Dicionário Changana-Português Bento Sitoé, 1996    Dicionário Português-Changana, 2017    Português em contato
Ana Maria Carvalho, 2009    Dictionary of Portuguese Loanwords in the Languages of Sub-Saharan Africa Sergio Baldi, 2023-10-16 The main purpose of this dictionary is twofold On the one hand it provides the scholar of African studies with a tool to identify the possible Portuguese origin of terms present in African languages and on the other it offers those who are interested in Portuguese culture an overview of the presence of its lexicon in African languages No doubt the Portuguese were among the first Europeans to explore the world outside of Europe and as such they were also the first to introduce that world to European concepts and words This book is the result of a long and detailed work on texts in African languages as also shown by the rich bibliography in the dictionary    Historical Dictionary of Mozambique Colin Darch, 2018-12-15 The new edition of Historical Dictionary of Mozambique covers the Bantu expansion the arrival of the Portuguese navigators and their str competition with local African power centers and coastal Arab Swahili trading towns the trade cycles of gold ivory and slaves the establishment of the semi Africanized prazos along the Zambezi Valley pacification campaigns and the period of Portuguese weakness in the late 19th and early 20th centuries when vast tracts of land were rented to concessionary companies In the late colonial period the Salazar dictatorship tried to reassert Portuguese power but after ten years of armed struggle for national liberation Mozambique gained its independence in 1975 The book contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Mozambique    Verbs of Motion in Changana Bento

Urban Planning in Lusophone African Countries Carlos Nunes Silva, 2016-03-09 Urban planning on the five Lusophone African countries Angola Cape Verde Guinea Bissau Mozambique and Sao Tome and Pr ncipe has so far been relatively overlooked in planning literature Bringing together a team of leading scholars this book fills the gap by providing an in depth analysis of key issues in the history of urban planning and discussing the key challenges confronting contemporary urban planning in these countries The book argues that urban planning is a non neutral and non value free kind of public action and therefore ideology planning theories urban models and the ideological role urban planning has played are some of the key issues addressed For that reason the practice of Urban Planning is also seen as the outcome of a complex interrelationship between structure and agency with the role of key planers being examined in some of the chapters The findings and insights presented by the contributing authors confirm previous research on urban planning in the colonial and postcolonial periods in Lusophone African countries and at the same time break fresh ground and offer additional insights as new evidence has been collected from archives and in fieldwork carried out by a new generation of researchers In addition it outlines possible directions for future research

Law, Religion and Human Flourishing in Africa

M. Christian Green, 2019-05-15 A shared interest of law and religion is the advancement of human flourishing yet there is no common understanding of what it means for humans to flourish and the means by which to attain a flourishing life The concept of human flourishing is especially important for Africa where community and national development compete with forces of conflict and scarce resources In the broadest sense the concept of human flourishing focuses our attention on having a comprehensively good or worthwhile life but various religious and legal traditions suggest different norms for measuring the quality of life and designing the institutional structures that could best facilitate and preserve it

Violent Conversion

Linda van de Kamp, 2016 Examines Pentecostal conversion as a force of change revealing new insights into its dominant role in global Christianity today There has been an extraordinary growth in Pentecostalism in Africa with Brazilian Pentecostals establishing new transnational Christian connections initiating widespread changes not only in religious practice but in society This book describes its rise in Maputo capital of Mozambique and the sometimes dramatic impact of Pentecostalism on women Here large numbers of urban women are taking advantage of the opportunities Pentecostalism offers to overcome restrictions at home pioneer new life spaces and change their lives through the power of the Holy Spirit Yet conversion can also mean a violent rupturing with tradition with family and with social networks As the pastors encourage women to cut their ties with the past including ancestral spirits they come to see their kin and husbands as imbued with evil powers and many leave their families Conquering spheres that used to be forbidden to them they often live alone as unmarried women sometimes earning more than men of a similar age They are also expected to donate huge sums to the churches often money that they can ill afford bringing new hardships Linda van de Kamp is Assistant Professor in the Department of Sociology University of Amsterdam The Netherlands    Women, Migration & the Cashew Economy in Southern Mozambique 1945-1975 Jeanne Penvenne,2015 Analyses the lives and livelihoods of the female cashew shellers in Mozambique's capital in the colonial era during which the industry grew to be a major export and relates how the women played a fundamental but previously underappreciated role in the colony's economy    Rethinking Colonial Pasts Through Archaeology Neal Ferris,Rodney Harrison,Michael Vincent Wilcox,2014 This work explores the archaeologies of daily living left by the indigenous and other displaced peoples impacted by European colonial expansion over the last 600 years Case studies from North America Australia Africa the Caribbean and Ireland significantly revise conventional historical narratives of those interactions their presumed impacts and their ongoing relevance for the material social economic and political lives and identities of contemporary indigenous and other peoples    Africana linguistica ,2011    Journal of African Languages and Linguistics ,2000    Dicionário Chisena-Português Dionísio Simbe,2004    Dicionário histórico das ordens José Eduardo Franco,2010
