Devotional Islam in Contemporary South Asia Michel Boivin, Remy Delage, 2015-12-22 The Muslim shrine is at the crossroad of many processes involving society and culture It is the place where a saint often a Sufi is buried and it works as a main social factor with the power of integrating or rejecting people and groups and as a mirror reflecting the intricacies of a society The book discusses the role of popular Islam in structuring individual and collective identities in contemporary South Asia It identifies similarities and differences between the worship of saints and the pattern of religious attendance to tombs and mausoleums in South Asian Sufism and Shi'ism Inspired by new advances in the field of ritual and pilgrimage studies the book demonstrates that religious gatherings are spaces of negotiation and redefinitions of religious identity and of the notion of sainthood Drawing from a large corpus of vernacular and colonial sources as well as the register of popular literature and ethnographic observation the authors describe how religious identities are co-constructed through the management of rituals and are constantly renegotiated through discourses and religious practices By enabling students researchers and academics to critically understand the complexity of religious places within the world of popular and devotional Islam this geographical re-mapping of Muslim religious gatherings in contemporary South Asia contributes to a new understanding of South Asian and Islamic Studies
