in which women characters live The present book is divided into five chapters to make a critical and analytical study of the select novels of these contemporary Indian women writers in English The present work is focused on five selected novels Manju Kapur's Difficult Daughters Home and Custody and Anita Nair's Ladies Coup and Mistress

Postcolonial Naturalism Eric D. Smith, 2023-11-16 Postcolonial Naturalism proposes an innovative periodizing schema for historicizing contemporary Anglophone fiction Engaging and revising the materialist paradigm of the Warwick Research Collective's concept of world literature Fredric Jameson's mapping of modernity's cultural periods and Christopher L. Hill's positing of a transnational naturalism Eric D. Smith theorizes postcolonial naturalism as a structurally determined cultural logic rather than as a literary technique or style Supported by careful theoretically and critically sophisticated analyses of exemplary literary works this important intervention invites us to reconsider the living history of aesthetic naturalism as well as its social and political implications for the practice of world literature in the aftermath of anticolonial resistance

Personal and National Destinies in Independent India Rositta Joseph Valiyamattam, 2016-09-23 Personal and National Destinies in Independent India is an innovative analysis of the interface between individual lives and national history between citizen and state in modern India as reflected in contemporary fiction It critiques the selected works of a host of distinguished Indian English novelists such as Gurcharan Das Arun Joshi Rohinton Mistry Arundhati Roy Meher Pestonji Kiran Desai Vikas Swarup David Davidar Aravind Adiga Manjula Padmanabhan and Tarun Tejpal The author offers a new interpretation of twelve major novels with reference to the enormous framework of nearly seventy years of the history and politics culture and economy of independent India This is a study of fiction that rewrites the grand Indian narrative from a genuine subaltern point of view and pays tribute to the heroism of ordinary Indians in times of extraordinary transformation In these times of conflict and disparity which threaten democratic values these novelists advocate an inclusive and humane India with a strong moral core instead of aggressive or elitist nationalism They represent an era of painful introspection an attempt to keep the soul of the nation alive This unique project would be of interest to students and scholars of Literature Political Science and History especially Post colonial studies The vast scope of the time period geographical expanse social groups writers and works covered here makes the work comprehensive and contemporary very few such works on recent Indian history and fiction exist as of now
