Indeed, the most profound human activities in the field are still the search for a common ground between the concrete and the immaterial, which is to say, finding the intersection of human existence. In the last years, more and more architects have been looking for a common ground between the concrete and the immaterial, which is to say, finding the intersection of human existence. Austria Czechoslovakia and Hungary A powerful institution in the Habsburg Empire the Catholic Church continued to be a central social political and cultural agent after 1918 working in alliance with political parties and national governments to promote visions of a new national culture As a result church building took on an important ideological and political function Rampley's study is set against the backdrop of two interrelated issues the role of architecture in the Catholic Church's response to an increasingly secular modernity and church architecture as part of the Church's attempts to shape social and political life in the states that emerged after the collapse of Austria Hungary Rampley also examines the aesthetic cultural and political contexts that informed architectural projects including the conflict between Catholicism and social democracy the embrace of fascism Catholic theories of technology and discourses of regionalism and ruralism In bringing to light an untold chapter in the history of modern architecture this book also engages in methodological reflection on the implications of the study of modern church architecture for the historiography of modernism This book will appeal to students and scholars of architectural history religious and political history and interwar Central European history Time Frames Ugo Carughi, Massimo Visone, 2017-04-28 11 Post tradition in Japanese culture Heritage 12 Industrial architecture 13 Landscape architecture 14 Middle class housing Memory 15 Cultural institutions 16 Architectural photography Conservation 17 Laws and regulations 18 Technology Economy 19 Economic analysis Index of places Index of names A Companion to Modernist Literature and Culture David Bradshaw, Kevin J.
