Architectural Lighting Designing With Light And Space Architecture Briefs:

Architectural Lighting Hervé Descottes, Cecilia E. Ramos, 2013-07-02 Architectural Lighting the latest addition to the Architecture Briefs series provides both a critical approach to and a conceptual framework for understanding the application of lighting in the built environment The key considerations of lighting design are illuminated through accessible texts and instructional diagrams Six built projects provide readers with concrete examples of the ways in which these principles are applied Short essays by architect Steven Holl artist Sylvain Dubuisson and landscape architect James Corner explore the role of lighting in defining spatial compositions Architectural Lighting Hervé Descottes, Cecilia Ramos, 2011-05-04

Architectural Lighting provides both a critical approach and a conceptual framework for understanding the application of lighting in the built environment and the ways that light can alter our perception of these spaces shifting boundaries enhancing a mood or creating a general atmosphere Book Jacket Philosophy for Architects Branko Mitrovic, 2012-03-20

Philosophy for Architects is an engaging and easy to grasp introduction to philosophical questions of interest to students of architectural theory Topics include Aristotle's theories of visual imagination and their relevance to digital design the problem of optical correction as explored by Plato Hegel's theory of zeitgeist and Kant's examinations of space and aesthetics among others Focusing primarily on nineteenth and twentieth century philosophy it provides students with a wider perspective concerning philosophical problems that come up in contemporary architectural debates Interactive Architecture

Old Buildings New Designs

Charles Blois, 2013-07-02 Increasingly architects are hired to design new work for existing structures. Whether for reasons of preservation, sustainability or cost effectiveness, the movement to reuse buildings presents a variety of design challenges and opportunities. Old Buildings New Designs is an Architecture Brief devoted to working within a given architectural fabric from the technical issues that arise from aging construction to the controversy generated by the various project stakeholders to the unique aesthetic possibilities created through the juxtaposition of old and new.

Architectural Lighting Design

Gary Steffy, 2002 This book goes right to the heart of what every professional and student needs to know: above all, how to effectively meet real world lighting design challenges.

Theatre as Human Action Thomas S. Hirsch, Mark A.

Robinson, 2022-10-17 Theatre as Human Action is the ideal textbook to introduce students to the various aspects of theatre, especially for those who may have little or no theatergoing experience. Seven diverse plays are described to the reader from the start and then returned to throughout the book so that students can better understand the concepts being discussed. Both the theoretical and practical aspects of theatre are explored from the classical definition of theatre to today's most avant-garde theatre activities. Types of plays, the elements of drama and theatre criticism are presented as well as detailed descriptions of the different jobs in theatre such as actor, playwright, director, designer, producer, choreographer and more. The book concludes with a look at where and how theatre is evolving in America and the latest changes and innovations today. This fourth edition has been greatly expanded and updated, including the introduction of four new plays: Sweeney Todd, The Demon Barber of Fleet Street, Fences, Angels in America and Hedwig and the Angry Inch, in addition to Macbeth, You Can't Take It With You and Hamilton. A discussion of the rise of social media in raising awareness and replacing traditional review outlets. An entirely new enhanced section on diversity and inclusion in theatre. An updated selection of playwrights featured including Terrence McNally, Lynn Nottage, Tony Kushner and Lin-Manuel Miranda to better reflect the diversity of those writing for the theatre today. Featuring full color photographs, updated discussion questions, new topics for further research and potential creative projects, the fourth edition of Theatre as Human Action is an invaluable resource to introduce students to the world of theatre.

History of Design and Design Law Tsukasa Aso, Christoph Rademacher, Jonathan Dobinson, 2022-04-22 For the first time this book provides an up-to-date history of product design and product design law covering 17 countries: Japan, Korea, China, Singapore, the United Kingdom, Germany, France, Italy, the Nordic countries, Denmark, Finland, Iceland, Norway and Sweden, Russia, the United States, Brazil and Australia, selected for their innovative or influential approach to design or design.

protection Each country is the subject of two chapters one on the history of design and the other on the history of design law authored by experts in design and intellectual property IP law This unique interdisciplinary approach explains why and how various national design protection systems that can include design copyright trade mark competition and civil laws developed making it an ideal book for students researchers and lawyers The book also serves as an international survey of different national policy and legal responses to historical developments and specific design and legal issues allowing readers to consider their advantages and disadvantages and so is also recommended for policy and law makers as well as organizations that administer IP rights Topics include the subject matter of design protection procedural and substantive requirements design registration infringement and the overlap of design rights and other IP rights The chapters on design history provide further context to the historical development of these legal concepts by considering major design movements key designers and iconic designs and the current state of design The chapters highlight the connected and often complementary relationship between the two histories not only for each country but at the regional and international level often as a result of government policies trade colonialism immigration and globalisation Design and design practice continue to become more global and evolve with developments in technology At the same time design laws are not internationally harmonized and continue to develop at the national level with a number of significant changes occurring in recent years This timely book shows how the lessons of the past continue to inform the future direction of design and the legal systems developed to protect it

Managing the Brief for Better Design Alastair Blyth, John Worthington, 2010-07-02 Briefing is not just presenting a set of documents to the design team it is a process of developing a deep understanding about client needs This book provides both inspiration to clients and a framework for practitioners The coverage extends beyond new build covering briefing for services and fit outs Written by an experienced and well known team of authors this new edition clearly explains how important the briefing process is to both the construction industry in delivering well designed buildings and to their clients in achieving them The text is illustrated by excellent examples of effective practice drawn from DEGW experience as well as five model briefs and invaluable process charts
