Arguing And Thinking A Rhetorical Approach To Social Psychology European Monographs In Social Psychology:

Arguing and Thinking Michael Billig, 1986 Die Herstellung von Gruppen im Gespräch - analysiert am Beispiel des argentinischen Einwanderungsdiskurses Wolfgang Kesselheim, 2009 Argentinien hat eine über 100-jährige Erfahrung als Einwanderungsland. Vom ausgehenden 19. Jahrhundert an ließen sich mehr als sechs Millionen Menschen vornehmlich aus Europa in Argentinien nieder. Heute kommen die meisten Einwanderer dagegen aus Lateinamerika und Asien. In Politik, Massenmedien und im Alltag treffen sie auf eine breite Front der Ablehnung. Diese Untersuchung gibt einen Einblick in den Einwanderungsdiskurs der 1990er Jahre. Sie erforscht allgemeine sprachliche und interaktive Verfahren der Bildung von Gruppen im Gespräch und orientiert sich methodisch an dem konversationsanalytischen Konzept der Membership Categorization. Sie zeigt, wie die Konstruktion von Wir und Fremdgruppen im Gespräch miteinander verzahnt ist. Wie konstituieren argentinische Sprecher die Gruppen von Einwanderern und Einheimischen? Wie arbeiten sie im Gespräch heraus, was diese Gruppen unterscheidet? Wie definieren sie vor dem Hintergrund der neuen Einwanderung ihre nationale Identität und welche Konsequenzen hat dies für die Formulierung der Ablehnung? Diese Fragen werden anhand von Alltagsgesprächen detailliert beantwortet.

Untersuchungen zur Psychostilistik Ulrich Hepp, 2000 Nur wenige Monate des Jahres 1926 dauerte der Briefwechsel zwischen den drei Dichtern. Dennoch markiert er einen Höhepunkt der persönlichen und literarischen Entwicklung Marina Cvetaevas, Rainer Maria Rilkes und Boris Pasternaks. Grund genug, sich intensiv mit ihm auseinanderzusetzen. Jedoch fehlt bisher ein Analyseverfahren, das die tiefe emotionale Beziehung und das hohe künstlerische Niveau des Briefwechsels gleichermaßen berücksichtigt. Mit der Psychostilistik entwickelt der Göttinger Slavist Ulrich Hepp eine neue Untersuchungsmethode, die Erkenntnisse der Sozialpsychologie und Psychoanalyse mit einer präzisen Stilanalyse verknüpft. Am Beispiel des deutsch-russischen Dreierbriefwechsels setzt er sein Untersuchungsverfahren in die Tat um und ordnet ihn in das fließende Kontinuum zwischen der Authentizität historischer Personen und literarischer Fiktion ein. Mit der Psychostilistik schafft Hepp ein geeignetes Instrumentarium, das beiden Komponenten des Briefwechsels zwischen Literaten als Kunst und als Beziehungsform gerecht wird.

The Social Psychology of Minority Influence Gabriel Mugny, Juan A. Perez, 1991-07-26 Looks at the processes and spread of social innovation, the mechanisms of which are rooted in the conflict that minorities can create in others and introduce into the social system. These innovations give rise initially to discrimination and then to new norms which replace the old ones.

On the Legacy of Lutheranism in Finland Kaius Sinnemäki, Anneli Portman, Jouni Tilli, Robert H. Nelson, 2019-12-10 This volume analyses the societal legacy of Lutheranism in Finland in broad terms It contributes to the recent renewed interest in the history of religion in Finland and the Nordic countries by bringing together researchers in history political science economics social psychology education linguistics media studies and theology to examine the mutual relationship between Lutheranism and society in Finland The two main foci are i the historical effects of the Reformation and its aftermath on societal structures and on national identity values linguistic culture education and the economy and ii the adaptation of the church and its theology to changes in the geo political and sociocultural context Important sub themes include nationalism and religion the secularization and institutionalization of traditional values multiple Protestant ethics and long continuities in history Overall the book argues that large changes in societies cannot be explained via secular factors alone such as economic development or urbanization but that factors pertaining to religion provide substantial explanatory power for understanding societal change and the resulting societal structures

Psychology, Humour and Class Babak Fozooni, 2020-03-27 This challenging book critically examines three forms of contemporary psychology all displaying various signs of crisis through analogy with humour associated with three different class perspectives mainstream psychology critical psychology and postpsychology By fusing the best of the three psychologies with political and cultural critiques the book poses the question what if class conflict and the crises of psychology are related This is precisely the Gordian Knot which Fozooni tries to untangle First the author demonstrates how psychology has traditionally veered towards either an upper class or a middle class paradigm With the demise of these two old paradigms a new understanding of psychology is gradually emerging a postpsychology Describing how mainstream and critical psychologies are undergoing late life crisis and postpsychology is experiencing its birth pangs in an environment hostile to its existence the book provides an alternative narrative of psychology The author suggests that whilst all three forms of psychology have contributed to our self comprehension it is only postpsychology that possesses the attributes necessary for a global remaking of humanity Tackling the discipline of psychology head on Fozooni pits against it a series of scathing yet tongue in cheek critiques making this fascinating and provocative reading for all students and academics interested in psychology as well as the general reader

Understanding Critical Social Psychology Keith Tuffin, 2005 Understanding Critical Social Psychology is an exciting new textbook providing a comprehensive and reader friendly approach to the theories and methods surrounding Critical Social Psychology This book combines a critical examination of the traditional philosophies practices and topics with an emphasis on introducing innovative and contemporary developments in social psychological research In this way Tuffin integrates newer insights with established modes of thinking in Everyday Life Uli Windisch, 1990-05-03 This book examines the nature and operation of social thought and language as used in everyday life and looks at social thinking through the complex patternings and functions of discourse. It is based on extensive empirical evidence about the language of contemporary racism and nationalism drawn from the vast corpus of the discourse of Swiss racism gathered by the author from a variety of written and spoken sources. Three principal investigations of sociocentrism, causality and the perception of time are used to sinuate and define the nature and working of everyday speech and reasoning. First published in English in 1990, Speech and Reasoning in Everyday Life is a major contribution to the analysis of the discourse of contemporary ideology and politics. Its theoretical contribution makes this work richly deserving of an introduction to an English speaking audience of sociologists, social psychologists and anthropologists.

Speech and Reasoning

Account Episodes Peter Schönbach, 2010-08-26 An investigation into responsibility and accountability in account episodes and into the circumstances under which these episodes are successful or unsuccessful. Situation Cognition and

Coherence in Personality Barbara Krahé, 2010-08-26 This 1990 volume was written to re-examine the long-standing controversy about consistency in personality from a social psychological perspective. Barbara Krahé reconsiders the concept of consistency in terms of the systematic coherence of situation cognition and behaviour across situations. In the first part of the volume she undertakes an examination of social psychological models of situation cognition for their ability to clarify the principles underlying the perception of situational similarities. She then advances an individual-centred methodology in which nomothetic hypotheses about cross-situational coherence are tested on the basis of idiographic measurement of situation cognition and behaviour. In the second part of the volume a series of empirical studies is reported which apply the individual-centred framework to the analysis of cross-situational coherence in the domain of anxiety-provoking situations. These studies are distinctive in that they extend over several months and use free response data. Manufacturing Dissent Cornelia

Ilie, 2024-01-15 Spotlights case studies of manipulation practices at the onset of the Covid 19 crisis in different countries and socio-political circumstances. The authors expose context-specific discourse and argumentation strategies of infodemics, misleading information and fake news, public policy mismanagement, deceptive online and offline communication tactics and conspiracy narratives which end up disrupting community social cohesion. In addition to targeting manipulation-driven dissent across discourse genres, through corpus-based investigations a major strength of this volume consists in debunking manipulation while foregrounding compelling acts of counter-manipulation. The volume's breadth of topics, depth of analytical insights and range of methodological frameworks provide unique perspectives by capturing crisis-related manipulations across a worldwide political and cultural spectrum: Austria, Brazil, China, the Czech Republic, Portugal, Sweden, Switzerland, United Kingdom, United States, with a focus on the scale and extent of multifaceted repercussions. Reaching beyond the boundaries of pragmatics and discourse analysis, this book should be a valuable resource for researchers and practitioners of rhetoric, argumentation, media studies, social and political sciences. Gorsuch,2024-01-11 In retrospect Karl Barth conceded that everything which needs to be said considered and believed about God the Father and God the Son might be shown and illuminated in its foundation through God the Holy Spirit Nevertheless he refrained from doing so because it was still too difficult to distinguish between God s Spirit and man s spirit and so it was then However the late twentieth century explosion in various disciplines of thought now provides greater discernment between human and divine spirit a better understanding of the logic of spirit and the concept and role of spirit in distinction to mind and body Gorsuch s theological interdisciplinary investigation into the analogia spiritus and a Christian perichoretic relational ontology brings new meaning and coherence to previously difficult scriptures Moreover it provides the fundamental landscape for addressing issues of profound theological consequence 1 redressing the death of transcendence with a new understanding of relational dynamics through which free temporal and self determining human beings might mutually relate with an Eternal God of providence 2 laying the framework for a viable Christian pluralistic hypothesis in an increasingly pluralistic world and 3 providing an enriched theological anthropology for addressing human spirit origins and theodicy Explanations, Accounts, and Illusions John McClure,1991-07-25 A survey of the major viewpoints in social psychology concerning peoples s self awareness explanations of their actions cognitive illusions and self misunderstandings Tax Evasion Paul Webley,1991-08-30 This book explores tax evasion through an extensive psychological approach surveys and official records to simulate real world cases Bibliographie Internationale de Sociologie 1987 British Library of Political and Economic Science,1991 IBSS is the essential tool for librarians university departments research institutions and any public or private institution whose work requires access to up to date and comprehensive knowledge on the social sciences
