Desirable Daughters A Novel:

Desirable Daughters Bharati Mukherjee, 2002-12-30 They are three Calcutta born sisters intelligent artistic and extremely independent Born into a wealthy Brahmin family presided over by their doting father and his traditionalist mother the girls feel strangled by a society with little regard for young women Rebelling against family and convention the girls heads and hearts take them in very different directions where in a clash of wills and circumstances the inexorable bonds of their sisterhood will be tested as never before At the heart of this remarkable new novel by the award winning author of The Middleman and Other Stories and Jasmine are the interwoven threads of culture identity and family loyalty In the tradition of The Joy Luck Club in its honest and compelling portrayal of the immigrant experience Desirable Daughters is an unputdownable read

Desirable Daughters Bharati Mukherjee, 2003 Desirable Daughters is set in America and India equally It is both the portrait of a traditional Brahmin Indian family and a contemporary story of an American woman who has in many ways broken with the tradition but still remains tied to her native country An intricate mystery that unfolds throughout this compelling novel it creates both intrigue and suspense but also initiates a quest for identity Feminism and the Post-modern Indian Women Novelists in English Anita Myles, 2006 Papers presented at the National Conference on Dalit Literature Contents Trends and Concerns held at Dehradun during 22-23 March 2009

Home, Identity, and Mobility in Contemporary Diasporic Fiction Jopi Nyman, 2009 This innovative volume discusses the significance of home and global mobility in contemporary diasporic fiction written in English Through analyses of central diasporic and migrant writers in the United Kingdom and the United States the timely volume exposes the importance of home and its reconstruction in diasporic literature in the era of globalization and increasing transnational mobility Through wide ranging case studies dealing with a variety of black British and ethnic American writers Home Identity and Mobility in Contemporary Diasporic Fiction shows how new identities and homes are constructed in the migrants new homelands The volume examines how diasporic novels inscribe hybridity and multiplicity in formerly uniform spaces and subvert traditional understandings of nation citizenship and history Particular emphasis is on the ways in which diasporic fictions appropriate and transform traditional literary genres such as the Bildungsroman and the picaresque to explore the questions of migration and transformation The authors discussed include Caryl Phillips Jamal Mahjoub Mike Phillips Hari Kunzru Kamila Shamsie Benjamin Zephaniah Abdulrazak Gurnah Cynthia Kadohata Ana Castillo Diana Abu Jaber and Bharati Mukherjee The volume is of particular interest to all scholars and students of post colonial and ethnic literatures in English

Conversations with Bharati Mukherjee Bharati Mukherjee, 2009 The first naturalized citizen to win the National Book Critics Circle Award Bharati Mukherjee b 1940 born into a rigid hierarchy as a Bengali Brahmin and raised in the elite of Calcutta society joined the American masses by choice This journey from a privileged yet circumscribed life to one of free will and risk supplied the experiences she has turned into literature From her first interview originally published over three decades ago in her native tongue Bengali in the Calcutta journal Desh and appearing here for the first time in English to an in depth interview in 2007 granted specifically for this collection this volume provides a candid look at the woman who has been called the grande dame of diasporic Indian literature

Understanding Bharati Mukherjee Ruth Maxey, 2019-09-06 2021 Choice Outstanding Academic Title Bharati Mukherjee was the first major South Asian American writer and the first naturalized American citizen to win the National Book Critics Circle Award Born in Kolkata India she immigrated to the United States in 1961 and went on to publish eight novels two short story collections two long works of nonfiction and numerous essays book reviews and newspaper articles She was professor emerita in the Department of English at the University of California Berkeley until her death in 2017 In Understanding Bharati Mukherjee Ruth Maxey discusses Mukherjee's influence on younger South Asian American women writers such as Jhumpa Lahiri and Chitra Divakaruni Mukherjee's powerful writing also enjoyed popular appeal with some novels achieving best seller status and international acclaim her 1989 novel Jasmine was translated into multiple languages One of the earliest writers to feature South Asian Americans in literary form Mukherjee reflected upon the influence of non European immigrants to the United States following passage of the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965 which abolished the quota system Her vision of a globalized interconnected world has been regarded as prophetic and when Mukherjee died diverse North American writers Margaret Atwood Joyce Carol Oates Russell Banks Michael Ondaatje Ann Beattie Amy Tan and Richard Ford came forward to praise her work and its importance Understanding Bharati Mukherjee is the first book to examine this pioneering author's complete oeuvre and to identify its legacy Maxey offers new insights into widely discussed texts and recuperates overlooked works such as Mukherjee's first and last published short stories her neglected nonfiction and her many essays Critically situating both well known and under discussed texts this study analyzes the aesthetic and ideological complexity of Mukherjee's writing considering her sophisticated erudite multilayered use of intertextuality especially her debt to cinema Maxey argues that understanding the range of formal and stylistic strategies in play is crucial to grasping Mukherjee's work

Contemporary South Asia and the Middle East Pourya Asl, Moussa, 2023-01-16 In today's world it is crucial to understand how cities and urban spaces operate in order for them to continue to develop and improve To ensure cities thrive further study on past and current policies and practices is required to provide a thorough understanding Urban Poetics and Politics in Contemporary South Asia and the Middle East examines the poetics and politics of city and urban spaces in contemporary South Asia and the Middle East and seeks to shed light on how individuals constitute experience and navigate urban spaces in everyday life This book aims to initiate a multidisciplinary approach to the study of city life by engaging disciplines such as urban geography gender studies feminism literary criticism and human geography Covering key topics such as racism urban spaces social inequality and gender roles this reference work is ideal for government officials policymakers researchers scholars practitioners academicians instructors and students The Jew's Daughter Efraim

Sicher, 2017-05-04 A new approach to thinking about the representation of the Other in Western society The Jew's Daughter A Cultural History of a Conversion Narrative offers an insight into the gendered difference of the Jew Focusing on a popular narrative of The Jew's Daughter which has been overlooked in conventional studies of European anti-Semitism this innovative study looks at canonical and neglected texts which have constructed racialized and sexualized images that persist today in the media and popular culture The book goes back before Shylock and Jessica in The Merchant of Venice and Isaac and Rebecca in Ivanhoe to seek the answers to why the Jewish father is always wicked and ugly while his daughter is invariably desirable and open to conversion The story unfolds in fascinating transformations reflecting changing ideological and social discourses about gender sexuality religion and nation that expose shifting perceptions of inclusion and exclusion of the Other Unlike previous studies of the theme of the Jewess in separate literatures Sicher provides a comparative perspective on the transnational circulation of texts in the historical context of the perception of both Jews and women as marginal or outcasts in society The book draws on examples from the arts history literature folklore and theology to draw a complex picture of the dynamics of Jewish Christian relations in England France Germany and Eastern Europe from 1100 to 2017 In addition the responses of Jewish authors illustrate a dialogue that has not always led to mutual understanding This ground breaking work will provoke questions about the history and present state of prejudiced attitudes in our society

Representation and Resistance Jaspal Kaur Singh, 2008 This book focuses on the work of Western educated African and Indian women writers resisting gender identity constructions at various points in history Author Jaspal Singh examines colonial and national gender identity constructions in female authored texts at home and the continued deployment of and resistance to gender identity impositions in various spaces Hoping to generate a greater understanding of and appreciation for the contributions of these diasporic women writers within postcolonial literature and analysis Singh contextualises their work within social political and cultural conditions Her study aids the empowerment of Indian and African women writers as important players in the emerging field of postcolonial studies In particular she argues for the importance of inclusion of texts from women of different classes religions and castes both in the developed and the under developed world Singh s analysis makes reference to texts by Indian and African women in India the West and in other Third World spaces with large Indian communities namely Africa and Burma

Women and Contemporary World Literature Deborah Fillerup Weigel, 2009 Many women in cultures throughout the world exhibit resilience and power in the face of obstacles and vicissitudes From colonial New Spain to postcolonial Africa and India Women and Contemporary World Literature examines ways in which women in literature function within their specific culture and circumstances to confront the challenges they encounter In spite of fragmentation in their lives much like quiltmakers they piece together the scraps of their existence to form an integrated and complete whole With its focus on power fragmentation and metaphor and a strong interdisciplinary approach this book offers a unique perspective to scholars teachers and students of comparative literature contemporary world literature colonial and postcolonial literature women s studies interdisciplinary studies and literature and cultural studies
