Source Material (Provide a direct quotation or paraphrase and a parenthetical citation)	Page #	Respond, Analyze, and Evaluate (Why do you find this passage interesting or important?)
(What are you analyzing?) Simile “The snow was like a carpet, very gentle, very warm” (83).	83	I can picture the men standing in the concentration camp, watching the snow blanket the ground. It is silent there. The snow-covered ground is smooth and soft. Wiesel describes the snow as being “gentle” and “warm.” This comparison is not what one would expect. Standing barefoot in the snow would be very painful. The cold would cut deep into one’s feet. So why does he say it is warm? Maybe his feet are frozen, numb to the pain. Perhaps the snow provides insulation from night’s bitter cold. This comparison creates a sense of peace, a moment without terror and fear. It is as if he is home again, safe and warm. 111 words
(What are you analyzing?) Personification/ Internal Conflict “Death wrapped itself around me till I was stifled. It stuck to me. I felt that I could touch it. The idea of dying, of no longer being, began to fascinate me. Not to exist any longer” (82).	82	This is a sad moment for Elie. He has fought to survive, but cannot fight any longer. I can’t imagine being fourteen and wanting to die. I can’t imagine being fourteen and losing my family, my dignity, my soul. What a tragedy. In this passage, Wiesel personifies death to show the control it has over those who are suffering in the camps. In this case, Death silences Elie, overpowering his will and subduing his hope of survival. Elie is conflicted. He wants to survive. He wants to take care of his father. But he doesn’t know how much more he can take. This is important because we see that Elie has reached a breaking point. Death has come for him so many times but has failed. This time, however, Elie is too tired to run, too tired to fight. He has had enough. Death is offering a gift—an escape from this hellish existence. 153 words

On Early English Pronunciation: Existing dialectal as compared with West Saxon pronunciation. With two maps of the dialect districts Alexander John Ellis, 1871      Postmodern Racial Dialectics Richard A. Jones, 2015-12-07 Postmodern Racial Dialectics is a collection of ten essays on African American philosophy Addressing issues as disparate as why there are no graduate programs in philosophy at the more than one hundred traditionally black colleges and universities in the U S to conceptions of Black utopianism to the nature of postmodern revolutions these essays are beyond the bounds of traditional racial discourse The essays are dialectical in the sense that they are conversations between personal histories between ideologies and between changing ways that the races talk to one another The book is postmodern in that it is beyond modernity's linear logic Postmodern Racial Dialectics is also a political entreaty for African Americans to be wary of conventional ways of thinking and to begin thinking transgressively beyond narrowly prescribed conceptions from both sides of the color line      Living Black Theology Anthony G. Reddie, 2025-05-22 Living Black Theology provides a challenging and radical critique of the present world order It argues that the world as we experience it presently has its roots in the era of slavery and European colonialism especially the British empire the largest example of imperialism in human history Written by the first Professor of Black Theology in the history of the University of Oxford Living Black Theology offers a bold reassessment of how we can rethink the past that will challenge our contemporary ways of living Ultimately this text seeks to help us reimage and remake the future one that is more equitable and just for all peoples This is a landmark book

The Journal Book for Teachers of At-risk College Writers Susan Gardner, Toby Fulwiler, 1999 Educators across the grades and across the curriculum have long recognized the usefulness of journals to help student writers But what about basic writers learning disabled students and nontraditional and returning students One of the values of journal writing is its accessibility yet no one has seemed to consider how at risk students might benefit With this new collection the first of its kind Susan Gardner and Toby Fulwiler provide much needed advice The authors of these essays are all experienced teachers of at risk writers both at two and four year colleges They know the at risk students they are describing Some readers will recognize the students as basic writers in basic writing courses Others will find chapters written by writing center directors who serve a variety of students we might term as at risk There are also chapters from educators who work specifically with Deaf students ADHD students and learning disabled students Each one describes uses of the journal and the adjustments to the assignment that make the journal such an accessible and instructive writing genre

Ocean Governance, Regimes, and the South China Sea Issues Peter Kien-hong YU, 2015-05-05 This book uses Chinese version of dialectics to present interpretations of ocean governance international regimes issues in the South China Sea in general and the Chinese U shaped line in particular through the one dot theory It especially serves as a tool for non Chinese researchers and experts interested in analyzing international relations issues from a Chinese perspective The dialectical one dot theory which is a superior model to the dialectical Yin and Yang or the dialectical crab and frog motion model provides research and findings that more closely mirror reality than do other non dialectical approaches and research methods Further it can be applied to both the natural and social sciences The book is divided into three parts Methodology Case Studies Related to International Regimes and Non International Regimes and Issues Related to the U shaped Line in the South China Sea with each chapter structured in terms of the one dot theory In addition to researchers and experts involved in marine and maritime affairs this book will also appeal to all readers interested in Chinese Philosophy International Relations and Strategic Culture
