Wissens und Ordnungen macht Konzeptionen zeitgenössischer Kunst Hans Dickel, 2024-06-04 Exhibitions of contemporary art have always confounded their viewers By showing works that justifiably claim contemporaneity they challenge us to rethink the traditional expectations of art Hans Dickel presents the rapidly changing concepts of art since 1900 in their philosophical and socio historical context Using relevant art theoretical source texts the respective innovations in the concept of art are elucidated chronologically The publication's descriptions and analyses make it well suited to all those interested in art By characterising the various definitions of contemporary art the aim is to reveal the diversity of artistic production and changing trends during the 20th and 21st centuries Das Ende der Kunstgeschichte Hans Belting, 1995 , Die Rezeption der Philosophie Ludwig Wittgensteins in der zeitgenössischen Kunst Jelena Toopeekoff, Benjamin Kiel, 2016-01-01 Zu den Eigenlichkeiten der bis heute anhaltenden Wirkung der Schriften Ludwig Wittgensteins geht es darum dass sie sich nicht nur in Philosophie und Wissenschaft entfaltete sondern auch die Kunst betraf Darum scheint es kein Zufall dass Wittgensteins Name in den theoretischen Debatten über die Kunst der letzten Jahre wie kaum ein zweiter präsent war Wer mit dem Thema Wittgenstein und die Kunst vertraut ist wird im Blick auf die bildenden Kunst vermutlich rasch Namen wie Joseph Kosuth oder Franz West nennen wenn es gilt Wittgensteinsche Einflüsse auf einzelne künstlerische Positionen namhaft zu machen Doch wie weit reichen sie tatsächlich Und vor allem Wie manifestieren sie sich konkret in den Werken der genannten und anderer moderner und zeitgenössischer Künstler Aller Wittgenstein Präsenz in den theoretischen Debatten über die Kunst zum Trotz sind diese Fragen gar nicht leicht zu beantworten und wohl darum derzeit noch kaum untersucht Die hier veröffentlichten Arbeiten von Jelena Toopeekoff und Benjamin Kiel die aus akademischen Qualifikationsschriften an der Kunsthochschule Kassel hervorgegangen sind versuchen auf unterschiedliche Weisen sie einer Antwort näher zu bringen Stefan Majetschak Art & Language International Robert Bailey, 2016-05-19 In Art Language International Robert Bailey reconstructs the history of the conceptual art collective Art Language situating it in a geographical context to rethink its implications for the broader histories of contemporary art Focusing on its international collaborations with dozens of artists and critics in and outside the collective between 1969 and 1977 Bailey positions Art Language at the center of a historical shift from Euro American modernism to a global contemporary art He documents the collective's growth and reach from transatlantic discussions on the nature of conceptual art and the establishment of distinct working groups in New York and England to the collective's later work in Australia New Zealand and Yugoslavia Bailey also details its publications associations with political organizations and the internal power struggles that precipitated its breakdown Analyzing a wide range of artworks texts music and films he reveals how Art Language navigated between art worlds to shape the international profile of conceptual art Above all Bailey underscores how the group's rigorous and interdisciplinary work provides a gateway to understanding how conceptual art operates as a mode of thinking that exceeds the visual to shape the philosophical historical and political Psychical Realism Alexander Streitberger, 2020-10-20

Comprehensive overview of a highly influential contemporary artist's work Victor Burgin counts among the most versatile figures within art and visual culture since the late 1960s His artwork both connects with and reacts to minimalism conceptual art staged photography appropriation art video art and more recently computer based imaging As a scholar his thinking is informed by phenomenology semiotics poststructuralism feminist theory and psychoanalysis This monograph provides a comprehensive and unique overview of Victor Burgin's body of work over the past five decades Identifying the concept of psychical realism as an overarching umbrella term Alexander Streitberger traces back the artist's parallel unfolding of practice and theory while situating this process within various historical contexts and critical debates Five chapters link insightful case studies to key issues such as conceptual art and situational aesthetics the relationship between representation and politics postmodernist concepts of space and the digital environment of media images The book is richly illustrated and includes a sequence from the major work Dear Urania 2016 especially designed by the artist for this book

Critical by Design? Claudia Mareis, Moritz Greiner-Petter, Michael Renner, 2022-02-03 In its constructive and speculative nature design has the critical potential to reshape prevalent socio material realities At the same time design is inevitably normative if not often violent as it stabilises the past normalises the present and precludes just and sustainable futures The contributions rethink concepts of critique that influence the field of design question inherent blind spots of the discipline and expand understandings of what critical design practices could be With contributions from design theory practice and education art theory philosophy and informatics Critical by Design aims to question and unpack the ambivalent tensions between design and critique

Art as Information Ecology Jason A. Hoelscher, 2021-08-09 In Art as Information Ecology Jason A Hoelscher offers not only an information theory of art but an aesthetic theory of information Applying close readings of the information theories of Claude Shannon and Gilbert Simondon to 1960s American art Hoelscher proposes that art is information in its aesthetic or indeterminate mode information oriented less toward answers and resolvability than toward questions irresolvability and sustained difference These irresolvable differences Hoelscher demonstrates fuel the richness of aesthetic experience by which viewers glean new information and insight from each encounter with an artwork In this way art constitutes information that remains in formation a difference that makes a difference that keeps on differencing Considering the works of Frank Stella Robert Morris Adrian Piper the Drop City commune Eva Hesse and others Hoelscher finds that art exists within an information ecology of complex feedback between artwork and artworld that is driven by the unfolding of difference By charting how information in its aesthetic mode can exist beyond today's strictly quantifiable and monetizable forms Hoelscher reconceives our understanding of how artworks work and how information operates

Song and Circumstance Sytze Steenstra, 2010-03-30 For over three decades now David Byrne has been a leading light in American culture in popular music experimental theatre film television fine art and writing Based on the cultural capital he gained with his groundbreaking band Talking Heads Byrne is able to enter into collaborations with many artists some of popular fame Brian Eno and Jonathan Demme for example and others known best in more specialized circles such as Joseph Kosuth Twyla Tharp and Caetano Veloso The map of Byrne's collaborations including the casual and incidental ones reveals an ongoing effort to combine avant-gardism with popular appeal This highly original and illustrated account of David Byrne's career is structured by choosing a specific abstract approach or a combination of two approaches for each chapter discussing the parallels and contradictions between such approaches to benefit the interpretation of Byrne's art As a result the fertile conceptual brew that characterizes Byrne's way of making art is present from the beginning while each chapter adds to thorough insight and developing perspective

This Is Not a Copy Kaja Marczewska, 2018-02-22 In This Is Not a Copy Kaja Marczewska identifies a characteristic copy-paste tendency in contemporary culture a shift in attitude that allows reproduction and plagiarizing to become a norm in cultural production This inclination can be observed in literature and non-literary forms of writing at an unprecedented level as experiments with text redefine the nature of creativity Responding to these transformations Marczewska argues that we must radically rethink our conceptions of artistic practice and proposes a move away from the familiar categories of copying and originality creativity and plagiarism in favour of the notion of iteration Developing the new concept of the Iterative Turn This Is Not a Copy identifies and theorizes the turn toward ubiquitous iteration as a condition of text-based creative practices as they emerge in response to contemporary technologies Conceiving of writing as iterative invites us to address a set of new critical questions about contemporary culture Combining discussion of literature experimental and electronic writing mainstream and independent publishing with debates in 20th and 21st century art contemporary media culture transforming technologies and copyright laws This Is Not a Copy offers a timely and urgently needed argument introducing a unique new perspective on practices that permeate our contemporary culture

Language in the Visual Arts Leslie Ross, 2014-05-23 This book discusses text and image relationships in the history of art from ancient times to the contemporary period across a diversity of cultures and geographic areas Focusing on the use of words in art and words as art forms thematic chapters include Pictures in Words Words in Pictures Word Picture Puzzles Picture Word Puzzles Words as Images The Power of the Word and Monumental and Moving Words Chapter subsections further explore cross cultural themes Examining text and image relationships from the obvious to the elusive the puzzling to the profound the minor to the major the book demonstrates the diverse ways in which images and writing have been combined through the ages and explores the interplay between visual and written communication in a wide range of thought provoking examples A color insert is included Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Intelligent Action Timothy Ridlen, 2024-06-14 Through archival research and analysis of artworks by Gyorgy Kepes Allan Kaprow Mel Bochner and Suzanne Lacy among others Intelligent Action examines how these artists brought alternatives to dominant conceptions of research and knowledge production The book is organized around specific institutional formations artistic research centers proposals exhibitions on college campuses and the establishment of new schools or pedagogic programs Formal and social analysis demonstrate how artists responded to ideas of research knowledge production information and pedagogy Works discussed were produced between 1958 and 1975 a moment when boundaries between media were breaking down in response to technological cultural and generational change In the context of academia these artistic practices have taken up the look feel or language of various research and teaching practices In some cases artists bent to the demands of the cold war research university while in others artists developed new modes of practice and pedagogy Reading these works through their institutional histories author Tim Ridlen shows how artistic research practices and artistic subjectivity developed in the long 1960s within and alongside academia transforming the role of artists in the process

Ideas Against Ideocracy Mikhail Epstein, 2021-09-09 Winner of the Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Studies in Slavic Languages and Literatures awarded by the Modern Languages Association This groundbreaking work by one of the world's foremost theoreticians of culture and scholars of Russian philosophy gives for the first time a systematic examination of the development of Russian philosophy during the late Soviet period Countering the traditional view of an intellectual wilderness under the Soviet regime Mikhail Epstein provides a comprehensive account of Russian thought of the second half of the 20th century that is highly sophisticated without losing clarity It provides new insights into previously mostly ignored areas such as late Soviet Russian nationalism and Eurasianism religious thought cosmism and esoterism and postmodernism and conceptualism Epstein shows how Russian philosophy has long been trapped in an intellectual prison of its own making as it sought to create its own utopia However he demonstrates that it is time to reappraise Russian thought now freed from the bonds of Soviet totalitarianism and ideocracy but nevertheless dangerously engaged into new nationalist aspirations and metaphysical radicalism We are left with not only a new and exciting interpretation of recent Russian intellectual history but also the opportunity to rethink our own philosophical heritage

Time in Exile Marcia Sá Cavalcante Schuback, 2020-02-10 This book is a philosophical reflection on the experience of time from within exile Its focus on temporality is unique as most literature on exile focuses on the experience of space as exile involves dislocation and moods of nostalgia and utopia Marcia S Cavalcante Schuback proposes that in exile time is experienced neither as longing back to the lost past nor as wanting a future to come but rather as a present without anchors or supports She articulates this present as a gerundive mode in which the one who is in exile discovers herself simply being exposed to the uncanny experience of having lost the past and not having a future To explore this she establishes a conversation among three authors whose work has exemplified this sense of gerundive time the German philosopher Martin Heidegger the French writer and essayist Maurice Blanchot and the Brazilian writer Clarice Lispector The book does not aim to discuss how these authors understand the relation between time and exile but presents a conversation with them in relation to this question that reflects new aspects in their work Attempting to think and express this difficult sense of time from within exile Time in Exile engages with the relation between thought and language and between philosophy and literature Departing from concrete existential questions S Cavalcante Schuback reveals new philosophical and theoretical modes to understand what it means to be present in times of exile

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Sonic Methodologies Michael Bull, Marcel Cobussen, 2020-12-10 The field of Sound Studies has changed and developed dramatically over the last two decades involving a vast and dizzying array of work produced by those working in the arts social sciences and sciences The study of sound is inherently interdisciplinary and is undertaken both by those who specialize in sound and by others who wish to include sound as an intrinsic and indispensable element in their research This is the first resource to provide a wide ranging cross cultural and interdisciplinary investigation and analysis of the ways in which researchers use a broad range of methodologies in order to pursue their sonic investigations It brings together 49 specially commissioned chapters that ask a wide range of questions including how can sound be used in current academic disciplines Is sound as a methodological tool indispensable for Sound Studies and what can sound artists contribute to the discourse on methodology in Sound Studies The editors also present 3 original chapters that work as provocative sonic methodological interventions prefacing the 3 sections of the book
