Labour Law and the Gig Economy Jo Carby-Hall,Lourdes Mella Méndez,2020-03-24 This international book analyses the impact of digitisation in labour markets on labour relationships and also on labour processes The rapid progress of modern disruptive technologies and AIs and their multiple applications to each phase of the labour production system are changing the production rules on a global scale with significant impacts in every aspect of work. As new technologies transform work patterns and change the type of jobs available, destroying some while creating others and even the nature of the tasks performed, numerous legal problems arise which are challenging to legislators and legal scholars who need to find appropriate solutions to them. Considering the labour law issues which have been created by technological developments and currently affect the work of millions worldwide, this book highlights the full scope of these issues, suggesting solutions to emerging problems and ways to mitigate the risks brought about through technological advancement. Approaching the present debate with perspectives on legal problems with expertise from a wide range of different countries, this book presents informed and scholarly studies which answer the challenges that new technologies present in labour markets, private lives and labour processes.

Subcommittee on Military Construction Appropriations,1969 The Belt and Road Initiative and Australian Mainstream Media Jon Yuan

Jiang,2024-04-01 This book focuses on Australian mainstream media narratives about the Belt and Road Initiative BRI from 2013 to 2020 Set against the background of Sino Australian relations and taking into account the different media systems of China and Australia this book also critically investigates the Chinese public diplomacy narratives of the BRI Drawing on my analysis and semi structured interviews with prominent experts in this area the book addresses an important but under explored question how have Australian mainstream media narratives portrayed the BRI of the Chinese Government from 2013 to 2020 This book fills a gap regarding the portrayal of the BRI in Australian mainstream media and provides new insights into the reasons for narrative shifts in the coverage of the BRI More concretely the book finds that the public diplomacy narratives of the BRI were not explained well by Chinese officials thus allowing Australian journalists and commentators to project their own negative fearful narratives of China onto the BRI project particularly from 2017 onwards More importantly this book argues that the Australian Federal Government s policy towards China had a significant impact on the Australian media s coverage of the BRI that the media clearly followed the Australian Federal Government s lead and not vice versa Thus in many ways Australian mainstream media narratives of the BRI have had a similar outcome as China s ostensibly much more restrictive and propagandistic state dominated media system Noticeably this book not only has academic significance in the international research community but also holds practical importance in the real world benefiting Australian business leaders media professionals think tank specialists and policymakers
