Computational Linguistics and Intelligent Text Processing Alexander Gelbukh, 2003-01-31 CICLing 2003 www.CICLing.org was the 4th annual Conference on Intelligent Text Processing and Computational Linguistics. It was intended to provide a balanced view of the cutting edge developments in both the theoretical foundations of computational linguistics and the practice of natural language text processing with its numerous applications. A feature of CICLing conferences is their wide scope that covers nearly all areas of computational linguistics and all aspects of natural language processing applications. The conference is a forum for dialogue between the specialists working in these two areas. This year we were honored by the presence of our keynote speakers: Eric Brill (Microsoft Research USA), Aravind Joshi (University of Pennsylvania USA), Adam Kilgarriff (Brighton University UK) and Ted Pedersen (University of Minnesota USA) who delivered excellent extended lectures and organized vivid discussions. Of 92 submissions received after careful reviewing, 67 were selected for presentation: 43 as full papers and 24 as short papers by 150 authors from 23 countries: Spain 23 authors, China 20, USA 16, Mexico 13, Japan 12, UK 11, Czech Republic 8, Korea and Sweden 7 each, Canada and Ireland 5 each, Hungary 4, Brazil 3, Belgium, Germany, Italy, Romania, Russia and Tunisia 2 each, Cuba, Denmark, Finland and France 1 each.

Anna Livia Plurilingual Patrick O'Neill,2025-05-16 The complexity of James Joyce s Finnegans Wake ensures that it cannot be translated rather it can only be rewritten These rewritings vary significantly and the extent of their differences both within individual target languages and across multiple languages invites further exploration Anna Livia Plurilingual is a study of a Joycean macrotext that provides a detailed comparative analysis of multiple translations of selected excerpts from Joyce s iconic Anna Livia Plurabelle 1928 which was later incorporated into Finnegans Wake 1939 Patrick O Neill examines how these translations function as independent texts rather than mere derivatives of the original highlighting the creative and interpretative choices made by translators While the concept of a literary macrotext could in principle encompass all reader responses this work specifically focuses on translations emphasizing comparative readings of the original text alongside its diverse interpretations O Neill s investigation not only illuminates the intricacies of Joyce s language and the complexities of the resulting macrotext but also offers valuable insights into the broader field of literary translation studies
