Making Connections Marilyn Naidoo, 2021-11-19 Because of the disconnect within the curriculum and the lack of contextual relevance African theological education is still searching for appropriate approaches to ministerial training Integrative theological education refers to systematic attempts to connect major learning experiences appropriate to the education and formation of ministers It is seen as a solution to connect and transform ministry training The main premise of this book is that the key to enhancing theological education is the intentional integration of knowing with being and doing of theory with practice and of theology with life and ministry In this way all aspects of student learning are brought together holistically highlighting an educational strategy that is concerned with connections in human experience thereby supporting student learning Making Connections offers the opportunity to consider integration as an appropriate pedagogical approach to create the correct balance in making education more meaningful and fulfilling for the African revealing humanising education grounded in African philosophy and worldview THE Minister's Handbook: A Guide for Leadership Rev.
